

Dealey Plaza: Esoteric
Freemasonic Symbolism
In The Death
Of JFK
By
*Kent Daniel Bentkowski

After JFK promised to end the Viet Nam war, smash the CIA into a thousand pieces, and signed a Presidential Executive Order authorizing the U.S. Congress to begin producing their own Silver Certificates called 'United States Notes,' he quickly found himself TARGETED by the criminal elite, one of which included CIA operative George Herbert Walker Bush. Bush was photographed outside of the Texas Schoolbook Depository during the moments of the assassination itself. He would later LIE about many aspects of his personal involvement in the assassination plan, however.

DEALEY PLAZA: ESOTERIC FREEMASONIC SYMBOLISM IN THE DEATH OF JFK

Kent Daniel Bentkowski

“To really do good research, you need to specialize! Pick out one or two JFK subjects that really interest you, and then research the hell out of them.”

--- Penn Jones, Jr. to JFK photographic expert Jack White, from ‘Assassination Science,’ pg. 211

The quote above states a fundamental fact concerning academic research. In order to produce worthwhile results, one needs to specialize in specific areas in which they are an expert, to the exclusion of all other non-relevant subjects. Because of my own research into the ritualised behaviour of the high-level occult practitioners known as the global elite, I have concentrated on the following aspects of the public execution of President Kennedy; the occult symbology associated with the location as well as with the assassination itself. In addition, I have also widely expanded the so-called coincidences list that compare JFK with Abraham Lincoln, as well as other aspects of the family symbolism that had been connected to what now seems to have been JFK's deliberate and inevitable fate.

Before I begin with my analysis, allow me to briefly introduce my research modalities.

I am what I refer to as a ‘research-journalist,’ which is a journalist who concentrates on research, instead of merely reporting the daily news, as most journalists do. I work independently of an editor and a publisher; however, I perform both functions as publisher and senior editor of an online news journal called ‘The Kentroversy Papers.’ Within the first ten months of the existence of this site, it has become ranked well within the top 1% of all sites ranked by Technorati, an Internet ranking service. Think of it as the Billboard music charts for Internet websites! Today, as we have safely passed the second anniversary of the online presence of The Kentroversy Papers, literally hundreds of thousands of people have read my research special reports, which have been published in nearly every area of the world. The majority of my readers hail from the United States and Canada, South America, Europe, the Pacific Rim, and Australia.

In researching this matter, I have been able to integrate nearly thirty years of my own study of the global elite, occult symbolism, and the esoteric nature of the various Mystery Schools – particularly the Egyptian Mystery School, and its’ Mysteries of Osiris and Isis. I maintain a large reference library, which consists of more than 2,000 books, and more than a quarter million pages of research material, which includes nearly 9,000 pages of my own handwritten and collected notes. Throughout the years, I have had the opportunity to study the Warren Commission report in great detail, as well as the infamous Zapruder film, which in its’ publicly released form, is corrupt and has been heavily edited. In addition, over the past thirty years, I have read every major study of the assassination, including the transcripts of the 1964 Warren Commission Report and the 1977 United States House of Representatives Select Committee on the Assassination.

The Warren Commission was filled with Freemasons, who all took part in obscuring the ritualistic Freemasonic murder of JFK.

I have a unique relationship with this horrible event, as it occurred on the day before my second birthday, and sadly, it forms the earliest memory I have of my entire life. Throughout the years, I could not get this event out of my mind, and when I worked as an assistant librarian for two years in 1980-1981, the JFK assassination became my first-ever research subject. Where I used to have to go to a library to do this research, today, I can do 98% of all the required research from my desktop computer. With the plethora of online databases, such as LEXIS-NEXIS, I haven't had to go to an actual library in over four years.

JFK – A Life As Seen Through The Eyes of the Occult Practitioner:

Handbill that was passed out on the streets of Dallas in the days before the ritualistic Freemasonic murder of JFK.

It has been my belief for many years now, that the key to understanding whom it was that conspired to murder President Kennedy, lies within the occult symbolism of the assassination and every aspect of November 22, 1963 and what took place on that day. To the best of my knowledge, this has not been done by any living researcher, from the unique perspective I will take in this document.

I have discovered through my own trial-and-error, that the best way to come to an understanding about such matters, is to think about things the way THEY think about them. It does no good to affix our own morality to these types of situations, especially when it is known that their thinking is diametrically opposed to our own.

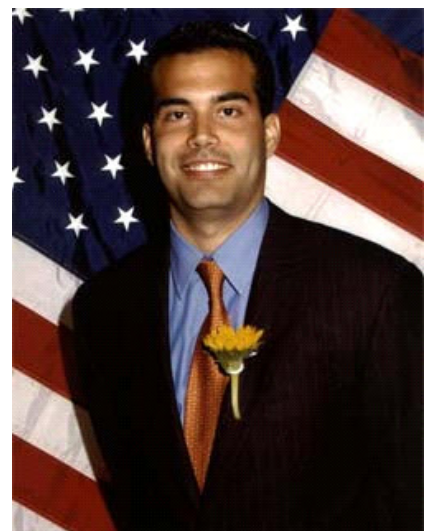

For instance, my own morality is such where I would never consider killing another human being, but, the way these elites think, they have no problem sending tens of thousands of people to their deaths in senseless wars about territory or monetary gain. The killing of innocent people in these wars are referred to simply as “collateral damage,” and this should help the reader understand the mind set of these individuals, who care about nothing but themselves, money, and their control over others.

Everything that the Global Elite do is carefully planned many years in advance. This allows time for future politicians to be ‘groomed’ to accept the position that has been handpicked for them. Just to give you two quick examples of this, I was told in 1988 that George Bush Jr. would be President at some point in the not-too-distant future. Knowing how hated his father was at the time, I doubted this to be the case. Then he bought the Texas Rangers baseball team, and soon became governor of Texas. When this happened, I doubted no more. The second example I will give to you is George P. Bush, the nephew of Bush Jr. Jeb’s Hispanic son has already begun his own ‘grooming’ process to become the first Hispanic President of the United States, which is likely to happen many years down the road.

George P. Bush, who is currently being groomed for a spot as America's First Hispanic President. Remember, I am telling you about this a minimum of EIGHT YEARS before it will actually happen! This is how far in advance these people are selected for President.

Now that you have been informed, watch it develop right before your very eyes!

JFK rose to prominence after his older brother Joe Kennedy Jr. was killed in World War II. Such people work with occult astrologers and numerologists, as we have since seen with Nancy Reagan and Hillary Clinton, who claimed to be in touch with a deceased Eleanor Roosevelt. Every aspect of these people's public schedules are planned out in such a way, as to be favourable under the disciplines they are employing. They do this in an attempt to extract as much advantage as they can from all activities in which they are engaged.

Joseph P. Kennedy Jr., who died in World War II, on August 12, 1944, when his plane was shot down.

Dealey Plaza I:

Dealey Plaza was named after George Bannerman Dealey, founder of the 'Dallas Morning News,' and a civic leader in the area. The Plaza happens to be the location of the very first home in Dallas, along with it being the site of the first courthouse, store, post-office, and Freemason's Lodge. In the plaza is an obelisk that has a plaque identifying the site as 'the birthplace of Dallas.' In 1935, the site was named Dealey Plaza, and was placed under the management and authority of the City of Dallas Park Board a year later, with the official completion of a railroad bridge that has become known as the 'Triple Overpass,' and the streets that converge at its' mouth, has become known as the 'Triple Underpass.'

A satellite image of Dealey Plaza, which was taken recently, and shows its' tripartite street design.

In 1992, I personally visited Dallas and Dealey Plaza, and for the first time in my entire life, I had an opportunity to perform some on-site research and measurements. It became my personal experience that walking the site is much different from merely looking at photographs or maps. I was able to arrange for a couple brief moments at the Texas School Book Depository window known as the 'sniper's nest,' and I can conclusively say that the shots that killed the President did not come from that window!

The official-fiction tells us that this was the location from which a single man fired three bullets, killing JFK and wounding Texas Governor John Connally. If this were TRUE, then WHY are the people from the Sixth Floor Museum so resistant to allowing people to look out this window, which is obscured by typical museum accoutrements; such as a display case, and other barriers preventing the public from seeing what Oswald supposedly saw?

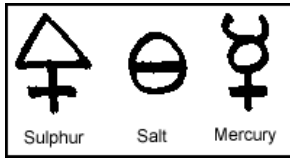

Just like 9/11 contained numerous incidences of the number 11 within the event, Dealey Plaza is chock full of numerological symbolism, and because of this, there are many correspondences to various numbers that have been built within the design of the plaza itself. Additionally, there are many more incidences of numerological symbolism in the assassination, and I will list these correspondences in the next section of this report, which deals with the occult numerology of the site itself and the horrible assassination event.

Dealey Plaza and JFK – Occult Numerology:

The following aspects of occult numerology have been built within the Plaza, as well as its' most infamous event:

Three (3 and 33) – The number three is important to occult numerology, as it is the union of the monad (1) and the dyad (2), which gives us the triad (3) or a trinity. It also represents the number of alchemical elements; sulphur, mercury, and salt. In Hebrew, the number 3 represents the three Mother Letters; Aleph, Mem, and Shin. On the Qabalistic Tree of Life, the number 3 relates to the sphere of Binah (understanding), and it also relates to Saturn, the most-important of all the planets beyond our own Earth.

The three alchemical elements of Sulphur, Salt, and Mercury.

The three Hebrew Mother Letters -- Aleph, Mem, and Shin. This diagram has been arranged as a Hermetic Caduceus.

The Qabalistic Tree of Life, which shows a highlighted sphere of Binah (understanding). This also corresponds to Saturn, the heaviest and most-important of all the ancient planetary bodies.

The city of Dallas is just south of the all-important 33° line of latitude. The 33rd degree is the highest publicly-known degree in the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry. The Trinity River lies at the foot of Dealey Plaza, and the Trinity Site in New Mexico, where the first atomic bomb explosion was carried out, also lies on the 33° line of latitude. Dealey Plaza features the convergence of three streets; Commerce, Elm, and Main. The Plaza sits on a 3-acre plot of land, in which the streets are arranged in a three-sided triangle or pyramid formation, with these three streets converging in and travelling through what has become known as the ‘triple underpass.’

A 3D map of Dealey Plaza, which shows the major sites in the assassination plan, and shows their relationship and location to the Plaza itself.

The 3 also represents the Trident spear of Poseidon-Neptune, which relates directly to water symbolism. Poseidon is Greek mythology, and Neptune is Roman mythology, but they are one in the same. Near the aforementioned Trinity River, the Dealey Plaza site, before the introduction of flood-control measures, was regularly flooded. The deaths that occurred with this flooding from the Trinity River marked the beginning of the site’s association with death, which along with the site’s importance to Freemasonry laid the groundwork for the occultic underpinnings of the Kennedy assassination of November 22, 1963.

Please note that the design of the Trident Spear of Poseidon-Neptune is identical to that of the street design of Dealey Plaza.

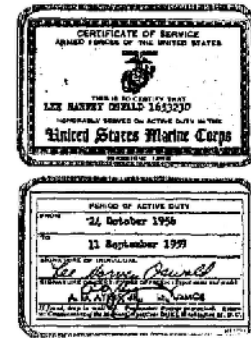

Some of the other intriguing correspondences to the number 3 were as follows; three shots were taken at the President, according to the official-fiction of that day. Immediately after the ritual execution, three ‘tramps’ were arrested, and taken on a ‘perp-walk’ in front of still cameras belonging to the mainstream press. These three were later identified as Charles Harrelson, Frank Sturgis, and E. Howard Hunt. Earlier in 2007, Hunt’s son had released a ‘deathbed confession’ type of tape to the Internet – the link for which appears below in the Sources section of this Kentroversy Special Report. Three men who were inextricably involved in the event, were known by three initials each. They were the victim John Fitzgerald Kennedy (JFK), the beneficiary Lyndon Baines Johnson (LBJ), and Lee Harvey Oswald (LHO), the alleged assassin. The true assassins’ shots apparently originated from three locations – the Grassy Knoll, the railroad bridge above the ‘triple underpass,’ and the Dal-Tex building.

The staged 'perp-walk' involving three supposed homeless tramps, occurred shortly after JFK was killed. This was done for the purposes of establishing the official-fiction of the event.

Additionally, Lee Harvey Oswald had a 3 year enlistment in the U.S. Marine Corps., from 1956-1959.

Here is a copy of Oswald's U.S.M.C. 'Certificate of Service,' signed by himself.

At 4:00pm on November 22, 1963 – exactly three hours after JFK had been pronounced dead at 1:00pm, the word was put out that the murder was the work of a single lone-nut assassin, Lee Harvey Oswald (LHO), and that no conspiracy existed. This was prior to any formidable investigation, and this conspiracy theory of the government's own making, thus became the establishment official-fiction of the event. Incidentally, it was at 4:00pm on 9/11, when the national news media put out the word for the first time that the events of THAT day were the work of one man, a lone-nut who was identified as Osama Bin Laden (OBL), and that no conspiracy existed. This was prior to any formidable investigation, and this conspiracy theory of the government's own making, thus became the establishment official-fiction of the event.

Yet another intriguing appearance of the number 3 in the assassination related to what the late researcher James Shelby Downard referred to as 'Masonic Sorcery.' JFK was hit in the exact three places as was the legendary Freemasonic figure Hiram Abiff; in the back, throat, and in the rear of the head. The ritualized murder of Abiff is acted out in Freemasonic initiations, which represents on a symbolic level, the actions of the French against the Knights Templar on Friday, October 13, 1307, when the King of France had the Templars purged from his country. Incidentally, esoteric researcher Ralph Ellis has traced the legend and myth of Hiram Abiff directly back to Ancient Egypt, in his 2002 book 'Solomon: Pharaoh of Egypt.'

Hiram Abiff, an important mythological figure in Freemasonry.

The highest publicly-known degree of the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, the meritorious and highly symbolic 33rd degree, the Degree of the Illuminati, contains a three word motto; 'Ordo Ab Chao.' This literally means 'From Out of Chaos Comes Order,' and it is an expression of what we know today as the Hegelian Dialectic (aka Problem-Reaction-Solution). Therefore, if the elites can break down the existing order of society, and the public cries out for restoration of some semblance of this order, the elite will emerge as the true global rulers, and then, they will finally have the world that they so intensely desire. This 'new order' includes the subjugation of all levels of society subordinate to that of the Global Elite.

The Jewel worn by all 33rd degree Freemasons, which contains the maxim ORDO AB CHAO -- or ORDER FROM CHAOS, if we take its' most literal translation.

Yet another 33 is found within the date of the assassination, as in the 11 representing November and the date of the 22nd, e.g. 11 + 22 = 33. All these appearances of the number 33 suggest the possibility that the assassination was carried out by one or more 33rd degree Freemasons, of which there were several. It is also interesting to note that Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, Earl Warren, was himself a 33rd degree Freemason, who was Grand Master of California from 1935 to 1936. He was also Potentate of Aahmes Shrine, and an officer in two Scottish Rite Lodges in Oakland, California. He was also a member of the Bohemian Club, and gave several lakeside speeches at Bohemian Grove, which is located north of San Francisco, in the small wooded town Monte Rio, California. His Warren Commission was filled with Freemasons. Gerald R. Ford, J. Edgar Hoover, and Allen Dulles were all 33rd degree Freemasons as well. Abraham Zapruder himself, was a 32nd degree Freemason, and after the assassination, he was raised to the 33rd degree, for his part in the assassination plan. Other high-level Freemasons directly involved in the murder of JFK included Lyndon Baines Johnson and George Bush Sr., both of whom were 33rd degree Freemasons, as well as Bush Sr. belonging to Yale University's Skull and Bones occult society.

Finally, three men directly involved in the assassination or its' aftermath were later rewarded with the Presidency, perhaps for their dedicated service to the Great Work of 'Masonic Sorcery.' These three men were Lyndon Baines Johnson, who was required to become President, to satisfy the occult symbology behind the event, which mirrored Andrew Johnson becoming President after Lincoln was murdered. Gerald R. Ford, who had unethically and immorally altered a Warren Commission exhibit to better fit the official-fiction, had gone on to become the first-ever unelected President of the United States.

Ten years later, Ford himself would find himself a target of a staged assassination attempt in front of the St. Francis Hotel, which is located opposite Mason Street in San Francisco, California USA. What is intriguing about this fact is that it was the members of the freemasonic 'Hell Fire Club,' an 18th century London occult club, which was the site of many sex magick orgies involving such well-known freemasons as Benjamin Franklin, referred to themselves as the Friars of St. Francis.

George Bush Sr., who was photographed outside of the Texas School Book Depository at the time of the assassination, had also gone on to become CIA Director, and later, President of the United States. Bush Sr. was also personally debriefed by J. Edgar Hoover the day after the assassination, as a document secured under the Freedom of Information Act filing informs us.

Dallas Police Officers seal off the Book Depository Building.

George Herbert Walker Bush, was photographed standing outside of the TSBD building at the moment of the assassination.

Here is a letter saying that Bush would be in Dallas on November 22, 1963, and even mentioned where he was staying while there. Bush later denied that he was even a CIA operative, and claimed he never belonged to the agency until he was named Director by President Gerald Ford, a former member of the Warren Commission.

As a bit of a postscript, Arlen Specter, the Warren Commission 'magic-bullet' conspiracy theorist, went on to become an extremely high-profile Senator, who is STILL in office, as I write these words in June 2007. However, this so-called 'magic-bullet' was a high-velocity piece of ammunition, while the Mannlicher-Carcano rifle that was supposedly used in the assassination, is a low-velocity weapon, incapable of shooting this type of ammunition. Beyond this, the Mannlicher-Carcano is a piece of garbage weapon, costing less than twenty dollars, including the price of the scope. Another prominent Warren Commission member was Louisiana's Democratic Representative Hale Boggs, the only Catholic on the entire Commission. When Boggs began to speak publicly about his doubts concerning the veracity of the published report, he soon found himself in a Wellstonian plane crash, where after 39 days of search and rescue operations in Alaska, all hope of finding Boggs and his three travel companions was abandoned, and all three were declared dead.

The Texas School Book Depository also had a total of precisely 33 employees at the time of the assassination.

Five (5) – There are numerous correspondences to the number 5 in the assassination of JFK, such as on November 23, 1963 at 12:20am, Lee Harvey Oswald is taken to a maximum-security cell on the 5th floor of the Dallas Police Department holding center. Here, we have a series of fives. The date of the 23rd adds up to 5, as in $2 + 3 = 5$. The time the press conference ended, 12:20am, gives us another 5, as in $1 + 2 + 2 = 5$. The last 5 above is found in the floor number the holding cell was on, which was the 5th floor. Taken together, we have a 555, which on pg. 52 of the book Sepher Sephiroth, means ‘obscurity.’ On the Qabalistic Tree of Life, the number 5 relates to strength, and it also corresponds to Mars, which in addition to being the fourth planet from the Sun, was also the Roman God of War.

The Qabalistic Tree of Life has as its' number five, the sphere of Geburah (strength). It also corresponds to the planet Mars, and Mars, the Roman God of War.

Perhaps this correspondence to the God of War is the reason why there is a cenotaph in Dealey Plaza, dedicated to JFK?

There are five major architectural elements of Dealey Plaza. They are the Obelisk and twin reflecting pools, the Grassy Knoll, a cenotaph known as the ‘JFK Memorial,’ as well as a Peristyle and Pergola; and finally, The Sixth Floor Museum at Dealey Plaza now occupies the old Texas School Book Depository building – and it is chartered to provide a historical perspective of the official-fiction of the event. Namely, that Lee Harvey Oswald fired three shots within an impossible amount of time, with a rifle that was incapable of firing the required number of bullets within the amount of time specified by the Warren Commission Report.

Eleven (11) – The time of Lee Harvey Oswald’s third (!) interrogation was 7:40pm, which gives us an 11, as in $7 + 4 = 11$. Eleven also represents November, the 11th month of the year. As the reader will have learned from the study of occult magick, 11 is the principal number associated with the discipline. It is the union of the pentalpha (literally, the five letter A’s) with the magickal hexagram, which is also known as the union of the pentagram and the hexagram. The pentagram represents the elements of air, fire, water, earth, and spirit (or that which the alchemists refer to as ‘quintessence’). The hexagram represents the six original planets (Saturn, Jupiter, Mars, Venus, Mercury, and Luna/Moon), plus the Sol/Sun, which are known as the Seven Planets of the Ancients.

Together, the pentagram (5) and the hexagram (6) equal 11.

The Lincoln Continental limousine in which JFK was murdered was traveling along at 11 m.p.h before the auto reached a certain spot near the Grassy Knoll, when driver William Greer suddenly and mysteriously came to a full stop, allowing the assassination to proceed unhindered. Fifty-nine witnesses; which included ten police officers, seven Secret Service Agents, thirty-seven spectators, two Presidential aides, one Senator, one State Governor, and the First Lady herself, all testified to the fact of this stop by Greer. While it is not shown in the Zapruder film, and this is perhaps proof of the editing of this historical document, which as Jim Fetzer and his various co-authors state in three books, the Zapruder film that is available to the public is NOT the original 8mm film, but a doctored and heavily-edited piece that was altered to support the official-fiction of the event. See the book ‘The Great Zapruder Film Hoax’ for many more details about the doctoring of this film footage.

Perhaps not too surprisingly, William Greer denied that he came to a full stop in his Warren Commission testimony, in spite of fifty-nine people saying he did. Thus, this becomes a matter of who does one believe, the words of one man who had something to hide, or the words of fifty-nine people who have absolutely no reason to lie about what they had seen transpire directly in front of their eyes? I think the answer to this is self-evident, and for this reason, I will say no more about Greer and his obvious complicity in the murder of a sitting President – treasonous behaviour to be sure.

Thirteen (13) – The number 13 is known as unlucky, as is Friday the 13th. Few people know the real beginnings of this ‘unlucky’ number and date, which is why I am mentioning it here. This unlucky reputation is because of what happened on Friday, October 13, 1307. At dawn on that date, King Phillippe of France arrested and burned at the stake all the Templar Knights, and sequestered their properties, and seized all their assets.

When it comes to the JFK assassination, there are some rather intriguing incidences of the number 13. To wit, 13 days before the JFK murder, an imposter LHO goes into a ‘Lincoln’ auto dealership for a test drive, even though he does not drive, has no license, and rode the bus or walked nearly everywhere he went. Clay Shaw (aka Clay Bertrand) just so happened to live at 1313 Dauphine Street in New Orleans, Louisiana USA. Interestingly, dauphine is a form of the word dolphin, which relates to the water symbolism once more. New Orleans is sitting right on the Atlantic Ocean, in the Gulf of Mexico, an area that was flooded and saw massive deaths in the wake of Hurricane Katrina, in August 2005. In addition, the Kennedy family crest has a dolphin (or water serpent) that can be found within its’ design.

Another intriguing example of the number 13 was that exactly 13 employees of the Texas School Book Depository were laying a tile floor on the sixth floor on the day of the assassination. This is symbolic of the tessellated design that is featured in all Freemasonic Lodges the world over, and it represents the balance of light vs. dark that the Masons strive for in the performance of their Great Work. Looking up the number 13 in Wikipedia explains the numbers’ reputation for being unlucky, but it says nothing whatsoever about the events of October 13, 1307.

By the way, the forthcoming October 13, 2007 is the 700th anniversary of the Templar purge, and because of this, it will be fascinating to see what type of occult-related event the elite have in store for us on this date. The award-winning host and producer of the television show ‘The Freeman Perspective,’ Freeman Fly, states in Kentroversy Tapes podcasts # 03 and # 04 (June 11, 2007 and June 18, 2007) that the forthcoming anniversary date of October 13, 2007 might feature an event at the White House itself, where George Bush Jr. is himself assassinated. As Freeman pointed out, Jr’s name within Skull & Bones is ‘Temporary,’ which appears to support Freeman’s assertions in this matter.

Coincidences Between Presidents Lincoln and Kennedy:

There are perhaps no better set of examples than the following list, when one is considering the level to which the occult aspect of the JFK public assassination was planned and executed. This is also an example of the length of time involved in the planning of such events, and in this case, the length of time involved in connecting the JFK murder to that of Lincoln, was approximately one-hundred years. The Global Elite pretend that examples such as this are merely coincidence, and no more. They always deny pre-planning, foreknowledge, and complicity – except when they are tying an event to a lone-nut patsy, such as Lee Harvey Oswald. However, with each succeeding example of these so-called coincidences, it becomes less and less likely to be the coincidence they claim it to be, as we shall see in the following examples concerning the occult connections between the deaths of President Lincoln and President Kennedy, a century later.

The following list contains more than one-hundred examples of what has been termed coincidence, and nothing more:

Both names, Lincoln and Kennedy, have seven letters.

Both men were born second in their respective families, and were named after their paternal grandfathers. Both men had been over six-feet tall and athletic, enjoying impromptu sport with family members. Both men had a lazy eye, and suffered from multiple genetic disorders, including depression.

Both men were highly intelligent, and loved to quote both Shakespeare and the Bible. They also loved great literature, and could recite their favorite poetry by heart. Both were famous for his quick-wit and for telling hilarious stories and anecdotes. Both were engaging public speakers, and among their many speeches are ones with great historical significance, such as Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, and JFK's "Ask not what your country can do for you, but what you can do for your country" speech.

Mary Todd Lincoln was previously engaged to another man, as was Jacqueline Bouvier Kennedy. Both women were dark-haired and twenty-four years old at the time of their marriages to the future Presidents, and their husbands were in their thirties. Both women were from socially prominent families, and both Mary and Jackie were well-known for their exquisite taste and fashion sense. Both first ladies tastefully and rather expensively renovated the White House, in 1861 and 1961, respectively.

Both men were elected to Congress in 1846 and 1946. Both men were the runner-up for the nomination of vice president in 1856 and 1956. Both were elected President of the United States exactly four years later, in 1860 and 1960, with less than fifty percent of the vote for each man. The two Presidential elections were held on November 8th, for the term in which they were later assassinated. The legality of each election was contested by vociferous opponents of both Lincoln and JFK. War demanded the attention of both men, almost immediately after their inaugurations.

Both Lincoln and JFK had small children when they were living in the White House, who rode ponies on the grounds. Both men let his children run and play in the Oval Office. Both families, the Lincoln's and the Kennedy's – had four children each, with each man losing a son while serving as President, and two of their four children died before they reached their teen years. Lincoln's daughter-in-law was named Mary Eunice, and JFK had a sister named Eunice Mary. Both men had sons whose funerals were held on July 16th, in the years 1871 and 1999, respectively. Both deceased sons were exhumed and later re-buried at an alternate locations. Both Presidents had a doctor named Charles Taft, and both had a personal friend and advisor named William Graham (Lincoln) and Reverend Billy Graham (JFK). Both men were friends with an Illinois Democrat named Adlai Stevenson. Both men were also related to various Senators, as well as were related to an Attorney General who had graduated from Harvard University.

In both assassinations, the official-fiction has been disputed, and conspiracy theories concerning the deaths of these two men have been hotly debated for many decades, and have never been resolved satisfactorily in the mind of the public.

The police investigator who was warned of an assassination plot to kill Lincoln, was named John Kennedy. JFK had a personal secretary named Evelyn Lincoln, whose husband Harold's nickname just so happened to be 'Abe.'

Shortly before their respective assassinations, both Lincoln and Kennedy ordered the U.S. Treasury to print its' own money. Lincoln called them Greenbacks, while Kennedy called his money United States Notes. Examples of both are highly sought after by those who collect rare currency, and both are extremely valuable examples of this. Immediately after the assassination of each man, the plans for the metals-backed currencies were abandoned, with the international bankers benefiting from each assassination.

Both men were very concerned about equal rights for people of colour, making their views public in 1863 and 1963.

Lincoln delivered an important speech, the Gettysburg Address, on November 19, 1863. JFK delivered an important speech on education to the National Education Associations, on November 19, 1963.

Both men were loved by the public, but hated by the establishment; members of whom had ordered their deaths.

Lincoln was succeeded, after his assassination, by Vice President Andrew Johnson, who was born in 1808, and whose name was 13 letters in length. JFK was succeeded, after his assassination, by Vice President Lyndon Johnson, who was born in 1908, and whose name was 13 letters in length. Both men were heavy drinkers, with crude behaviour. Both Johnson's have been rumoured to be parties to the assassination plans, who were blamed for this by both First Ladies' Mary Todd Lincoln and Jacqueline Bouvier Kennedy.

Both Lincoln and JFK were killed on a Friday before a holiday. In Lincoln's case, it was the Good Friday before Easter. In JFK's case, it was the Friday before Thanksgiving; during the last moments of the Sun's travels through Scorpio. It is at this very time of the year, historically, where the traditional death rites of the 'Sun King' were traditionally carried out. This includes figures such as Osiris of Ancient Egypt, and JFK himself. The wives of both men were at their side at the time of their assassinations, but were unharmed. Both women held their husband's head in their hands, as they attempted to deal with what had just transpired.

Lincoln was shot in Ford's Theatre, which was located at 511 10th Street, NW Washington, DC. This street intersects with E Street, the first letter of the street on which JFK was murdered, which was Elm Street, in Dallas, Texas. Kennedy was allegedly shot from a warehouse, located at 411 Elm Street, Dallas, Texas. This is near Hord Street, and Corbin Street. Corbin is a variation of Corbett, the last name of the man who supposedly killed freemason John Wilkes Booth. Hord is very close to the name of the theatre at which Lincoln was murdered.

Both addresses have a number 11 in them, which is the central number of magick and important to the practice of the occult, for reasons stated in the numerology section of this report. The TSBD Sixth Floor Museum has a '666' in the phone number, another number of the occult and magick, as it relates to the triplicity of the Sun, or Solar energy. The number 6 is long-associated with the Sun, because in the Qabalistic Tree of Life, sphere number 6 corresponds to the Sun.

Lincoln was seated in Box 7 in Ford's Theatre. JFK was riding in a Lincoln Continental limousine, which was made by Ford Motor Company. Coincidentally, this was automobile 7 in the Dallas motorcade.

At the time of both assassinations, the President's bodyguard detail was away from their usual posts, conveniently allowing both murders to take place. Lincoln's bodyguard was away from his post at the door of the President's box at Ford's Theatre. JFK's Secret Service detail were likewise away from their posts alongside the Presidential limousine.

After Lincoln was shot in Ford's Theatre, his alleged assassin ran to a tobacco barn, which was being used as a storage facility, where he was later captured. JFK was allegedly shot from a warehouse storage facility, and his alleged assassin was captured in Texas Theatre. The handyman, bill distributor, and part-time concession stand operator at Ford's Theatre was named Joseph 'Peanuts John' Burroughs. The concession stand operator at the Texas Theatre was named Butch Burroughs.

Both alleged assassins were known by three names of 15 letters total. Lincoln was allegedly shot by freemason and Knight of the Golden Circle John Wilkes Booth, and JFK was allegedly shot by the intelligence operative whom was sometimes known as Lee Harvey Oswald. Both of these men were also known by several aliases. Booth was known by the alias Jay Wilkes, and Oswald was known by the alias Alek J. Hidell. Booth was likewise involved in intelligence work, and both of these men had become inextricably involved with dramatically altering the course of the nation, in the aftermath of the deaths of Presidents Lincoln and JFK.

While it is not known if Lee Harvey Oswald was a freemason, one thing is certainly clear. The infamous 'backyard photograph' that was used to convict Oswald in the court of public opinion, shows LHO in the Freemasonic foot stance of an initiate. This is further evidence of Freemason occultic involvement in the death of JFK.

In the above two photos, one of a Freemason Initiate, and the other of Lee Harvey Oswald, the positioning of the feet are identical. This was apparently done to connect the Freemasons with the death of JFK, at least on a symbolic level.

Both Presidents died in locations with the initials P and H. Lincoln died in Peterson's House, and JFK died in Parkland Hospital. Incidentally, both Oswald and Jack Ruby (real name: Jacob Rubinstein) also died at Parkland Hospital.

John Wilkes Booth was shot in killed in police custody, and never made it to trial. Lee Harvey Oswald suffered this same fate, as well.

JFK's funeral was modelled on Lincoln's funeral. JFK's casket lie in state in the Capitol Rotunda for two days, resting upon the catafalque used by Lincoln. For those readers who are unfamiliar with the term, a catafalque is a raised bier or platform, upon which a casket is placed. Mrs. Kennedy also consulted a book on Lincoln's funeral for other details to further tie together the deaths of these two men.

Days before it happened, Lincoln told his wife and close friends about a dream he had about seeing himself lying in state, after an assassination via gunfire. Hours before his death, JFK remarked to his wife and close friends that because of his popularity and close-proximity to crowds of people, how easy it would be for someone to come forward from within the crowd to shoot and kill him.

Here is Lincoln's remark concerning the premonition within his dream:

"...I kept on until I arrived at the East Room, which I entered. There I met with a sickening surprise. Before me was a catafalque, on which rested a corpse wrapped in funeral vestments. Around it were stationed soldiers who were acting as guards; and there was a throng of people, gazing mournfully upon the corpse, whose face was covered, others weeping pitifully. "Who is dead in the White House?" I demanded of one of the soldiers, "The President," was his answer; "he was killed by an assassin." Then came a loud burst of grief from the crowd, which woke me from my dream. I slept no more that night; and although it was only a dream, I have been strangely annoyed by it ever since."

--- President Lincoln; three days before his assassination

Here is JFK's remark concerning his own death:

"You know, last night would have been a hell of a night to assassinate a President ... There was the rain and the night, and we were all getting jostled. Suppose a man had a pistol in a briefcase?" JFK then opens up the Dallas Morning News, to see the headline 'WELCOME MR. KENNEDY TO DALLAS.' After reading a passage that asks "Why have you scrapped the Monroe Doctrine for the Spirit of Moscow? Mr. Kennedy, we DEMAND answers to these questions, and we want them now," Kennedy then retorts: "We're heading into nut country today.""

---- President Kennedy; two hours before his assassination

Shortly after Lincoln was shot, the telegraph system went down, likely because of system overload. Shortly after JFK was shot, the telephone system in Washington, DC went down, probably for this same reason. In certain heavy-load areas, it stayed down for an entire hour! Another interesting thing about the JFK assassination that speaks to complicity on the part of local law enforcement, was that for several minutes during the assassination, the Dallas City Police channel #1 was offline. When it came back online four minutes later, the Morse Code for 'Victory' could be heard by anyone tuned into or monitoring channel #1 of that police radio communications system.

JFK's father, family patriarch Joseph Kennedy, had been the U.S. Ambassador to England at the Court of St. James. Lincoln's oldest son, Robert Todd Lincoln, later became the U.S. Ambassador to England at the Court of St. James.

Jefferson Davis was the name of the president of the Confederate states while Lincoln was president of the Union States. Jefferson Davis Tippit was the name of the police officer supposedly killed by Kennedy's alleged assassin.

In addition, Jefferson Davis Tippit was a near double for JFK, so much so, that his nickname was literally 'JFK.' It has been posited that Tippit was murdered as part of the assassination plan, and his body was later substituted for JFK's. Both the First Lady Jackie Kennedy and Attorney General Robert Francis Kennedy commented on how little the body with which they were presented looked like their murdered loved-one, JFK.

RFK remarked that "It doesn't look like him at all." Further, RFK argued that the casket must be closed; "You mustn't keep it open. It has no resemblance to the President. It's a wax dummy ... Don't do it."

Presidential Aide Arthur Schlesinger said: "It is appalling, ... at first glance it seemed all right, but I am nearsighted. When I came closer it looked less and less like him."

William Manchester, in his book 'Death of a President,' wrote that the First Lady said: "It wasn't Jack. It was like something you would see at Madame Tussaud's."

A composite photographic comparison of Jefferson Davis Tippit and JFK, by R. D. Morningstar. The sources section below features a link to Morningstar's report, which features many gruesome photographs, including the infamous JFK 'wax dummy' autopsy photograph, which contains many features consistent with Tippit and NOT JFK!

Both assassins, Booth and Oswald, were each detained by an officer named Baker. Booth was also helped by a man named Paine, and Mrs. Paine was the name of Oswald's landlady.

Both assassins were killed by a single shot from a Colt handgun. Both were killed before trial and before their version of events could be told, and both had autopsies that altered significant physical evidence to suit the official-fiction of each event.

Finally, after the death and funeral of Abraham Lincoln, his surviving family members moved to 3014 N Street, in the Georgetown section of Washington, DC. After the death and funeral services for JFK, his surviving family members moved to 3017 N Street, the very same street in the Georgetown section of Washington, DC as where the Lincoln's moved!

Conclusion – Lincoln-JFK Coincidences:

I believe that the extensive list of more than one-hundred coincidences that appear above, between the deaths of Presidents Lincoln and Kennedy, is more than enough examples for the reader to begin to question if in fact, is there something much deeper than mere coincidence at play here? I say this because with each successive example, coincidence becomes less and less of a probability. And when we are talking of the occult here, the way to best extract as much advantage from a scenario such as these, is to layer into the proceedings as many meaningful direct correspondences as possible. This is important, because as the freemasons themselves know, one cannot build a sturdy structure on a weak foundation, and this is also true of the practice of Downard's 'Masonic Sorcery.'

Dealey Plaza II:

Today, if one travels to Dealey Plaza, they will find that there are a minimum of three major architectural occultic elements of the plaza that relate to sex, birth, and life symbolism. The Obelisk and twin reflecting pools represent occult symbolism related to sex, birth, and life itself. The Obelisk is a symbolic representation of the Penis of Osiris, of Ancient Egypt. Legend has it that when Seth killed Osiris, his body was cut up into fourteen segments, which were then spread to the far reaches of the desert lands. When we examine the photograph of the Dealey

Plaza Obelisk, we see that the shaft has been separated into exactly fourteen demarcations. Atop the Obelisk is the lighted torch of Illumination, which is itself, a none-too-subtle reference to the male orgasm. The reflecting pools represent the amniotic fluids of pregnancy, and even though it is not a part of this design, the Elite typically place a dome opposite the Obelisk, which is itself separated by the reflecting pool. The dome relates to the female breast and the sustenance it brings to young life. It is represented by a circle with a dot in the middle, which is an astrological symbol representing the Sun and Solar Energy. These members of the Global Elite are all Sun worshippers, and this is a fitting correspondence for this very reason.

The statue of George Bannerman Dealey in the eponymous plaza, which was erected and dedicated in 1949, and contains the following text:

Citizens of all stations and creeds, comprising the G. B. Dealey memorial association of Dallas, erect this monument to commemorate the service and preserve the example of a great, good and useful life, consecrated in faith, dedicated in purpose, to the glory of God and the betterment of mankind.

Truth was its light, wisdom its guide, history its counsellor, journalism its fruitful province, sympathy broad as human need was its inspiration, philanthropy. -- founded in all-embracing brotherly love -- its highest aim

ANNO DOMINI MCMXLIX [i.e. - 1949]

Dealey Plaza contains an obelisk, which was placed in the plaza in 1938, 25 years before the assassination which would bring worldwide infamy to the site.

The text of the obelisk reads as follows:

Dealey plaza birthplace of Dallas within this small park was built the first home, which also served as the first courthouse and post office, the first store and the first fraternal lodge. Dedicated to the pioneers of civic progress by order of the park board..

NOTE: Special thanks to Gary Mack and Megan P. Bryant of the 'Sixth Floor Museum,' for the photographs from which the above text was taken.

Here are a photo of the Peristyle columns and arches and two separate shots of the Dealey Plaza reflecting pools.

Perhaps the most well-known of all the Dealey Plaza landmarks is the 'Grassy Knoll' area, where at least one of the three shooters was located – behind the infamous stockade fence. Film and still frame analysis of the area has revealed that there was much more going on, than 32nd degree freemason and shoe merchant Abraham Zapruder standing on the so-called Zapruder Pedestal to take the historical Zapruder film of the assassination. Upon my visit in 1992, there was this discernable pall that emanated from this area in particular. I personally took that to mean that the Grassy Knoll was the very location, from which the kill-shot originated. Lastly, behind the Grassy Knoll lies a railroad yard. This was how the real shooters escaped the Plaza so quickly, and within 45 minutes, they were already on a plane out of this country, where they have never been brought to justice.

The Grassy Knoll area of Dealey Plaza, and the Zapruder pedestal, which is to the left of the peristyle columns and arches.

The next architectural element of Dealey Plaza is this cenotaph known as the ‘JFK Memorial.’ For those who remain unfamiliar with this term, a cenotaph is a tomblike monument to someone buried elsewhere, especially one who died fighting in a war. This monument consists of four outer walls, which conceal a flat-stone in the inside corner, near one of the outside walls. Thus, we have a Freemasonic cornerstone. However, upon closer inspection, this stone is actually an unfinished cubic stone of the magicians, who use a cuboid altar in their praxis of magick. Here, we have a true dualistic meaning – first, this monument tells us who were responsible for JFK’s death – high-level freemasons, especially those of the all-important 33rd degree. Secondly, because we are dealing with an unfinished cubic stone, another meaning of this relates to the ‘unfinished business’ of a young President, who was cut down in his prime.

In Dealey Plaza is a Cenotaph called the JFK Memorial. A Cenotaph is a military monument to someone who is interred somewhere else. Such as the commemoration of someone who died in a war.

The Sixth Floor Museum at Dealey Plaza now occupies the old Texas School Book Depository building – and it is chartered to provide a historical perspective of the official-fiction of the event. Namely, that Lee Harvey Oswald fired three shots within an impossible amount of time, with a rifle that was incapable of firing the required number of bullets within the amount of time specified by the Warren Commission Report. In addition to using a garbage rifle, Oswald was not even a marksman or sharpshooter, as he had scored rather low on the rifle-range testing, when he was in the United States Marine Corps for three years, from 1956-1959.

The Sixth Floor Museum is on of the most sickening and Satanic museums I have ever had the displeasure of visiting. In 1992, I was in Dallas for a business trip, and had decided to see what they had done to commemorate an event that should NOT be celebrated in any way, shape, or form.

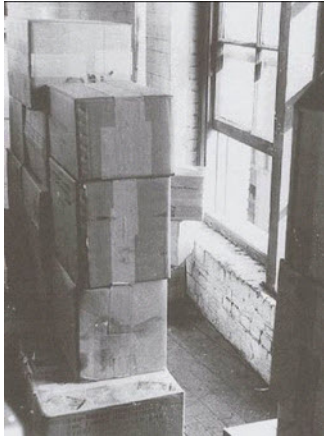

What I learned during this museum trip, was that there was no possible way that the shots originated from the so-called sniper's nest window on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository building. Listen to my May 21, 2007 interview with Vyzygoth for the reason WHY.

The museum is full of film clips, photographs, and documents commemorating the official-fiction of the assassination. Anything that disputes the official-fiction is disqualified and never displayed in the museum proper. The museum is set up in the form of a multimedia tour of the building as it was on November 22, 1963. Various JFK artefacts are on display, and these include speeches, radio reports, and photographs and film documentation of the event.

The tour ends at the area of the floor that has come to be known via the official-fiction as the ‘Sniper’s Nest.’ This is supposedly the location from which Oswald did all those impossible things, within an impossibly short amount of time – in order to single-handedly kill JFK. This area is blocked off from anyone’s view – obscured by a display case and window. The official-fiction falls apart if we are allowed to look through this window towards the motorcade route down Elm Street, which I was able to arrange for myself.

Based upon what I saw through that window, Oswald could not possibly have made those shots from that location!

The official-fiction tells us that this was the location from which a single man fired three bullets, killing JFK and wounding Texas Governor John Connally. If this were TRUE, then WHY are the people from the Sixth Floor Museum so resistant to allowing people to look out this window, which is obscured by typical museum accoutrements, such as a display case, and other barriers preventing the public from seeing what Oswald supposedly saw?

November 22, 1963 – The Strange Movements of Jacob Rubinstein:

“A whole new form of government is going to take over the country.”

--- Jacob Rubenstein (aka Jack Ruby)

Although the world knows him as Jack Ruby, Jacob Rubinstein flirted with his mafia connections, and became an active member in the Dallas underworld. The quote above was spoken by him about the effect the forthcoming assassination would have on both American politics and the American psyche, which by this point, has proven to be bone-chillingly accurate. Jack Ruby made some very interesting movements on the day of the assassination, where he showed up in important locations, moments before historical events would soon transpire. This would lead the legendary Internet radio host Vyzygoth to remark during my May 21, 2007 appearance on his show, which is coincidentally named ‘From The Grassy Knoll’:

“It’s almost like somebody, like the father of the bride, making sure that all the arrangements are good – everything’s going along well.”

--- Vyzygoth; 'From The Grassy Knoll' Radio Show (May 21, 2007)

I believe this to be a fair description of Ruby’s movements, as I describe them in chronological order. When I discovered the following chronology, which was originally compiled in the form of a 100 page document by Ira David Wood III, I was struck by the following movements of Ruby, which have never been addressed or explained by the official-fiction of the event – the conspiracy theory of the government’s own creation:

November 21, 1963 (afternoon):

Ruby begins his JFK operation with a visit to Lamar Hunt on the afternoon of the day before the assassination. Lamar is the brother of CIA operative E. Howard Hunt, who was one of the assassins of JFK, and would later go onto greater fame for his central role in the break-ins at the Watergate Hotel and the office of Daniel Ellsberg’s psychiatrist, which led to the downfall of Richard Nixon, and the simultaneous ascension of CIA operative George Bush Sr., who would later become the acting President during Ronald Reagan’s two-terms, because of the fact that, shortly after taking office, Reagan experienced the beginning of Alzheimer’s dementia. It was a deft public relations ploy to play it up as an old codger’s forgetfulness and absent-mindedness, which endeared Reagan to the American people, who saw him as America’s Grandfather.

So, what was Ruby doing in Hunt’s office? Most likely, he was also meeting with E. Howard, to get the final orders for the evil to come.

November 22, 1963 (morning):

Ruby begins his day by calling up a friend, whom he asks if he would “like to watch the fireworks?” Little does he know, but this friend is an undercover informant for the criminal intelligence division of the IRS.

November 22, 1963 (11:00am):

Ruby is first seen behind the wheel of a stalled pick-up truck at Dealey Plaza. Ruby was seen taking a wrapped rifle out of the truck, and walking up the embankment of the Grassy Knoll, to deliver the rifle to its’ required position, perhaps? On this day, there are twenty-eight Secret Service men on detail for the President’s motorcade. However, not a single one of them had secured the streets along the motorcade route, the railroad overpass, the rail yard behind the Grassy Knoll, or any of the buildings and windows that overlooked the site.

November 22, 1963 (12:10pm):

Twenty minutes from now, JFK would be murdered on Dealey Plaza’s Elm Street, below the offices of the Dallas Morning News. Here, Jack Ruby is seen by everyone who was there at the time, and one of the only logical reasons for him to be in this office at this particular time, had seen Ruby overseeing final preparations of the assassination plan. He was seen as testified by four witnesses. At this same moment, JFK’s limousine passes Main and Houston, where twenty deputies are out in front of the building, to watch the parade. Later, sixteen of these twenty men would testify that the shots came from the rail yard behind the Grassy Knoll. This testimony, however, did not fit the official-fiction, thus it was discounted.

November 22, 1963 (12:30pm):

President Kennedy is shot and murdered, as his motorcade drove down Elm Street, and through Dealey Plaza, a location that is dripping with occult symbolism.

Moments after the public execution of JFK, Ruby is photographed standing outside of the front door of the Texas School Book Depository. Also photographed outside this building at this time of the shooting is Lee Harvey Oswald, who obviously cannot be in two places at once. Ruby is photographed by Phil Willis, and as Vyzygoth posited, could it be that this was ‘an expectant father presiding over the details of his daughter’s wedding?’

November 22, 1963 (12:35pm):

An off-duty Dallas police officer sees Jack Ruby walking down the embankment of the Grassy Knoll with a long package, which he threw into the back seat of a black automobile. He then jumps in the front seat, starts up the car, and speeds away in a westwardly direction. The officer pursues Ruby in his personal vehicle, but loses him in traffic.

November 22, 1963 (1:00pm):

President Kennedy pronounced dead by Dr. Kemp Clark, the Director of Neuro-Surgery, in Trauma Room One in Parkland Hospital. Dr. Clark tells the First Lady, “Your husband has sustained a fatal wound,” to which she replied “I know.”

November 22, 1963 (1:30pm):

Seth Kantor, who was a Scripps-Howard newspaper reporter who knew Jack Ruby personally, runs into him at Parkland Hospital. Because this caused a problem for the Warren Commission’s official-fiction of the event, Kantor’s testimony was ignored. However, in 1977-1978, the House Select Committee on Assassinations vindicated Kantor.

November 22, 1963 (1:45pm):

Jack Ruby goes to his Carousel Club and instructs the bartender to tell employees that the club will be closed because of the assassination.

November 22, 1963 (1:51pm):

A commotion breaks out in the Texas Theatre, where Lee Harvey Oswald is arrested for the murder of JFK. An interesting double bill was playing; 'War Is Hell' and 'Cry of Battle' (both 1963). Everyone, including the movie patrons, are looking to get a better view of the proceedings. However, there is one man who is sitting quietly observing the event, as it plays out before him. This man is Jack Ruby, who once again, is quite literally, in the thick of the action yet again. This can no longer be considered coincidence, at this point.

Incidentally, the policeman who 'found' Lee Harvey Oswald after JFK was shot was from the globalist McDonald family. This policeman was then assigned to protect the widow Marina Oswald. This policeman, M.N. McDonald has appeared on Dallas television recently on Channel 32, on a show called 'Top Cops,' where he speaks out against conspiracy theories in the JFK assassination. The entire arrest of Lee Harvey Oswald by M.N. McDonald is plagued by many questions.

November 22, 1963 (2:45pm):

While in custody in a holding cell on the fifth floor of the Dallas Police Department, Lee Harvey Oswald tells his cellmate about a weapons deal involving himself and, among other things, a Ford Thunderbird full of guns, a man with "a smashed-in face," and Jack Ruby. The driver of the Thunderbird was later identified as Ruby's personal mechanic.

November 22, 1963 (4:00pm-4:30pm):

As the newly sworn President Johnson flies across the country in Air Force One, he receives word from the White House Situation Room that the assassination was the act of one lone individual, and no conspiracy exists. The interesting thing about this is that Oswald only came in two hours earlier, and no line-up has been held, and no witness testimony has tied Oswald to either the Mannlicher-Carcano rifle found in the TSBD.

Jack Ruby makes his presence known at the Dallas Police Department offices, which have become congested with the news of the President's assassin having been located there.

November 22, 1963 (5:00pm):

As Ruby calls his friend Cecil Hamlin to tell him that he is closing his two nightclubs for the weekend, he begins crying and expressing his sorrow for the Kennedy kids. If Ruby had indeed played a central supervisory role in the assassination on his home turf, then these had to have been crocodile tears.

November 22, 1963 (5:30pm):

Ruby goes to the home of his sister, Eva Grant, to eat, make phone calls, and to try to get some rest. He finds that he can barely eat, and becomes sick to his stomach.

November 22, 1963 (6:30pm):

Ruby is back yet again at DPD, and was reported to talk with Detective August Eberhardt in the third-floor hallway. After speaking with Eberhardt, Ruby attempts to enter Captain Fritz's third-floor office, where Oswald is being questioned inside. Ruby is stopped by two officers guarding the door. "You can't go in there, Jack." one of them says.

November 22, 1963 (7:00pm):

Ruby is now seen at the DPD carrying a loaded Colt handgun. This would be the same gun that would be used to murder Lee Harvey Oswald two days later. The question I have is this; where did he get the gun, and why was he carrying it in police headquarters? Or, is the DPD where he got the gun? He would later admit to carrying the weapon in his Warren Commission testimony.

November 22, 1963 (7:30pm):

Back in the third floor hallway of DPD, Ruby is once again seen – this time by Dallas Police detective Roy Standifer. The two men, who know each other, exchange greetings.

November 22, 1963 (9:00pm):

Jack Ruby returns to his apartment, where he gets ready for religious services at his local synagogue.

November 22, 1963 (10:00pm):

Jack Ruby attends Friday night services at his local Synagogue.

November 22, 1963 (11:00pm):

Jack Ruby seen afterwards at the DPD, passing out sandwiches to the officers, whom he knew on a first-name basis, I will remind the reader.

November 23, 1963 (12:01am-12:20am):

Ruby is both seen and heard at LHO press conference, which was held in the DPD basement, and corrects District Attorney Henry Wade, of later Roe v. Wade fame, when Wade incorrectly mentions that LHO was a member of the 'Free Cuba Committee.' Ruby was heard to shout out to correct Wade: "Henry, that's the 'Fair Play For Cuba Committee.'" With this being held in the basement, it conjures up images of a soul traversing purgatory, to escape the eternal torment attached with this event of killing the President.

Seth Kantor, a reporter for Scripps-Howard News Service remarked about the unusual time and location for Oswald's press conference, by describing it as:

“something akin, I guess, to something you might conjure up for the Middle Ages.”

Here, he uses the word 'conjure,' which immediately forces one to think about magic tricks and sleight of hand, while referring to the Middle Ages, a time of great superstition and one where magic, alchemy, and metaphysics were used to baffle an unsophisticated and uneducated public.

November 24, 1963 (11:21am):

Jacob Rubinstein murders LHO in the Dallas Police Department's parking garage, which was shown on national television. Later investigation by the Warren Commission finds that there was no conspiracy in Oswald's death.

January 3, 1967 (11:21am):

On this date, Jack Ruby died of a pulmonary embolism, and many secrets of 11/22/63 died with him not saying a word about them. The location of the death of Jack Ruby was Parkland Hospital, where JFK, LHO, and now, JR all died there, in a triplicity of apparent and seeming coincidence.

Who Ordered The Murder of JFK?

There is plenty of evidence, both direct AND circumstantial, that point to the assassination being ordered by the Jesuit General, who was at that time in 1963, a rather nasty piece of work called Jean-Baptist Janssens. The order was executed by Pope Paul VI, and carried out by the American Pope, Francis Cardinal Spellman [e.g., spell man, magician?]. Spellman used agents within the Knights of Malta, Shriner Freemasonry, Knights of Columbus – as well as Mafia Dons, and factions within BOTH the FBI and CIA. These august bodies were used to carry out the order of assassination from the Vatican.

The reasons why JFK was assassinated are three ... which fits in with the rest of the ‘three symbolism’ of this event. First, he wanted to end American involvement in the Viet Nam war. Second, he was known to have expressed the sentiment of “smashing the CIA into a thousand pieces.” The CIA, he felt, had far overreached its’ statutory authority, and had been devolving into criminality, which was being protected under the guise of National Security and the purview of the National Security Act of 1947, and the National Security Agency itself. This problem has gotten exponentially worse in the past forty-plus years since the death of our last heroic American President, who was actually on the side of WE THE PEOPLE.

Secondly, JFK had been betrayed by the CIA in the personage of the criminal McGeorge Bundy, by his playing a part in the failed Cuban-patriot coup, which was supposed to see Castro removed by the patriots who had worked hard to bring about his downfall. JFK was also betrayed by the CIA through the Bay of Pigs invasion, which involved George Bush Sr. on a deep, operational level. The invasion had been named after Bush’s company Zapata. The names of the ships involved were code named the ‘Houston’ and the ‘Barbara.’ These were the name of the city in which Bush Sr. lived in the early 1960’s, and the name of his wife, Barbara Bush. This was the same tactic that was used in the Hungarian revolution of 1956, where the CIA and KGB joined forces under the command of James Jesus Angleton. The CIA fomented the revolution, and later betrayed all of the Hungarian patriots, who fell victim to the Soviet Army and the KGB. This infuriated certain top-level officials in the CIA, who were themselves outside of the operational loop. And, just as it had worked in 1956 with no one the wiser, they did it again in 1961, and again, it worked just as it was supposed to.

Thirdly, JFK had ordered the printing of United States Notes, a Constitutionally-mandated replacement of the Federal Reserve banking system, and currency. JFK recognized what a screw-job the Federal Reserve was, and moved to replace it with a silver-backed currency. This action alone pissed-off the international banking cartel, who suddenly had a very good reason for removing JFK from the picture on a permanent basis. These bankers also benefited and profited rather handsomely from the assassination, just as they did when Abraham Lincoln tried the same thing about one-hundred years earlier. Today, JFK’s United States Notes are highly sought-after in collectors’ circles, and such specimens command top investment dollars from those who wish to own one.

This begs two questions; was the Viet Nam war desired by Rome? And, does Rome somehow control the CIA itself? The answer to both of these questions appears to be “Yes!” I will inform the reader that the Viet Nam war was alternately known as ‘Spelly’s War,’ or Cardinal Spellman’s war. He traveled to the front many times, and even referred to the American soldiers as “Soldiers of Christ.” The man who was the Commander of the American forces in Viet Nam was a Roman Catholic, a member of the Council on Foreign Relations, and was rumored to be a Knight of Columbus.

His name was General William Westmoreland.

Westmoreland was known to be Spellman’s agent in making sure that the war was carried out properly. Another one who was watching Westmoreland for Spellman was none other than Lyndon Baines Johnson. Johnson was a 33rd degree Freemason, and played a central role in the assassination, along with another 33rd degree, J. Edgar Hoover, who was the head of the FBI. LBJ was at the beck-and-call of Cardinal Spellman through an intermediary, Cartha DeLoach – the 3rd (!) in the line of command over at the FBI. In author Curt Gentry’s book ‘Hoover: The Man and the Secrets,’ DeLoach had a bedside hotline direct to LBJ, where Johnson could call him direct at any time of the day or night. It is also important to note, that Cartha DeLoach was a Knight of Malta himself, which meant he was one of Spellman’s subjects.

Curiously, the Black Pope of the Jesuit ‘Society of Jesus’ had also ordered the death of Abraham Lincoln, in yet another coincidence between Lincoln and JFK. In 1865, the Black Pope of the Jesuit Order was Peter Beckx, the twenty-second man to hold this position of evil and nefarious deeds. As is stated in the following passage from a book on Lincoln’s death:

Charles Chiniquy, was the great exposé of the Jesuit assassination of President Lincoln, when he wrote his masterpiece Fifty Years In The Church Of Rome in 1886, proved that Lincoln was assassinated by the Jesuits, and that it was covered-up by our government at the time.

Of the Jesuit hand in Lincoln’s murder we read:

“I feel safe in stating that nowhere else can be found in one book the connected presentation of the story leading up to the death of Abraham Lincoln, which was instigated by the ‘black’ pope Peter Beckx, the General of the Jesuit Order, camouflaged by the ‘white’ pope, Pius IX, aided, abetted and financed by other ‘Divine Righters’ of Europe, and finally consummated by the Roman Hierarchy and their paid agents in this country and French Canada on ‘Good Friday’ night, April 14, 1865, at Ford’s Theatre, Washington, D.C.”

Death Symbolism of JFK:

When JFK had been pronounced dead in Trauma One at Parkland Hospital, a local undertaker named Vernon O’Neal shows up at the hospital with a 400 pound Elgin Britannia casket. Britannia is a personification of the Goddess Columbia (aka Isis), as she is called in America. An example of this can be found in the Statue of Liberty. Lady Liberty is another symbol of the Goddess Columbia (Isis), whose true name is ‘Liberty Enlightening The World.’

As pointed out in the Britannia entry of Wikipedia, Britannia was:

“British power, which depended on the supremacy of its navy, lent these attributes to the image of Britannia. By the time of Queen Victoria, Britannia had been renewed. Still depicted as a young woman with brown or golden hair, she kept her Corinthian helmet and her white robes, but now she held Poseidon’s three-pronged trident and often stood in the ocean, representing British naval power. She also usually held or stood beside a Greek hoplon shield, which sported the British Union Jack: also at her feet was often the British Lion, the national animal of England.”

The symbol of Columbia-Britannia was also associated with water, and Britannia holds Poseidon’s trident whenever she is pictured in water, as in a statue. Dealey Plaza’s three streets; Elm, Main, and Commerce, form a trident shape in an area of downtown Dallas that not only was the location of the first freemason lodge in the city, but was also prone to flooding. Thus, the Poseidon trident and water imagery (as in the twin reflecting pools) was very appropriate and followed the occult formula to a tee.

The Family Crests are interesting to look at, as well. The heraldic motto of the Kennedy family is ‘Avisé La Fin’ or ‘Consider The End.’ November 22, 1963 was definitely the END of the life of our last honest President, as well as the END of the American innocence. The heraldic motto of the Baines family is ‘Vel Arte Vel Marte,’ which means ‘Either By Art or Strength.’ The Baines family was the family of LBJ, who ascended to power with the death of JFK. Both of these families go back to the Norman conquest of England in 1066 AD.

The family crests of the Kennedy and Baines family, from which the assassination benefactor LBJ originated. Please pay attention to the fact that the family crest and clan badge of the Kennedy family have upon them, a dolphin or 'water serpent.' This was the reason why there was so much water symbolism associated with the assassination plan and event.

Remix – Occult Symbolism: Oddities and High-Strangeness in Dallas:

On November 22, 1963, Jackie Kennedy received the Yellow Roses of Texas at every stop, except for Dallas, where the roses were red. This symbolizes both the Rosicrucians and blood. The First Lady remarked to an aide only moments after being handed the red roses:

“How odd, red roses for me.”

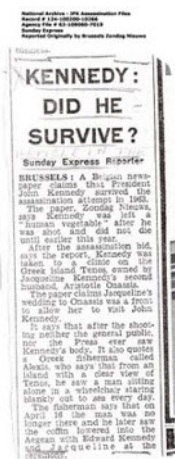

For four minutes during the assassination ride in the motorcade, Police Band #1 was jammed, after JFK was dead, the Morse Code for VICTORY went out across all police radios on this previously jammed channel! After this, Channel #1 came back online with regular transmissions. This had occurred just long enough to prevent any measurable help or assistance to be given to the President, and this assured his death. This fact alone speaks to the complicity of the Dallas Police Department, in the death of a sitting U.S. President, which is treasonous behaviour, at the very least.

Short-selling occurs in the stock market this day, with $500 million in illegal profits, just like what happened on 9/11. Those who knew what was to come, had made their various financial moves, and profited rather handsomely for their troubles. This is known as ‘insider trading,’ and this is supposed to be against the law. However, just as we saw in the recent 9/11 insider trading, the culprits are never brought to justice. If you or I tried to do this, we would be immediately arrested, and charged with several federal crimes, all of which are felonies. Just as I learned when a member of my family married a man who was associated with and was a member of the global elite, those types of people do not become wealthy by being honest, and by living honest and ethical lives.

George De Mohrenschildt, a CIA operative who was intimately involved in the assassination plan, in 1939, worked for Prescott Bush, in a concern called Humble Oil, which was a template for a CIA- front oil company, the template upon which Zapata was later built by his adopted son, George Scherff Jr., who had his birth records sanitized, and later became known as George Herbert Walker Bush. His wife, Barbara Bush, appears to have a rather deep and occultic connection to Aleister Crowley, the infamous ceremonial magician and leader of the Freemasonic Ordo Templi Orientis. As Joseph Cannon pointed out on his Cannon fire blog in April 2006, Barbara Bush looks an awfully lot like Crowley, especially seeing their photos side-by-side. I mention this only because it is related to the occult connections of the Bush family, and of Bush Sr. personally.

Yet another curiosity related to the occultic connections of the JFK assassination plan, is this rather interesting newspaper clipping that I discovered in the National Archives section related to the JFK assassination. This should be considered disinformation, and it is a rather fine example of this. This clipping is from June 6, 1971 – and it claims that JFK actually survived the assassination, and had lived the next seven years and five months on the Greek Island of Tenos, which was owned by Aristotle Onassis. The article claims that the true date of death was April 16, 1971 and not November 22, 1963.

JFK Signed the Following Presidential Executive Orders While in Office:

All of the following Presidential Executive Orders were signed by President Kennedy on February 16, 1962. The things that have been included in were done to please his Illumined financial backers, and at this point in time, it is impossible to mount or win a national campaign for a major political office without their backing. This control is carried out through oaths, blackmailing, and outright corruption, in which these people become far more wealthy than their politician's pay would leave them after many years in office.

JFK was not always working for the American people, and his vulnerability was certainly known to be sexual affairs and liaisons. Sue Ford, writing in her book 'Thanks For All The Memories,' tells of being molested by JFK at age 12, under the guise of the MK-ULTRA sex slave program. Kennedy was also known to have sexual dalliances with Marilyn Monroe, who is known to be the first-ever Presidential Model sex slave under the MK-ULTRA program of mind-control. And, as Cathy O'Brien writes, this program still exists today, and it is used to blackmail and control high-level politicians into adopting the globalist philosophy as part of their normal operating principles.

#10995 (February 16, 1962): Authorizes seizure of all communication equipment in the United States.

#10997 (February 16, 1962): Authorizes seizure of all electric power companies, fuels, fuel sources, and minerals (public and private).

#10998 (February 16, 1962): Authorizes seizure of all food supplies, food resources, all farms and all farm equipment (public and private).

#10999 (February 16, 1962): Authorizes seizure of all means of transportation-including personal cars, trucks, or any type of vehicle; Total control over all highways, roads, seaports, and seaways.

#11000 (February 16, 1962): Authorizes forced conscription of all Americans for work duties under supervision of Federal agents. This section also authorizes the splitting up of family units if deemed necessary by the government agencies in charge.

#11001 (February 16, 1962): Authorizes seizure of all health, education, and welfare facilities and their administrations (public and private).

#11002 (February 16, 1962): Empowers the Post Master General to register all men, women, and children in the United States for government purposes.

#11003 (February 16, 1962): Authorizes seizure of all airports and all aircraft, public, commercial, and private.

#11004 (February 16, 1962): Authorizes seizure of all housing and finance authorities and permits government agents to establish forced relocation sites. The government can declare any area of its choosing as "unsafe" and force the entire area to be abandoned of all persons. Authorizes establishment of new 'relocation' communities; building new housing with public funds.

#11005 (February 16, 1962): Authorizes seizure of all railroads, inland waterways, and storage facilities, both public and private.

#11110 (June 4, 1963): Authorizes the United States Treasury to issue silver certificates against any silver bullion, silver, or standard silver dollars in the Treasury.

Of these Presidential Executive Orders, the very last one here was the deciding factor in the death of JFK. Once one infuriates the bankers, it is all over but the shouting at that point. I am certain that JFK must have known this, given his lofty position in power-politics cantered on the world stage. If this is true, then JFK was much more brave than we had been previously led to believe. To sacrifice one's life for their beliefs is both heroic and reaches a level of patriotism that is amazing to consider.

Conclusion

In the preceding report, I have attempted to pull together some of the most occultic aspects of the public execution of JFK. I wanted to concentrate on things that had not been discussed by those who have looked at all aspects of the horrible events of November 22, 1963. The Dealey Plaza area of downtown Dallas is still haunted by the ghosts of those who expended great amounts of psychic energy during the murder itself. As I mentioned earlier, it was in a 1992 research trip that I was able to finally visit the site, and I found it to be haunted by JFK himself and the hundreds of people who could not believe what had happened as the President rode down Elm Street – the site of the original ‘Nightmare on Elm Street!’

I hope that I was able to do this subject some justice, because the entire case badly needs it.

Lastly, I invite all of your comments, questions, and opinions on this matter, which is an event that I just cannot get out of my head! It also does not help that it is the earliest memory I have of my entire life, either. Hopefully, the writing of this report, and its' subsequent publication, will assist me in laying this subject to rest, as it has been a long forty-four years!
