

Why 2012?

By
Pastor Eli James

The two fishes represent the 2,000 year Grace Period from the Sacrifice on the Cross to the Judgment Day. As you know, the symbol of the fish has been the symbol of Christianity for these last two thousand years. “I will make you fishers of men.” (Mark 1:17.)

Why 2012?

By
Pastor Eli James

“And because wickedness is multiplied, most men’s love will grow cold. But he who endures to the end will be saved. And this gospel of the KINGDOM will be preached throughout the whole world, as a testimony to all nations; AND THEN THE END SHALL COME.” - Matt. 24:12-14.

“Wail, for the DAY OF YAHWEH is near; as destruction from the Almighty, it will come! Therefore, all hands will be feeble, and every man’s heart will melt, and they will be dismayed. Pangs and agony will seize them; I will punish the world for its evil.” - Isa. 13:6-11.

Those of us who study Biblical prophecy know that the signs of the End Times are upon us. Yahshua’s prophecy that the Gospel of the Kingdom shall be preached to the whole world has literally been fulfilled, although the Gospel, as presently taught, has been grotesquely twisted and distorted. Most notably, the televangelists, posing as modern experts, have turned the old-fashioned gospel of repentance into the false “Gospel of Personal Salvation” and it’s more recent wicked sister, the “Gospel of Personal Prosperity.” This new religion, which passes under the name of “Christianity,” reverses the logic of Scripture by teaching that God exists for the purpose of fulfilling our human desires and needs. All you have to do is ask. But the Bible tells a different story. It says that we are God’s creatures and we must conform ourselves to His Will, not the other way around. But the Biblical story of True Israel is a story about a RACE/NATION, acting as the “City on the Hill” (Matt. 5:14). The Bible’s climactic scenes deal with destroying the forces of evil on this planet and replacing them with His Government, a government directed by His Faithful Servant People, Israel. Not a word of the National Message is ever uttered by the televangelists or by the Judeo-Christian clergy. They have utterly abandoned the True Faith. They, instead, prefer to focus on our earthly needs and desires. This technique sells a lot of “Christian” self-help books. But, I dare say that those individuals who are focused only on saving themselves will reap the whirlwind just as the heathen and the Jews; because the Bible is the Book of Adam (Gen. 5:1), and our commission is to re-establish Yahweh’s government here on earth. Government is a collective enterprise, which means the rule of law, not the “Jesus loves everybody” pablum that is spewed from the modern pulpits. The idea of Yahweh’s Government is so far removed from these people’s sermon notes that the thought never crosses their minds.

The Gospel Age has turned into the Age of Delusion; and professional deceivers occupy the pulpits as well as the reins of government. Few suspect that Christianity has been hijacked by a bunch of slick hucksters, whose main objective is to sell hope to those who have no interest in adhering to the Bible’s laws. The simple fact is this: the modern Judeo-Christian “church” is the very False Prophet of Revelation, a false church which teaches feel-good pop psychology instead of responsibility and courage. Those who fail to see this will be overwhelmed by the End Times. They will be caught up in the futile attempt to patch holes in the dam that cannot be fixed. It is advisable to get out of the way, for the dam is about to burst.

Here is how Paul describes the current age in which we live, speaking of the Second Coming:

“Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, unless the rebellion comes first, and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of perdition, who opposes and exalts himself against every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, proclaiming himself to be God. “For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work; and then the lawless one will be revealed, and the Lord Jesus will slay him with the breath of His mouth and destroy him by His appearing and His coming. The coming of the lawless one by the activity of Satan will be with all power and pretended signs and wonders, and with all wicked deception for those who are to perish, because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. Therefore, God sends upon them a strong delusion, to make them believe what is false, so that all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness.” ~ II Thes. 2:3-12, Revised Standard Version.

Apparently, mainstream Judeo-Christianity is ignoring this warning, as precious few sermons are ever preached about this prophecy of mass delusion, certainly not from the televangelists. This prophecy is further amplified by Paul in his letter to Timothy:

“But understand this, that in the last days there will come times of stress. For men will be lovers of self, lovers of money, proud, arrogant, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, inhuman, implacable, slanderers, profligates, fierce, haters of good, treacherous, reckless, swollen with conceit, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, holding the form of religion but denying the power of it.” - II Tim. 3:1-5, RSV.

I'd say this prophecy pretty well sums up both our materialistic, secular society, as well as our lukewarm churches! A time of stress, indeed global stress!

Yahweh's Prophetic Timing

In addition to such clear prophecies, the numerics of the Bible provides hidden clues as to the timing of the last days. I will be quoting the relevant Scriptures throughout this essay, so you will be given the opportunity to decide for yourself just how close we are to the end of civilization as we have known it. Students of the Christian Identity interpretation of the Bible are uniquely positioned to gauge, reflect upon, and anticipate the signs of the times.

For example, at Matt. 14:17, we are told the story of the miracle of the 5 loaves and 2 fishes. These, in my opinion, represent the 5,000 years from Adam to Christ (Septuagint chronology) and the 2,000 years from the First Advent to the Second Advent. Hosea confirms this imagery when he says, “After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.” - Hos. 6:2. These two “days” actually represent a period of a thousand years each, as per 2 Peter 3:8.

The two fishes represent the 2,000 year Grace Period from the Sacrifice on the Cross to the Judgment Day. As you know, the symbol of the fish has been the symbol of Christianity for these last two thousand years. “I will make you fishers of men.” (Mark 1:17.)

The early Christians endured woeful persecution. This instilled a healthy distrust of strangers and even of kinsmen, who were often infiltrators or paid agents for the enemy. A common, semi-secret sign for these Christians was to draw a fish on the ground. In those days, if you wanted to know whether the new person you were talking to was also a secret Christian, you would take a stick and draw an arch on the ground. If the person was also a secret Christian, he would take the stick and, starting from one end of the arch or the other, draw a complimentary arch, with his arch intersecting your arch before the end, thus creating a symbol that looked like a fish. Times of persecution necessitate secret codes, handshakes, gestures, etc.

In those days, the persecution was begun in Jerusalem by the Pharisees. Then it was spread throughout the Roman Empire by Nero and it lasted through the reign of Emperor Diocletian. Today, the ruling power is the Eighth Beast, which is none other than the Rothschild Dynasty of the International Banking Mafia (Mystery Babylon), the Empire of Merchants of globalism and corporate fascism, dictatorship and militarism. John the Revelator clearly tells us that this Beast, along with the False Prophet (ecumenism and Judeo-Christianity), will be cast into the Lake of Fire, never to return (Rev. 19:20; 20:10,14; 21:8).

Current scholarship suggests that Christ was born in 2 BC and died on April 3, 33 AD. Given these chronological parameters, the “two days” of Hosea will occur at some point between 1998 and 2033. However, one major caveat applies here, namely that Jesus Himself told us that the days of tribulation would be shortened for the elect’s sake (Matt. 24:22, Mark 13:20), so we would expect the final Tribulation to come before 2033. Before getting into the Biblical evidence for 2012, let’s do a survey of what secular authors and non-Christians are saying about the year 2012.

2012: The General Awakening

Most secular critics of Biblical prophecy pooh-pooh this kind of prophetic analysis because far too many Christian prognosticators have been wrong in the past. Around 1,000 AD, there was Millennial Fear of the End. The failure of the Millerite prophecy, that Christ would return in 1844, led to “the Great Disappointment.” Many Christians had sold all their belongings in anticipation of this event, which failed to materialize. A few years later, Ellen White chimed in with a prediction that the world would end in the year 1850. Another disappointment! Herbert W. Armstrong first predicted that the Day of the Lord would be 1936, then 1975! The Jehovah’s Witnesses have a record of many failed prophecies. Those who falsely believe that the current Israeli State is the “regathering of the tribes of Israel” have made many erroneous prophecies in the past, based on 1948 + 40 years, or 1967 + 40 years, and other, numerous failed attempts to link the Israeli State with the Israel of Scripture. According to some of these pro-Zionist seers, the “Rapture” should have occurred in one generation (40 years) from the founding of the Israeli State. Nothing happened. Even former Identist Arnold Murray tried his hand at prophecy, having once predicted that the anti-Christ would appear in 1981. Pat Robertson predicted 1982. Hal Lindsey predicted the Rapture would happen in 1988. The Millennium Bug of January 1, 2,000 AD also turned out to be a dud. In the last 60 years, many pro-Israeli authors have predicted that the Israeli State would be the site of much Bible prophecy fulfillment. Nothing yet!

Despite all of this “disappointment,” the 2012 phenomenon is building momentum, not just among religious people, but among a growing cadre of scientists, historians, and social commentators. The signs of the times are such that End of the World prophecies (eschatology) are taking hold of the secular imagination as well as that of the religious world.

Foremost among these prophecies is the Mayan End Date (MED), Dec. 21, 2012. That date has become the focal point of numerous websites, books, articles, forums, etc., with speculations occurring in very diverse fields, from astrology to quantum physics. In fact, it is a phenomenon that is nearing the point of hysteria or, perhaps better, a media frenzy. Hysteria sells a lot of copy! Despite the hype, there are serious issues to consider. I will deal with the MED in greater detail later. First, I want to document current evidence that we are, indeed, smack dab in the middle of the End Times.

Fragmentation of Society

We live in a world in which “enlightened” concepts, such as “unity” and “peace” and “love” and “knowledge,” are highly valued. Society, especially the secular world, has also operated on the assumption that technical knowledge of the world will yield the answers by which we can integrate society into a peaceful, “harmonious” whole, i.e., to “live together in peace and harmony,” “the brotherhood of man” name your favorite cliché! Politicians wear out the clichés, but none of them, in these unstable times, are capable of delivering the goods. The truth of the matter is that we live in a world in which the existing power structures of politics, science, religion, academia, economics, etc., have an unhealthy stranglehold on society. These institutions pay lip service to “democracy” and all of the afore-mentioned ideals, but they operate in a secretive, authoritarian manner. These power structures claim to be motivated by these great ideals. The fact is, however, they are not. The reality is that these groups have a “special interest” in maintaining their authority. Their method of maintaining this authority is by withholding information from the public and by posturing as the sole experts in their respective fields. Given million-dollar advertising campaigns, these groups create a public image which belies their obvious self-interest. I refer to this phenomenon as the “tyranny of fraternity.”

Fraternal organizations, such as doctors, lawyers, bankers, government bureaucrats, and even unions are driven by a single, overriding force: the desire to maintain their income levels and their authority, especially when this authority gives the fraternity special rank and privileges that the rest of us don't have. In other words, fraternalism is actually a form of elitism. And this elitism militates against the very ideals which these fraternities publicly proclaim. Inevitably, these fraternities perform and function just like secret societies. The Bible warns us about keeping secrets for deceptive purposes. This business of keeping “professional” secrets for profit is ultimately destructive of civilization, because the monopolization of knowledge and information prevents free thought and public debate. It also keeps the general public in a state of ignorance and blissful trust. The economic order of these fraternities is such that they can charge a premium for their services, because “only they” possess the knowledge and skill, which no one else has. Certainly, it is fair and just to be compensated for one's professional services. But these fraternities often go far beyond this requirement and actually try to monopolize their field of activity. This is plainly seen in how the American Medical Association has combined with the giant pharmaceutical companies and the Food and Drug Administration to monopolize the field of health care. The Journal of the American Medical Association (JAMA), since its takeover by a Jewish quack “doctor,” a non-degreed Jew by the name of Morris Fishbein, was actively engaged in the business of establishing this monopoly. The AMA has also conducted smear campaigns against such fields as chiropractic, homeopathy, nutritional therapy, etc. Starting in the 1970's, the AMA decided upon a campaign deliberately trying to destroy the profession of chiropractic. AMA publications were smearing chiropractors by calling them “quacks.” This attempt to discredit chiropractic was stopped by a lawsuit filed by Dr. Chester A. Wilk of Chicago. His lawsuit was victorious and it put an end to the AMA's smear campaign. The fact is that chiropractic has a much better success rate in treating musculoskeletal problems than allopathic medicine. The average chiropractor is just as knowledgeable about the musculoskeletal system as a neurosurgeon is, perhaps even more so.

My personal experience revealed this fact when I had a serious case of sciatica. The pain was so excruciating, I was unable to sit or stand. Even lying down to sleep was a problem, as I had difficulty finding a position in which my body was not wracked with pain. After consulting three physicians, all of whom could offer nothing other than drugs and/or surgery, I went to a chiropractor. Getting into my car and driving to his office was like moving in ultra slow motion, because every movement was painful. The mere fact of walking up the 5 steps to his office epitomized the old adage of “one step at a time.” The physical acts of sitting down and standing up were extremely difficult, as pain would shoot up and down my leg and back with every change of motion. After taking some x-rays to see the orientation of my spine and skeleton, the chiropractic physician put me on his table and began adjusting my spine and hip. The treatment was non-invasive, took about twenty minutes, and was immediately successful. When he was finished, I was able to sit up without pain. I was able to get up off his adjustment table without pain. I was able to walk out of his office and drive home without pain all without drugs or surgery! The long and the short of it is this: The medical profession DOES NOT have a monopoly on medical knowledge. MD's are good at taking care of broken legs and burns, i.e., trauma. As far as the rest of their practice is concerned, I am not impressed. The record of allopathic medicine, in dealing with chronic and degenerative disease, is actually quite poor. They actually do more harm than good. I especially stay away from pharmaceuticals, because most of these legal drugs rarely cure the disease. By their own admission, the vast majority of these drugs only mask symptoms, and their side effects can be just as debilitating as the disease itself. Only a very small percentage of these drugs actually help to cure diseases.

Most other modalities of healing stress maintaining a healthy immune system. The problem with most drugs is that they adversely affect the immune system. As such, traditional medicine is counterproductive. I avoid MD's like the plague. I consult them only if I have a trauma situation that cannot be corrected by any other means. Since every traditional MD has been given ZERO HOURS of nutritional instruction, it goes without saying that a typical doctor knows absolutely nothing about nutrition. And since most of our diseases today are caused by environmental poisons and toxic chemicals in our food, an MD is the last person I would consult about the nutritional/chemical causes of disease. As such, organized medicine is a MONOPOLY OF IGNORANCE. How dare they suggest that we should avoid other modalities and submit to their own questionable and often false practices!!!! Given this state of affairs, it is easy to see that the medical profession, guided by this spirit of self-serving monopolism, can never be the public-spirited, service-minded entity that it claims to be. That public posture is an egregious lie.

This type of posturing is not limited to the medical profession. Thanks to the nature of paid advertising, it has become part of the fabric of all professions. This self-serving tactic is made infinitely worse when the government grants these institutions legal monopolies that suppress true competition. The end result of this false dealing with the public is the fragmentation of society into competing monopolies, few of which actually serve the public. Fairness, honesty and truth are thrown out the window in this relentless drive toward monopoly. So, while the "experts and professionals" in these fields loudly proclaim their value to society, they are, in reality, helping to undermine its very foundation. Instead of creating peace and harmony, the tyranny of fraternity has the opposite effect: the fragmentation of society. The glowing image conceals a sinister reality. The medical profession was once highly regarded. Now, its reputation has sunk to the level of lawyers and used car salesmen!xxxx

As the industrial revolution gave rise to these fraternities, they were useful in establishing standards of legitimate practice. But as these fraternities have become more firmly entrenched, the industrial, technological, scientific world has become permanently compartmentalized and monopolized, even to the extent that new inventions and new technologies are often suppressed rather than encouraged. This is why society has been unable to shift from an oil-based energy supply to a solar-based energy supply. The existing Corporate State does everything in its power to maintain its profit-making status quo. Thus, new and safer, less polluting technologies are suppressed and their potential benefits are denied to the public. Since the existing order is based on lies, greed, and corporate profits, there is no way that our current institutions can provide "peace and harmony." The exact opposite is happening. Those individuals who are employed by the Corporate State are blind to this reality. They cannot see the Big Picture. For them, it is both their livelihood and their profession. What none of these professionals understand is that the whole system, contrary to its stated ideals, is based on institutionalized injustice. Pledging their loyalty to the Corporate State, they have actually become the enemies of truth, freedom and justice, as the Corporate State becomes ever more powerful. While imagining themselves to be "serving society," they have actually been cleverly conditioned and conscripted by the anti-Christ, being thoroughly employed in the service of Satan, the father of lies.

It is not Free Enterprise that is the problem. The problem is Corporate Fascism, which is international in scope and seeks to undermine national laws in favour of "Free Trade," which is nothing more than a euphemism for exploitation and lawlessness. The international corporations have superseded nations; and the "United Nations" is also deceptively named, because its main purpose is to make the world more profitable for its corporate membership.

Today, the tyranny of fraternity is evident in all of our institutions, as they incessantly strive to maintain dominance in their respective fields. The corporate structure of these institutions is also obvious. More and more, this corporate structure strives to maintain itself and legitimize itself via subtle, yet firm control of the institutions of higher learning: the college and university system. The epitome of this corporate monopolization of education is the latest “outcome-based” education scam, the stated purpose of which is to create workers, bureaucrats and functionaries for the Corporate State: McFeudalism. Thus, the Corporate State (monopolize business), in partnership with the Bureaucratic State (monopolized government), guarantees its self-existence by decreeing that all education should have only one goal: to provide worker drones for the beehive. The elitists call this system of monopolization “global governance.” I have another word for it. It is tyranny. But few people perceive its tyrannical nature, because they have been programmed to be mere worker drones, while the Queen Bee exploits them for all they are worth. The Orwellian Police State is operating “swat teams, storm-troopers, and even private, corporate militaries, in plain sight, yet few people see it for what it is, because we are told that these developments are necessary for our “security.” Of course, this song has been sung by every dictator in history. The amazing thing is how many college-educated people are unable to see the parallels between the modern Corporate State and Imperial Rome. These highly educated people actually believe that the globalists are working for “democracy”!

Above all of these fraternities is one particular fraternity, that is, by far, the most secretive of all. It is both covert and pervasive; and it exerts economic and political power in every area of our lives, from how our governments are run to what interest rates we pay and how much tax we pay. This overarching fraternal organization is the International Banking Mafia. This International Banking Mafia has always been in the hands of the Kehilla, the secret society of Jewish bankers, financiers and monopolists (the “empire of merchants,” Rev. 18 & 19), which I refer to as the “Overpresence.” This Overpresence (the Jewish cabal of usurers, corporate executives and businessmen) has always been lurking in the background of history, waiting for the opportunity to dictate economic terms to all nations. This opportunity first presented itself during the Napoleonic Wars, when the House of Rothschild made billions, if not trillions, lending money to those nations which were at war with Napoleon, putting those nations perpetually in debt to the international bankers. When that war was over, the House of Rothschild was the clear winner of the War.

Here are Napoleon Bonaparte’s own words: “When a government is dependent upon bankers for money, they and not the leaders of the government control the situation, since the hand that gives is above the hand that takes; Money has no motherland; financiers are without patriotism and without decency; their sole object is gain.”

Wellington’s Victory at Waterloo was not a victory for “democracy.” It was a victory for International Finance. Dating back to the House of Rothschild’s monopolization of international banking and trade in 1815, this Overpresence has quietly, behind the scenes, manipulated the economies of nations and corporations without the public’s slightest inkling of its nefarious operations. That’s why the Bible refers to it as “Mystery Babylon.” It is the secret society of usurers and moneylenders, who rule the world by the power of fiat money creation and currency control, which they themselves call “fractional reserve banking.” The ongoing, perfidious evil of this banking fraternity cannot be comprehended until it is understood how they have assassinated numerous Presidents (such as Lincoln and Kennedy) and legislators (such as Louis T. McFadden), who have tried to expose the operations of this Babylonian fraternity. The dictatorial mentality of these moneylenders is exactly the same as those moneylenders whom Yahshua drove out of the Temple with His handmade whip. The Christian priesthood used to teach against usury and moneylending, but the moneylenders have taken over the Temple once again. For those of us who understand these economic facts, it is obvious that the current crop of priests is the obedient servant of Mammon. Only the faithful ministers of Christian Identity are sounding the alarm. As long as the public is unaware of the power of these secret dictators, society will continue to fragment into a meltdown, because it is a dictatorship of monetary deception and institutionalized injustice. The Bible predicts that this meltdown will occur at a certain time. That time is called the “Day of the Lord,” the Day of Yahweh.

Another way in which the fabric of society is unraveling is the decline of the family. Once the bedrock institution of society, the husband-wife-children structure of the nuclear family has been steadily attacked by feminists, homosexuals, communists, and assorted liberals. In addition to this full-scale ideological attack, families are being fragmented and destroyed by economic forces as well. It is a sociological fact that most marriages break up over money problems; and the biggest monthly bill is always the mortgage, with its staggering interest payment. The days when the husband goes off to work and the wife stays home to raise the kids are gone. With costs rising and incomes falling, the era of “two breadwinners” has arisen, with neither parent having the necessary time or energy to devote to raising children. Stress, exhaustion and quick fixes are the order of the day. Personal health suffers from inattentiveness, drugs and fast food. Day schools and babysitters are the new “family.” In this “hurry/worry” atmosphere, parents try to find ways to have “private time” for themselves, so the television set, with its attendant vices (the “image of the beast,” Rev. 14:9, 11; 16:2; 19:20), has become the babysitter, even while the parents are at home, with disastrous results. Rap – I hesitate to put the word music after the word Rap - and video games represent today’s new culture of degeneracy. The lifestyle projected from the Boob Tube, and from mainstream entertainment sources in general, utterly lacks spiritual and moral values, even attacking these values, as children learn to become good little consumers: soulless zombies with big mouths, lousy attitudes, and ravenous appetites for entertainment and junk food. Increasingly, the values – especially Christian values - of the older generation are constantly mocked and ridiculed. Once considered of exceptional value for their wisdom, the “elders” of society are rejected as obsolete, uncool, or even a nuisance that should be relegated to a nursing home, in order to stay out of the way of the “modern” world. The Generation Gap leaves the Old and the Young with little in common, and nothing to say to each other.

Consumerism and materialism, along with the latest technological forms of entertainment, isolate individuals from social intercourse as never before. If we can’t see each other in person, we talk on the phone. A “heart to heart talk,” which can only be done in person, is a once in a blue moon rarity. Nobody has time. Families live in the same house, but conflicting work schedules dictate that their paths rarely cross. The evening meal, once attended by the whole family and begun by saying grace, is a relic of the past. Like ships passing in the night, family members hardly see each other, as schedules infrequently mesh. Nobody is at home for dinnertime. The American Dream of having a big home for the family has turned into a parody of itself. It’s no longer a home; it’s a rooming house. Corporate jobs require grown children to move far away from their families. These people see each other occasionally, once every few years. The lucky ones get to “come home for Christmas.” Instead of the “old gang” getting together for card parties and dances, people “meet” each other while surfing the internet, and their principal entertainment source is a pair of headphones or a video screen, further increasing their isolation. Modern living has become a feast for the senses, but a disaster for interpersonal relationships.

With virtually all elements of society encouraging sex outside of marriage, children are having children; and maturity, responsibility, self-control, and patience are rarely found in the “Me Generation” or the “Slacker Generation.” The Age of Entitlement discourages the Work Ethic. Why work when the government will pay you not to work? Children are aimless, having no ambition to accomplish anything. Many see their parents working like dogs and still unable to make the mortgage payment. Why bother? The drive to excel is discouraged by educators, for fear that Whites, who possess this trait in greater proportion than Blacks, will score higher on tests, thus shattering their pet theories of “equality.” Thus, education has become diseducation. Instead of raising test scores for minorities, public diseducation makes every child dumb and dumber.

Along with the Nuclear Family, the Extended Family is being destroyed as well. Traditional life, with aunts, uncles, grandparents and other relatives around to take an active interest in the lives of teenagers, is gone. Children growing up today either don’t have such relatives or they rarely see them. Without role models from the extended family, teenagers are left to emulate “sports heroes” and the like. Lacking the advice, friendship and encouragement of such people, teenagers grow into selfish, immature adults, who lack civilized behavioral skills. Large family gatherings, once commonplace, are now called “family reunions.” Professional sports has taken the place of these family gatherings, which get less and less play. As the family structure crumbles, so does society.

The globalists promised that their ONE WORLD VISION of “technology bringing us closer together” would make life simpler and provide us with lots of leisure time. On the contrary, we don’t even have time to raise our own children. Cold technology takes the place of warm bodies. Their “vision” has been a total failure. Instead of bringing us closer together, it is driving us further apart. For many children, public school is the only source of interpersonal relationships, while their parents are too busy working and taking care of the technical details of life: paying the bills, making repairs, mowing the lawn, maintaining the fleet of vehicles, and paying taxes. These public schools teach various forms of humanism: communism, socialism and the welfare state of multicultural “bliss,” i.e., authoritarianism wrapped up in the swaddling clothes of paternalistic government and dumbed-down to “meet” the increasingly lower standards. Abandoned to the world of materialism, these children often turn to drugs or gangs. These creatures of the public schools are little more than self-indulgent zombies. The likelihood of their becoming productive citizens is very low.

Amazingly, the priesthods of the various religions are blind to the disaster that is coming. Their focus seems to be butts in the pews and shekels in the baskets. Even religion, once the major bond keeping communities together, is now a force of fragmentation. With over 40,000 Christian denominations to choose from, we can see that, instead of having “One True Faith,” we have a myriad of false ones. Life is a religious candy store. Pick a denomination that suits your lifestyle.

The Book of Revelation speaks of Seven Ages that will occur between the Crucifixion and the Day of Judgment. Each one of these ages is referred to as a “church.” John’s Apocalypse gives us capsule descriptions of the nature and character of these prophetic churches. [For a thorough discussion of the prophecies of the Apocalypse, please see my comprehensive survey, Revelation Unfolded: http://www.anglo-saxonisrael.com/newsletter/2006_2_23.php The Seven Church Ages are discussed in detail therein.] The Church of Laodicea is the last of these seven church ages. Of the Seven, it is the only church age which is described as being “lukewarm.” That’s what we have today: lukewarm Christianity. According to my reckoning, this last age occurs from 1918 (end of World War I) until the Day of Judgment.

Here’s what John reveals to us about this last age:

“And to the angel of the church of Laodicea write: The words of the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of God’s creation: I know your works: you are neither cold nor hot. Would that you were cold or hot! So, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spew thee out of my mouth. For you say, ‘I am rich, I have prospered and I need nothing,’ not knowing that you are wretched, pitiable, poor, blind and naked. Therefore, I counsel you to buy from me gold refined by fire, that you may be rich, and white garments to clothe you and to keep the shame of your nakedness from being seen, and salve to anoint your eyes, that you may see. Those whom I love, I reprove and chasten; so be zealous and repent.” - Rev. 3:14-19.

Clearly, the modern world has become lukewarm towards the Gospel. The religion that once rattled the rafters with “hell-fire and brimstone” sermons has become a tepid brew, flavoured with artificial sweeteners. Instead of urging Christians to repent of their sins, the Laodicean Church preaches “universal salvation,” an un-Scriptural doctrine, if there ever was one!! So-called “Christians” speak of the Bible as a book of sayings and moral stories, not realizing that the Bible is the Key to Life. Bibles sit on shelves, gathering dust, while televangelists sell millions of commentaries and self-help books! Many of these denominations do not require that their flocks believe in basic Christian tenets, such as the virgin birth, the Divinity of Yahshua, the resurrection from the dead, nor the trial by fire and the Judgment Day. Modern people and nominal Christians don't really believe in those old myths. Surely, Paul's vision of the Great Apostasy has been fulfilled to a T.

Fortunately, Christian Identity is zealous for His Word, and eager to repent. There is hope after all, for those of us who are willing to be reproved and chastened, and tried by the fire of tribulation. Incidentally, the literal city of Laodicea was destroyed by an earthquake in 64 AD. It may be that the age of Laodicea will also be destroyed by an earthquake.

“Knowledge Will Increase”

“At that time shall arise Michael, the great prince who has charge of your people. And there shall be a time of trouble, such as never has been since there was a nation till that time; And many of those who sleep in the earth will awake, even to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt; But you, Daniel, shut up the words and seal the book, until the time of the end. Many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall increase.” Dan. 12:1-4.

Thanks to modern transportation, the “running to and fro” has definitely increased along with knowledge; but wisdom continues to escape us. Interestingly, it is significant that the Book of Daniel has been unsealed in these last times, as the prophecies of Daniel, such as the four Beasts and the 70 weeks, have been deciphered by many Bible scholars, especially in Howard B. Rand's Study In Daniel. Much history had to transpire before these prophecies could be related to actual end-time events. This unsealing is proof that we are in the end times.

As science has become more and more theoretical and less practical, scientists have become philosophers as well as experimenters. Indeed, theoretical physics is almost exclusively occupied with mathematical models, for which little or no experimentation has been done. The more exotic the theories become, the more difficult it is to devise experiments to test the validity of these theories and mathematical models. Also, these new, state-of-the-art theories of astrophysics and subatomic particle physics demand highly specialized equipment that comes with an astronomical price tag. Accelerators, cyclotrons, antenna arrays, cosmic ray detectors are not things you build in your garage or basement. They require huge construction projects that cost millions and billions of dollars; and these are built in the hope that they will measure the theoretical particles of the latest theories.

DNA analysis, drug therapy, telecommunications, space flight, and many other fields of science and technology dominate the current world of science. These things are great advances over the rudimentary science that was the springboard of the industrial revolution. There is no doubt that Daniel's prophecy that “Knowledge will increase” has been literally fulfilled. But the latest crop of thinkers and philosophers is beginning to have doubts about man's ability, in spite of this wealth of technical knowledge, to stave off self-destruction. Today, many members of the scientific community are reaching the consensus that the development of man's head has far outpaced the development of his heart. As we are also actively engaged in the process of destroying the earth's environment, these secular thinkers are beginning to raise the alarm.

The question is: “Can the locomotive be slowed down before it crashes into the wall?”

Scripture tells us that the answer to that question is “No.” That's why it is best to exit the train while you can, because this train is going to crash. Mystery Babylon, with all of its materialistic trappings, and those who support it, will be destroyed. There is nothing that can prevent it, because it is based on various forms of erroneous thought and entrenched, institutionalized evil; and Yahweh means to destroy this evil. That's why we are counseled to remove ourselves from this system before it is destroyed. (“Come out of her, my people.” Rev. 18:4.) For those who overextend their stay on this runaway train, the end will be nothing short of devastating and catastrophic. It will be a repeat of Oct. 29, 1929, but probably a hundred times worse. Those of us who understand Biblical prophecy know that these things must come to pass. Lately, secular historians and analysts are beginning to agree with us, regarding this eventual outcome.

Even for those who are unfamiliar with Bible prophecy, the signs that the runaway locomotive will soon crash are becoming very obvious. By studying historical trends and cycles, it becomes possible to predict when certain cycles will repeat, also when these cycles begin and end. One of the major drawbacks for most of the secular analysts is their utter failure to address the problem of international banking, secret societies, and Zionism. Hence, their language tends to be filled with cautionary statements like, "We have to grow spiritually," or "We must learn to live together in harmony." These are the usual suggestions and platitudes, which are of a highly general nature. Lacking an awareness of the root cause of evil on this planet, they can only offer vague solutions. Since they are clueless about God's Law and His Plan for the redemption of the Adamic Race, they have no idea that this crescendo of conflict was set up 7,000 years ago, with the Fall of Adam and Eve. As this crescendo of evil infects larger and larger segments of society, only chaos can result. Any corrupt system, such as the Federal Reserve Bank, must self-destruct, since it is, by its very nature, inherently unjust and tyrannical. Deception succeeds only as long as its victims remain unaware of the deception. The con game ends when the victim realizes that he is being victimized and stops participating in his own enslavement.

Though unaware of such institutionalized deception, nevertheless, many of these secular analysts have valuable insights that are worth considering, especially with respect to new interpretations of old myths, so I will mention a few before getting into the Bible's Signs of the End.

The First Popular Study to Deal With the Year 2012.

The McKenna brothers, Terrence and Dennis, wrote a book which was an attempt to unify trends of thought in various fields, from ancient metaphysics to DNA to nuclear physics, quantum mechanics and fractal theory: a broad, eclectic study with far-reaching implications. It has the imposing title: The Invisible Landscape " Mind, Hallucinogens, and the I Ching. (1975, 1993.) It is a survey of the current general direction of scientific, sociological and metaphysical thinking in various fields of research. In doing their analyses, they became aware of certain physical and historical cycles, at least two of which are likely to end in 2012. These references are just mentioned in passing by the authors, without any fanfare or sense of alarm. Their writing has a certain charm, because it is a discussion of reality ranging from the very abstruse to the frighteningly real. In a sense, it documents society's journey from charm to alarm.

Their book is about numerics in many ways, as it deals with numerous mathematical models in various fields, from psychology to astrophysics to statistical probabilities, but the main number they deal with is the number 64, which is common to the I Ching method of prognostication and, interestingly, DNA. The idea is that there is something built into the reality of all these systems that is "evolving" or leading to some ultimate climax.

An important realization is this: All cycles have a beginning and an end. Even though the cycles may repeat themselves eternally, many have a clear "reset position." And these reset positions can be predicted. Interestingly, Yahshua tells us "I am alpha and omega, the beginning and the end." (Rev. 21:6,13.) Is He telling us that He is the one who is in control of all of these natural cycles? I believe that is what He is telling us. (John 1.) If this is indeed the case, then any scientific theory which tries to explain reality without confronting the Consciousness and Teachings of Jesus Christ is just so much futility, for, in a moral Universe, Knowledge, by itself, cannot provide ultimate Truth. In His Universe, Love and Compassion are just as important as Knowledge. In other words, True Knowledge cannot be gained by those who lack true brotherly Love. They simply cannot be entrusted with it, therefore, it will always be denied them. Or, in other words, those who try to ignore God's Plan of Salvation will ultimately be relieved of whatever power and influence they have.

(Speaking to the evil husbandmen, who had purely selfish designs for their temporary authority, Yahshua said, "The Kingdom shall be taken from you and shall be given to a nation which shall bring forth the fruits thereof." - Matt. 21:43. The current false system that we live under is the result of the usurpation of the Scriptures by the scribes and Pharisees. Their modern successors, the Talmudic rabbis, combined with the International Banking Mafia, have created a tyrannical system of government that Yahweh has promised will be destroyed. (Deut. 7:23; Isa. 51:19; Matt. 13:41-42; Matt. 24:38-39; Rom. 9:22.) Since they will not willingly or peacefully relinquish the power they have stolen by deception and fraud, its end must necessarily be violent. As much as people hope for a peaceful solution to this world's problems, the fact is that Satan cannot be appeased. As his agents have taken the Kingdom by force, so the Kingdom will be taken from them by force.)

What the McKenna brothers seem to be saying is that, as physical systems run out of energy, they begin to fall apart, kind of like a spinning top running out of spin: The top starts to wobble and shake and eventually hits the floor and is thrust off in the direction determined by where the spin hits the floor. The top is given its energy by the person who spins it. Likewise, all of the systems in the Universe must somehow be restarted after their cycles run out. This is the Creator's Secret. Science will never discover it, because Science is only one of its many effects. Science is only able to study such systems while they are stable, between cataclysms. "But, O man, who art thou which pleadest against God? Shall the thing formed say unto him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?" - Rom. 9:21. Yahweh does not divulge His Secrets to the unworthy, so only the worthy will see the apparently chaotic restart operation in progress. That is when His Remnant will see the new heaven and the new earth coming into being. (Matt. 13:43.) Oh, glorious day!

Plotting the events of history on a series of graphs, which they refer to as "Time Wave Zero," they show that the frequency of historical change speeds up to a crescendo that ends in 2012. (p. 172.) I won't quote their words here, because the discussion is about fractals and how smaller fractals are embedded in the larger fractal of history. (Fractals are the latest theory of mathematical physics. They represent a sort of invisible blueprint/shape theory of space/time, in which matter derives its shape from the embedded, invisible fractals (recurring geometric forms), while atoms and molecules provide its mass. It is like a cross between Plato's forms and the atomic theory of matter, in which the matter is organized around the fractal/blueprint.) Their hypothesis is that there is a space/time fractal, or pattern, which determines the advances of civilization and that, over time, this fractal wave is getting shorter and shorter, as knowledge increases. Without realizing it, they have hit on a technical analysis of God's Plan! The Hindu Yuga system is also such a model, as it postulates four separate ages of time. The first age is the longest and most peaceful. The second is shorter and more restive. The third is shorter yet, with violence and confusion emerging. The final age, the Kali Yuga, is ruled by Kali, the "goddess of destruction." The Kali Yuga is the shortest of the four ages and the most violent; and it ends with the destruction of everything we know. This is the age we are currently in.

Returning to the spinning top analogy: Society's projected collapse is the equivalent of a spinning top running out of energy. When it no longer has enough energy to maintain its spin, it begins to wobble violently. We see this happening right now as all of our existing institutions are collapsing from their own self-corruption. Everything is becoming destabilized. Food shortages, mortgage foreclosures, currency collapses, medical liability, natural disasters, etc., are all accelerating at an alarming rate. Nothing is working like it should. Everything man has created is falling apart. It is actually a cleansing process, as that which is corrupt cannot survive the wobbling and the shaking, which is taking place at all levels of reality! Eventually, the top is going to run out of gyroscopic spin, fall over and hit the floor. There is nothing anyone can do about it. All existing institutions, except those established by Yahweh through His Son, Yahshua, will collapse. A consuming fire will sweep away all of the corruption. Those who teach that our problems can be solved by preaching “peace and love” are seriously deluded.

“See that ye refuse not him that speaketh...if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven, whose voice then shook the earth, but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more shake I not the earth only, but also heaven. And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.” - Heb. 12:25-27.

Sound frightening? Yes! But Scripture guarantees that those who keep His Commandments (Rev. 12:17, 14:12, 22:14.) and call upon His name (Rev. 2:13, 14:1, 22:4.) will be saved. We have the sure word of prophecy! (II Peter 1:20-21.) It is clear that only Bible-savvy Christians will be totally prepared for what is coming. For everyone else, “There will be a wailing and a gnashing of teeth!” (Luke 13:28.) Will you be shaken or unshaken by the coming meltdown of civilization? How do we survive destruction of unimaginable magnitude? There are times when you have no choice but to ride the wave until the storm is over. Those who try to fight against this wave will be swept away by the tide of events. It is the Day of His Wrath, when we will all be “changed in the twinkling of an eye.” (I Cor. 15:51-52; Isa. 29:5.) Baruch also foresaw this event: “And it will come to pass at the selfsame time, that a change of times will manifestly appear to every man.” “ Bar. 48:38. Despite the general incredulity, this is the awesome message of Biblical prophecy!

As this system called civilization nears collapse, many will say, “I never asked for this!” But the Bible says, “Your forefathers did.” And you are the direct result of their DNA at work. And our decisions and actions all have consequences, despite what the cynics say. Since the current tide of events is being dictated by unopposed corruption, error and deceit, there is no force but Yahshua and His angels that can root it out. Thus, it behooves all of us to study the Scriptures for ourselves. If we leave this matter to the priests, they will only teach that portion which they want you to hear. Balancing Knowledge and Love really isn’t that hard, but you have to show a commitment to both Love and Law in order to be rewarded accordingly. Those with BIG EGOS think the Universe is their personal property. But that Ego, which is out of Harmony with the Creator’s Will and Plan, is out of luck. It will be overwhelmed by the fractal wave and smashed against the Rock of Reality. The message is this: Get your act together NOW, because there isn’t much time left before the Beast and the False Prophet are cast into the Lake of Fire. If your identity and life are bound too closely with Mammon, then you too will be dragged down into the maelstrom, along with it.

Egotism is alienation from Creation due to selfishness. It is a SELF-DESTRUCTIVE energy pattern that cannot be granted ETERNAL LIFE. It must be destroyed or it will infect the beginning of the next cycle. This cannot be allowed to happen. A newborn baby must be protected from infection. By acknowledging that your very existence is DEPENDENT UPON YOUR CREATOR, you gain sufficient humility to qualify as a child of God. “The meek shall inherit the earth.” The selfish and acquisitive, such as the descendants of Cain, are actually part of the disease that needs to be cleansed before the next cycle of life can begin. But as God gives to us, we have to give in return; that’s why Christianity is a religion of service: service to one’s family, community and race. Each race has its own terms of service. The most enlightened of each race will survive; but Judaism will not, because Judaism is a cultural and religious selfishness that is rooted in its own supremacism. As such, the practitioners of this religion will never humble themselves before the Creator. It is Luciferian rebellion, which would rather die than submit; or serve. On the contrary, Talmudic Judaism is a religion that demands that non-Jews must perpetually serve it. Judaism is a dictatorial religion, which anticipates the day that the goyim will serve the Jews like slaves. Jews are taught to expect this by their rabbis, who have invented and daily encourage this form of ethnic chauvinism. This, they are taught, is the only solution to the problem of “Jewish persecution.” These “persecuted Jews” have begotten two rotten, bastard children: Communism and Zionism. More human victims have been sacrificed on these two pagan altars than by any other cause, yet the Kosher press never allows editorial space for Dissent. This arrogant elitism and sanctimonious piety demands to be worshipped like a god. Unrepentant self-worship carries its own death sentence.

The Judgment Day marks the end of its existence, as prophesied in many books of the Bible, especially in Obadiah. Like the Jews, who are a completely materialistic culture, for those who are caught up in the affairs of this world, the “impossible” will happen. Their empire – everything they hold precious – will collapse. For those of us who know who the true oppressor really is, the end of this world will signal our liberation. Glory HalleluYah!

Try to keep this in mind as everything falls apart. Pray like George Washington prayed at Valley Forge.

The McKennas put it this way:

“Like this [end time] myth, all ideas of salvation, enlightenment, or utopia may be taken to be expressions in consciousness of the drive of energy to free itself from the limitations of three-dimensional space and “return to the Father,” that is, return to the uncontaminated essence of itself in an epoch of realized concrescent satisfaction. Concrescent satisfaction includes the notion of energy unbounded by space and time; This revelation and its integration into the field of shared experience is a process of transformation of the previously limited ego.”

Replace their word concrescent with personal, and their statement will make more sense. In other words, although it sounds self-contradictory, Freedom is achieved only by those who deny themselves. They have to give up their egotism, their selfishness. This does not mean that the Self ceases to exist. What it means is that the Self no longer regards itself as the most important object in the Universe. (But from the Ego’s perspective, these two concepts, denying oneself and ceasing to exist, are identical! This is why the Jews are so fanatical about preserving their own “traditions.”) The mature Self accepts the fact that its Existence is dependent upon the Father/Creator. That is, the mature Self has developed a healthy sense of humility and has stopped pretending to be the most important thing in the Universe. The Self that fails to mature in this direction is always trapped by its own Egotism, limiting itself by selfish desires. The pleasures of selfishness and profiting at the expense of others are inherently evil. Pure Selfishness cannot accept its subservient, dependent relationship to its own Creator. This is the metaphysical and moral struggle between good and evil, love and hate, Yahweh and Lucifer. Those who are unwilling to let go of these selfish demands will not be allowed to make the transition from this age to the next. Capiche?

What is coming will be REAL CHANGE, the kind of “change” that Barak Obama can neither imagine nor achieve! Real change requires that we align ourselves with the Will of the Father and the Son.

When the system runs out of energy, there are two choices: Either “Let go and let God,” or hold on to what you’ve accumulated in this world and perish with it. As the old saying goes: “You can’t take it with you.” The revolutionary event that we will soon be facing is this: “If you don’t let go of IT, IT will take you with it..to oblivion.” Our whole planet will be facing this decision simultaneously. Those who will not allow others to be free cannot themselves be granted freedom; otherwise, there is no freedom. Jesus puts it this way: “For what does it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul.” (Mark 8:36.) That which is corrupt must be cleansed. There is no other way! Why cling to the corruption of this world when truth, justice, freedom, and eternal life await on the other side? In this coming event, everybody gets transformed, whether they want to or not! In this way, the Luciferian rebellion, which, eons ago, created this epidemic of selfishness and egotism, will be swept away! There is no use fighting against it. The Tide of Judgment is a pre-destined COSMIC EVENT, the climax of Scripture. It is BIGGER than we are, so we had best not oppose it, for it is the Will of God.

The McKennas relate that many of the ancient myths of the end times are related to the precession of the equinoxes. In discussing the idea of the precession of the equinoxes as the possible BIG CYCLE of time, they say this:

“It is useful to examine winter solstices on which solar eclipses will occur over the next two hundred years, during which the earth’s solstice node will be slowly transiting the area of the galactic center. When this is done, the most likely heliacal rising of the galactic center with the rising of the sun occurs on Dec. 21, 2012! If a causal connection were shown, it would implicate the galaxy itself as a major formative influence upon the structure of the molecules that maintain and define life.” - P. 196.

In simpler terms: Just as the Sun gives life to our planet and solar system, the Galactic Center gives life to our Sun and galaxy. Both are focal points and distribution centers of massive amounts of energy. This energy consists primarily of visible light and invisible electromagnetism. On the morning of Dec. 21, 2012, there will be an eclipse/conjunction of the Galactic Center by the Sun, cutting off the light and electromagnetic rays of the Galactic Center, which we are only dimly becoming aware of. In our solar system, during a solar eclipse, the moon positions itself in front of the sun and cuts off its light. This always creates an eerie sensation in those who behold it. This eerie feeling is the direct result of the disruption of the light and electromagnetic field. Our minds and bodies sense this, because our own electromagnetic fields are disrupted by the eclipse! On the MED, there will be an eclipse of an entirely different magnitude. “The sun shall be darkened and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven.” (Matt. 24:29.) Just talking about these matters gives us an eerie feeling!

This sudden “darkening” of the sun will strike fear, panic and terror in the hearts of those who do not anticipate it. Even those who anticipate it will be severely challenged not to be overcome by fear. It will be a time when the laws of nature will appear to have disintegrated. (Recall Daniel 9:1.) That’s how frightening it will be...like when the rollercoaster flies off the track! But the Bible compares it to a birthing experience. The woman in travail is overwhelmed by the act of giving birth. When the delivery is completed, she goes back to “normal.” This is how we are supposed to view the Judgment Day experience. Don’t let it overwhelm you “ even though the earth is shaking and your mind is quaking, even while you see those around you losing their grip “ because it too, will pass. When it is all over, “There will be a new heaven and a new earth.” I expect it will be somewhat like the awe and spectacle of the extraordinary events the Israelites experienced while going through the exodus, except that it will be on a planetary/Galactic scale. Just like Oct. 29, 1929 caused many people to commit suicide, the coming MED event will cause all of us to question the reasons for our own existence! Many people who have had near-death experiences say that they saw “My whole life flash right before my eyes” in a few seconds. The MED may be a time when we all have that experience simultaneously.

While the Old Physics reacts to such speculations with a collective yawn, the intellectual community of catastrophism and the New Physics is anticipating 2012 with bated breath! No one knows exactly what will happen, but all eyes are turning toward the MED.

The Mayan End Date (MED)

John Major Jenkins, in his book, Maya Cosmogogenesis 2012, comparing Mayan and Toltec mythology, says this:

“Both cultural traditions joined in a powerful proclamation that what we call the twenty-first century; would be a great era of transformation for humanity, one in which an old world is destroyed and a new world rises from the ashes.” - p. 149.

The origin of the Mayan Calendar is shrouded in mystery. Just who built the various stone observatories of Central America, such as Palenque, Chichenitza, Uxmal (pronounced Oosh-mal), Teotihuacan (Tee-oh-tee-wah-kahn), Tenochtitlan, and dozens of others, is a hotly debated issue. The oldest traditions identify the “bearded White men,” who are said to have come and gone, leaving the locals with a legacy of great stone monuments, legends of coming cataclysms, astronomical knowledge, and various calendars. Much of the astronomical knowledge is focused on the precession of the equinoxes and the great story in the sky, the Adamic Zodiac, of which I wrote in great detail in “The Prophetic Mazzaroth.” Suffice it to say that the Mazzaroth (Hebrew for Zodiac) was conceived and illustrated by none other than Adam, Seth and Enoch, our forefathers, who were “bearded White men.” Its intention was to illustrate, in pictographs (imaginary pictures) and in the names of the stars and constellations, the life and purpose of Jesus Christ, the Messiah. This Great Prophetic Story in the Sky includes detailed symbolism for the First and Second Advents, with special attention being focused by the archer of Sagittarius upon the Galactic Center, who aims his arrow precisely at that spot.

This is also the focal point of the Mayan End Date.

Various researchers in this area, such as John M. Jenkins, Maurice Cotterell, Jose Arguelles, Adrian Gilbert, Carl Calleman, and many others are all saying the same thing. After much debate as to a specific date, a consensus appears to have been reached: the Mayan calendar ends on Dec. 21, 2012. The specific event that occurs on this day is the “sun in the crosshairs.” On that specific Winter Solstice, the Sun will rise in Sagittarius, directly between the earth and the Galactic Center. The “crosshairs” are the plane of the Milky Way and the ecliptic of our Solar System, which is the plane defined by the orbits of the planets. (Our Solar System is tilted by 23 degrees to the plane of the Milky Way.) This event, which is part of the Great Zodiacal Year (the 26,000-year Precession of the Equinoxes), has been singled out by the Mayan Calendar Long Count. According to the Mayan counting system, the date on that calendar day will be 13.0.0.0.0.

Here is how this five-digit number, with the decimal points in between, reads:

13 Baktuns (each lasting 144,000 days)
0 Katuns (7,200 days)
0 Tuns (a “year” of 360 days)
0 Uinal (a “month” of 20 days)
0 Kin (representing 1 day)

The sum total of days in this Long Count is 1,872,000 days.

The last time the Mayan Long Count had this date (13.0.0.0.0) was Aug. 11, 3114 BC. That was the year that this count began. The entire time span is 5,125 years. On Dec. 21, 2012, the Mayan Calendar will start a new Long Count, so it does not mean the end of the calendar, but it does point to this special Eclipse of the Galactic Center by the Sun.

All of these researchers are convinced that the Mayan Calendar is telling us to pay special attention to this Galactic Eclipse. The question is, “What does it mean?”

Carl J. Calleman, in his book, The Mayan Calendar and the Transformation of Consciousness, believes that the historical patterns of major developments in civilization can be deduced from these 13 Baktuns, as they are called. Each Baktun is about 394 years. Calleman’s dating is slightly different from the other MED researchers, although he now appears to agree with the other authors that the Long Count of 13 Baktuns ends on Dec. 21, 2012. I will use his dates as given in his book. Beginning in 3115 BC, these thirteen Baktuns are divided into 7 “days” of heightened human activity and six “nights” of slower development. (Note that the First Baktun of 144,000 days occurred right after Noah’s Flood, of 3245 BC, and it coincides with the beginning of the dynasty of King Menes in Egypt. In Christian Identity, we teach that Noah’s Flood was NOT global, although the Deluge {many months of rainfall} was global. Noah’s territory was also hit by an earthquake which caused a major upwelling of underground aquifer water, making the flood much worse where he lived.) Calleman’s focus is major advances in human thought and civilization, such as Hebrew monotheism, rather than the exploits of kingdoms and kings, which is the subject matter of most history books. Below, I will use his Baktun periods, as given in a chart on p. 66 of his book, and I will add comments to fill in historical details of these kingdoms as well.

During the First Day, 3115-2721 BC, Egypt, Sumer and Meso-America had their cultural beginnings/revivals after the Deluge. These were the areas where rudimentary agriculture enabled large cities to be built. Without plentiful food, civilization remains at a primitive, subsistence level. This is why hunter-gatherer societies never develop into civilizations. Then there was the First Night, 2721-2326 BC, a period of steady population growth. Then, for the Second Day, 2326-1932 BC, Calleman especially notes Abraham’s occupation of Canaan as the mean point of this “day.” (Yahweh is preparing a place for his People, Israel.) The Second Night, 1932-1538 BC, saw the steady population growth in Mesopotamia, along with advances in agricultural techniques. The Third Day, 1538-1144 BC, is highlighted by Moses’ giving of the Law, as well as the Vedas of India, which were/are Aryan (Adamic) literature. The Third Night, 1144-749 BC, witnessed the decline of Egypt and Assyria. New kingdoms, such as David’s Israel and Nimrod’s Babylon, developed in their place. The Fourth Day, 749-355 BC, Calleman assigns to Isaiah, Zoroaster, Buddha, Confucius, Pythagoras and Lao-Tzu. The Fourth Night, 355 BC ~ 40 AD, witnesses the trials and tribulations of the house of Judah in Palestine, culminating in the sacrifice of the Messiah in 33 AD. The Fifth Day, 40-434 AD, he assigns to Quetzlcoatl in the Americas, Christianity, Talmudic Judaism, and the emergence of Buddhism in China. This, of course, is also the time during which the Gospel was delivered to the Dispersed House of Israel throughout Asia Minor and Europe. This was the era of Christianity overcoming all odds. During the Fifth Night, 434-829, Islam emerges in Arabia. This was also the beginning of the Dark Ages in Europe, which was brought about by the Roman Church’s policy of feudalism, which, in reality, was a rigorous type of caste system, which tied the serfs to their little plots of land, with all power being retained by the Church and its feudal lords, thus making the serfs land-slaves of the system. The Sixth Day, 829-1223, is the expansion of Christianity in Europe and the beginning of the Crusades. Christian Europe begins to break out of the Dark Ages of feudalism, as independent city-states emerge and break away from Roman authority. The Sixth Night, 1223-1617, an era of intense religious conflict, contains the Protestant Reformation of Huss, Tyndale and Luther, religious wars, and the Second Wave of Islam under the Ottoman Turks. The Seventh Day, 1617-2011, marks out the Industrial Revolution, with its explosion of science and technology and the European Settlement of America, with its promotion of Freedom of Religion and the ideals of Personal Liberty and Limited Government.

Although Calleman believes that this historical cycle ends in late 2011, he nevertheless agrees that the Mayan Long Count ends on Dec. 21, 2012. Calleman’s synopsis of cultural history is very similar to the analysis presented by the McKenna Brothers: there is a cyclical pattern to history, but that pattern comes to an abrupt end around 2012!

The Sun Worshipers

Most archeologists and historians tend to look down their snouts at the ancient world and don’t give those ancient civilizations much credit. They see the ancient world as populated by Stone Age cavemen and filled with ignorance and superstition. They reduce the ancient world’s religions to “sun-worship” or “moon-worship,” depending upon the culture. The fact is, however, that the ancients were acutely aware their astronomical surroundings. These primeval astronomers kept very detailed records of the motions of the sun, moon and planets. This fact belies the notion of their assumed primitiveness. I think modern analysis has oversimplified this relationship between civilization and the sun, reducing it to a form of “sun-worship.” It is probably more correct to call it appreciation, what the Bible calls fear, for these astronomer-priests, and the farming civilization that developed along with them, were keenly aware of the Sun’s role in providing light for plant growth, meaning food, and for providing warmth, not to mention daylight! The fact is that we moderns tend to take the Sun, and nature, for granted. It just is; and we ignore it. But without the Sun, there would be no life on this planet; and too few of us bother to take the time to thank Yahweh for its blessings.

The ancient, pre-Christian cross symbols represented the Sun. These symbols represent their appreciation of the sun’s role in giving us life. This means that they were acutely aware of the forces of nature. It is simplistic to write these symbols off as mere “idol-worship.” The fact is that the astronomers of the ancient world had an extremely sophisticated understanding of astronomical and global cycles; and the Mayan calendar is merely one example of that sophistication.

The basic argument from all of the 2012 proponents is that these ancient astronomers have left us, in their monuments, mathematics, geometrics, and heiroglyphs, a warning about a coming catastrophe: Something is going to happen to the Sun on or about Dec. 21, 2012. What could that be? Is it just a reference to the Grand Eclipse of the Galactic Center, or is it possible that something may happen to the Sun itself?

This item, from David Wilcock (www.divinecosmos.com), may help us to understand what is currently happening in our galactic environment:

"That the Sun's magnetic field is over 230 percent stronger now than it was at the beginning of the 1900s, and its overall energetic activity has sizably increased, creating a frenzy of activity that continues to embarrass NASA's official predictions. In the last 30 years, Earth's icecaps have thinned out by as much as 40 percent. Quite inexplicably, just since 1997 the structure of the Earth has shifted from being slightly more egg-shaped, or elongated at the poles, to more pumpkin-shaped, or flattened at the poles. No one at NASA has even bothered to try to explain this yet.

The glowing plasma at the leading edge of our Solar System has recently increased 1000 percent. Russian and NASA data has confirmed that the front end of the Sun's magnetic field has become over 1000 percent brighter in the last 30+ years. We know that if you rub a piece of metal fast enough, you create what is known as friction, and the metal will begin glowing red-hot. In the same manner, the extra dust and energy in this new galactic energy zone is colliding with the Sun's magnetic field, causing friction and creating a visible static charge of "plasma" energy at the front that is rapidly increasing in size and brightness. As of 1997, Dr. Aleskey Dmitriev and other Russian scientists observed that the Galactic space we are now moving into is showing significantly higher concentrations of matter and energy, including charged particles of hydrogen, helium and hydroxyl, in addition to other new combinations of elements. In August 2003, an ESA/NASA experiment called DUST, launched with the Ulysses satellite in 1990, has discovered that there is 300% more dust entering the Solar System now than there was throughout all of the 1990s."

If this item is an accurate assessment, then “global warming” has a cosmic cause; and the present acceleration of catastrophic weather (melting glaciers and polar ice, hurricanes, tornadoes, tsunamis, wildfires, earthquakes) cannot be blamed only on earthly causes, such as SUV exhaust emissions!

The Cycles of the Sun

Adrian Gilbert and Maurice Cotterell, in their book, The Mayan Prophecies, tell a similar, cosmic story. On page 2, regarding the Maya, they say this:

“They believed that they were living in the fifth age of the sun: that prior to the creation of modern men there had been four previous races and four previous ages. These had all been destroyed in great cataclysms, leaving few survivors to tell the tale. According to Mayan chronology, the present age started on Aug. 12, 3114 BC and is to end on AD 22 December 2012.”

Throughout their book, the authors recall how difficult it was to get this material published. Maurice Cotterell relates how he was thrown out of various museums, which refused to listen to his major discovery: He had solved the riddle of the inscriptions on the mysterious sarcophagus lid at Palenque. This richly decorated, rectangular lid was full of Mayan inscriptions that had previously defied interpretation. In addition to the major symbols contained on the “canvas” of the Palenque lid, the surrounding the border of this lid was covered with mysterious symbols as well. One day, it occurred to Cotterell that these border symbols could be half symbols, which, if paired up with other half-symbols along the border on the other side of the lid, might yield complete symbols. Sure enough! That is what he found. Not only that, but, to his utter astonishment, he found that by creating transparencies of the lid on celluloid, and arranging one transparency over another (of the same picture of the lid), more and more intelligible pictures stood out!!! Amazingly, whoever designed this lid had designed it in such a fashion that it could not be understood without an overlaid complementarity of half-images. The celluloid transparencies of the lid allowed Cotterell to determine the designer’s intent.

“Carrying on with his overlay technique, Cotterell was able to find over one hundred images and even stories on the lid that he could relate to Mayan mythology.” - p. 85.

The book then tells the story of how this discovery was received by the establishment. One door after another was slammed in Cotterell’s face. Established archeology, operating on the presumption that the ancient world was populated by grunting cavemen, was simply not interested in a story which proclaimed such ingenuity existed before Plato, Socrates and Pythagoras. While he was being rebuffed by the archeological establishment, he was gaining notoriety in Mexico City, after having presented his transparencies on local television. This caused an absolute sensation, with notable people, such as the Mayor’s wife and the ladies’ auxiliary, inviting him to gala parties and receptions, during which he explained how he developed the transparencies and what they meant.

The archeological pariah was becoming a local phenomenon. But even this ray of hope was soon to fade away. You see, the natives of Mexico City were preparing to celebrate the achievements of their ancestors, which Cotterell was perceived as discovering; but Cotterell had a different story to tell. It had become apparent that the “Mayans” were not natives to Central America. They were foreigners who had come and gone. They had come to “Mexico” in ships from the Atlantic Ocean. They were not Mexicans. They were “bearded White men.” not native Amerindians. When he dropped this bombshell on the enthusiastic citizens of Mexico City, they completely lost interest in his discoveries; and Cotterell was once again persona non grata. In other words, their interest in archeology was limited by their racism!!!! And we are told, repeatedly, that only Whites can be racists!!!

In order to get their book published, Gilbert and Cotterell had to downplay the race factor, since the very word, race, has become taboo for scholars. Given the pervasive “anti-racism” in the sciences, academia, and publishing, any discussion of race is practically verboten. Describing the image of the Walker, a bearded White man, Gilbert says this, somewhat apologetically:

“To me the Walker looked very much like the Egyptian Orion, except that instead of holding a staff he held a flag; There was no explanation, however, for why he should have been bearded. There are quite a number of bearded sculptures by the Olmecs and other early peoples, including some of the ‘dancers’ of Monte Alban. In that it is a fact of genetics that full-blooded Amerindians do not grow beards, this is a matter that continues to perplex archeologists.” p. 161.

Since White men grow beards, they are often accurately depicted that way. Why should archeologists find this perplexing, unless it is their political correctness that prevents them from accepting the evidence of their own eyes? The irony of the current rediscovery of this ancient knowledge is that it is being deciphered by modern bearded White men!! It’s as if our ancestors coded and placed this knowledge in the past, in full anticipation that their descendants (us) would eventually find it and decipher it. Now that we are deciphering these ancient messages, we find that they were trying to warn us of a coming cataclysm!!!!

The Sunspot Cycles

The idea that some ancient inscriber of stone could have come up with such a marvelous coding technique was startling enough. The story that the Palenque lid revealed was even more amazing!!! This roller coaster ride of discovery and disappointment was to have an even bigger surprise for Cotterell, a surprise that knocked his socks off!

It turned out that Cotterell had previously published detailed accounts of the Sun’s 23-year cycle of sunspots. This was his area of expertise. In previously plotting the historical data of the Sun’s past sunspot history, he found that the ebb and flow of the sunspot cycle mirrored the ebb and flow of history itself. Just as Calleman noticed that the ebb and flow of history mirrored the ebb and flow of the Baktuns of the Mayan Calendar, Cotterell noticed that the Sunspot Cycles were intimately related to this ebb and flow. You can imagine the daring hypothesis emerging in his mind: “Is the cycle of history related to the Sunspot Cycle?” Even more daring: “Does the Mayan Calendar reflect this pattern of knowledge?”

Gilbert and Cotterell conclude that the answer to both questions is “Yes.”

Calleman’s “Seven Days and Six Nights” scenario of the Mayan Calendar now had a quantifiable relationship to the Sunspot Cycle, although the theory is still highly speculative. Of course, proving such a proposition is quite different from having good evidence for it. One thing was for sure: the scientific establishment was not interested in such speculations, nor was Mexico City. The only choice left was to publish this fantastic information and present it to the public.

One of Cotterell’s most important discoveries was that there is a relationship between high sunspot activity and human fertility. High sunspot activity provides great fertility while low sunspot activity means low fertility. It turns out that the magnetic field of the Sun and the magnetic field of the Earth have a complex and dynamic relationship, which is driven by the Sun’s solar wind. The earth’s magnetic field actually provides us protection from the direct effects of both the solar wind and cosmic rays. It’s not just the atmosphere that protects us from the harmful effects of these rays, the Earth’s magnetic field also provides similar protection.

The stronger the Sun’s activity, the greater Earth’s magnetic field is energized. This is a direct, causal relationship. The weaker the Sun’s activity, the weaker the Earth’s magnetic field becomes. The stronger the Sun’s output, the stronger the earth’s electromagnetic reaction. Cotterell explains the fertility phenomenon in terms of the harmful effects of cosmic rays, which do not emanate from the Sun. Cosmic rays are the background radiation of outer space; and they can come from any direction.

Quoting from Appendix 3:

“Evidence exists that female humans, deprived of solar radiation for a length of time, experience disruptive changes in their endocrine systems. Such disruption in turn severely affects the production of the ‘timing’ hormone melatonin and the fertility hormone oestrogen (estrogen) and progesterone.”

(If this information is correct, then women who are having difficulty conceiving need to go outside and “get some sun.” Sunlight is also the best source of Vitamin D.)

Continuing:

“Among such evidence is a report in the New Scientist of June 1989, which illustrates endocrine dependence upon solar radiation. Stefania Follini, an Italian interior designer, spent four months in a cave in New Mexico. Italian scientists watched how she responded to the isolation because of the implications for space travel. Her waking days lasted 35 hours and were punctuated by sleeping periods of about 10 hours. She lost 17 pounds, (7.7 kg) [Now, get ready for this shocker:] and her menstrual cycle stopped. Follini believed she had spent two months underground, not four.” - p. 250.

This is a good illustration of how the human body is dependent upon sunlight for proper endocrine function. Clearly, we are “creatures of the Sun,” but we have forgotten this fact, which was, at one time, common knowledge among the ancients. It is actually more correct to say that we are creatures of the electromagnetic environment: that combination of light, solar wind, electromagnetic fields, cosmic rays, etc., all of which directly affect the functioning and hormonal output of the endocrine system. This being the case, we need to envisage ourselves, not just as earthlings, but as “sunlings,” creatures whose physical existence is totally dependent upon the energy produced by the Sun and how it affects the earth’s all-encompassing electromagnetic fields. The next time you gaze up at the Aurora Borealis (northern lights), armed with this knowledge, you should appreciate the life-giving properties of these forces, not just their beautiful colors! Thus, we gain a fuller appreciation of the dynamics of life on earth, as designed by Yahweh and implemented through His Son Yahshua. This type of knowledge is very humbling, as it reveals how much we take for granted. This complex interrelationship of Sun, Light, Space, Electromagnetism, Atmosphere, Environment, Chemistry, Rain, not to mention Dirt, is what goes into sustaining our bodies, ie., providing us with LIFE.

Have you been sufficiently humbled by this wholistic (comprehensive) appreciation of what it takes to sustain your being? It is even more humbling to know that the ancients understood this dynamic eons ago; and we are just now rediscovering this complex. The astronomers of the ancient world, be they Mayan or Parthian, kept meticulous records of the cycles of the Sky. They would have noticed the relationship between certain cycles and human fertility. They may not have understood fertility in terms of endocrinology, but, as keen observers of the Sun, Sky and cyclical patterns, they would have noticed the relationship between fertility and the Sun Spot Cycle. Given this perspective, we can now appreciate why the ancient world “worshipped” the Sun. There’s much more to this than mere superstition. We moderns should develop the appreciation of natural forces that the ancients did.

Cotterell theorizes that there is an inverse relationship between fertility and cosmic rays, which are the background radiation of Outer Space. No one really knows what the source of these rays is. When the Sun’s activity is too low, Earth’s magnetic field allows more cosmic rays to penetrate our atmosphere; and this results in lower fertility. One of the mysteries of Mayan civilization “or what was left of it after the bearded White men departed, leaving the locals with the legacy of the Calendar” is the sudden collapse of their civilization. The Mayans disappeared just as mysteriously as they appeared. Archeologists have speculated that drought or a pandemic might have been responsible, because there is no evidence of war or some other violent end. If there is this complex relationship between the Sun and humans, then it is quite probable that plant growth and food production will also be affected. All scientists are familiar with this process. It is called photosynthesis.

To put it in its most basic terms: There would be no life on earth without the Sun. Without sufficient Sunlight, plants will not grow; so, drought was probably also a factor in the disappearance of the Maya.

Cotterell's solution to this puzzle is that the "Mayans" experienced a dramatic, catastrophic decline in live births due to a reduction in fertility rates. The vestiges of Mayan civilization came to an abrupt end in the middle of a very low period of sunspot activity. This, combined with drought, could be the solution for the mysterious disappearance of the Maya. Recall that the Long Count is a period of 1,872,000 days. According to Gilbert and Cotterell, the Mayan calendar either predicted or recorded this disaster by specifying another count from Aug. 12, 3114 BC. This period was a day count of 1,366,040 days. In other words, Mayan civilization disappeared 1,366,040 days after the beginning of the Long Count, as predicted by this second count. The various Mayan Calendar counts are referred to as "Rounds." In addition to the time periods of the Long Count, the Mayans also employed a 260-day count, called a Tzolkin, which is related to the cycles of the planet Venus; and they had a "conventional" 365-day count (calendar), which is called a Haab. These two counts combine to form a Round of 18,980 days, at which point the two counts resynchronize. $260 * 365 = 18,980$. 20 is the number of days in a Uinal, which is an integral part of the Long Count. $20 * 18,980 = 1,366,040$.

The Aztecs also had a traditional prophecy based on the Mayan Calendar, according to which Aztec civilization would also end. Aztec religion eventually degenerated into human sacrifice. According to the reports of historians, the sacrificial victims had their hearts cut out of their chests while fully conscious! Apparently, the Aztec priesthood believed that such sacrifices "to the gods" would stave off the impending doom of their civilization. Little did they realize that this practice would lead to its destruction! This prophecy was related to the return of the bearded White men. This prophecy was also fulfilled when Hernando Cortez landed in the New World. Through a combination of war and diseases brought by Cortez and his men, his band of bearded White Spaniards destroyed the Aztec civilization! If nothing else, this historical development put an end to the brutal form of human sacrifice employed by the Aztecs.

The Sun's magnetic field is a very complex mechanism. It is not like a simple bar magnet, with a positive pole at one end and a negative pole at the other. The Sun's magnetic field is dependent upon its axial rotation. At the Sun's poles, the magnetic field rotates once every 37 days. At the Sun's Equator, the field rotates more quickly, once every 26 days. This means that the Equatorial Field rotates much faster than the polar fields. As the Equatorial Field outpaces the Polar Fields, an unstable dynamic is created. The best way to visualize this is by imagining a piece of rubber which is fastened at the poles, running through the equator in a straight line. As the Sun turns, the field (the rubber band) is stretched at the equator while the poles lag behind. Thus, the rubber is stretched in the middle, winding around and around the equator, as the equatorial field turns faster than the polar fields. As the rubber band is stretched to its limits around the equator, it creates tension which must eventually be alleviated. This field is stretched and stretched and stretched until it finally snaps (collapses); and the process starts all over again. This is what causes the Sun Spot Cycles, which average about 22-23 years in length.

Only in the last 50 years has astronomy developed to the point where we can understand the electromagnetic field of the Sun, and its 22.5 year polarity reversal. It is usually referred to as the Sun Spot Cycle. It is becoming increasingly apparent to these researchers that the astronomers of the ancient world were acutely familiar with these Sunspot Cycles, from both solar observations and from the effects that the highs and lows produced here on Earth. The ancients were not the ignorant "cavemen," carrying clubs and eating roasted dinosaur for dinner, as they are popularly portrayed in "science" books. The ancients had a much greater knowledge and understanding of the Sun than we have ever imagined. As star-gazers and Sun-watchers, their astronomers had become very familiar with the cycles of the Sun and the impact of these cycles on our planet. We are just now catching up to their level of understanding.

The Cross at Hendaye

The Cross at Hendaye is a most fascinating Templar/Masonic structure. It is a monument located in the small town of Hendaye, in the far corner of southwestern France, near the Basque country of northern Spain. As a monument to the end of time, the Cross at Hendaye is quite unique and extraordinary, because of its mixture of Templar, Rosicrucian, and Christian themes. At the heart of the story is the fact that the Knights Templar were the custodians of hidden knowledge. Whoever carved the symbols into this Cross employed symbolism which is evident and common in the statuary and bas-reliefs of Europe's most famous cathedrals. Few people understand that it was the Templars, not the Catholic Church, who built these monumental cathedrals. {Here is a link to a website which gives some of the history of the Knights Templar: <http://alandpeters.tripod.com/knightstemplarera1188to1312/id11.html> } Although the Templars were originally commissioned by the Pope, they were a very independent order. Their construction projects were financed by the treasure they brought back from their expeditions to Jerusalem. Eventually, the Knights Templar and the Papacy became rivals, with a total break occurring in 1314, when the King of France (who was in debt to the Order) and the Pope conspired to steal the gold and relics that were in the possession of the Order.

Jay Weidner and Vincent Bridges, in their book, A Monument to the End of Time: Alchemy, Fulcanelli, and the Great Cross, have deciphered the symbolism of the Great Cross; and it tells the same story as the MED. In this book, Weidner and Bridges tell the story of a mysterious European "alchemist," Fulcanelli, his apocalyptic writings and his interpretation of the Cross at Hendaye, a "monument to the end of time."

Regarding one of the underlying themes of their research, they say this on page 11:

"The first current, which we will call the Priest/Kings, believed it had the right to possess the secret based on ancient traditions and bloodlines. In contrast to this basically Osirian position were the nihilistic Setians who wanted to possess the secret exclusively and were willing to destroy everything to get it, or to keep anyone else from getting it. The ancient myth of Osiris, the rightful King, whose power is usurped by his evil brother, Set, and then revenged by his son, Horus, echoes this struggle over control of the secret."

If this description is reminiscent of the struggle between True Israel (Jacob) and his evil brother, Esau (Edom), then we know we are walking on apocalyptic ground, for the resolution of the struggle between these two bloodlines is the theme of the Bible. Few outside of Identity suspect this to be the case, but there is no doubt that all roads lead to the Judgment Day. The nihilistic Jew (Esau) is daring Yahweh to take back what he has stolen from Jacob. By denying that Yahshua is the Messiah, Esau/Jewry is denying the validity of the Jacob/Israel bloodline!!!! Esau will not let go of his presumptuous claim to kingship, which he sold to Jacob for bowl of lentil soup, proving his unworthiness for the birthright. (Gen. 25:27-34.) Verse 34 plainly states; "Thus, Esau despised his birthright." Esau is that nihilistic (denialistic), spiteful man, who married into the race of fallen angels, when he married two Hittite women. (Gen. 26:34.) His descendants were henceforth called Edomites; and it was these Edomites of Idumea who put Jesus to death. These Edomites are the same people that the New Testament calls Jews. (The "Jews" of the Old Testament are Judahites, not Edomites.) The modern Jews still possess Esau's spiteful mind. Esau is still trying to take back from Jacob what he so foolishly gave away at Gen. 27:34. And if he can't have it, then he is going to take as many people down in flames as he can, for out of spite, he will destroy that which he cannot have.

What is the secret of the Hendaye Cross? It is the prediction that the current world order will end on Dec. 21, 2012. In their book, Weidner and Bridges detail the story of how they decoded, using clues provided by the mysterious Fulcanelli, the symbolism of the Great Cross. The base of the Cross has four faces, each with apocalyptic symbolism. {For a selection of photos of the Hendaye Cross, follow this link:

This link provides an excellent image of the four faces, along with Jay Weidner's story of how he researched the meaning of the images:

The most obvious face is the Solar Cross symbol, a circle divided into four quadrants by an inner cross. This is one of the oldest symbols of mythology. One of the interesting features of the Hendaye Cross is that the four quadrants each contain the Alpha symbol. Thus, it is an Omega enclosing four Alphas. This immediately brings to mind Yahshua's pronouncement, "I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end." According to Weidner and Bridges, it symbolizes the four Evangelists, Matthew, Mark, Luke and John, as well as four world ages, Gold, Silver, Bronze, and Iron. Three of these ages have come and gone, and the last is ripe for destruction. In fact, the meaning of the Iron Age is "Death."

The second panel is the "Sun panel," which depicts an angry or agonized sun face in an agitated or explosive state. They believe that Fulcanelli chose this symbol to point toward the ecliptic on Sept. 22, 2002, which happens to be the midpoint of the last Katun (1992 ~ 2012) of the Mayan Calendar. [Sunspot cycle?] The four stars in the corners of the panel refer to the four planets which were aligned with the ecliptic at sunrise on that day, thus completing the symbolism. According to the secret code of the Templars, these four planets spell out I-N-R-I (Iesus Nazarenus Rex Iudeorum) in the sky, thus being a direct reference to the Second Coming of Christ as King. In addition, they say that the I-N-R-I has another, hidden meaning, namely, Igne Natura Renovatur Integra. This means, "By fire is nature renewed whole." (Mal. 4:1.) According to Fulcanelli, the alchemist, this can only mean the Day of Judgment, on which "the good shall be separated from the wicked."

The third face of the monument is the eight-rayed sun. They interpret this as being a reference to the conjunction of the Sun and the Galactic Center, both of which will be aligned on the morning of Dec. 21, 2012.

The fourth panel is the Man in the Moon symbol, complete with an Egyptian eye. They link this symbol with various pictures of the Tarot, which Fulcanelli would have included in his symbolism. Card number 18 pictures the Moon eclipsing the Sun, complete with howling dogs. This is the card of "Illusion," symbolizing man's inability to see the reality behind the illusion. Card number 21, interestingly enough, depicts a woman with the four symbols of the main tribes of Israel in the corners. These are Dan, the Eagle, Reuben, the Man, Joseph, the Bull, and Judah, the Lion. These symbols again draw our attention to the sky, especially to the Adamic Zodiac, which is the prophetic "Gospel in the Sky," telling the story of the life and mission of Jesus Christ. (For a complete description of this zodiacal symbolism, please see my article, "The Prophetic Mazzaroth," for proof of the Christian eschatological (end-time) significance of the original Zodiac of Adam.

http://www.anglo-saxonisrael.com/newsletter/2007_2_22.php)

Drawing from a cross-section of every possible end time tradition, Weidner and Bridges relate this prophecy from Tibet:

“The Tibetan Kalachakra contains a prophecy that 860 years after its introduction into Tibet, which happened in 1127, the conditions would be fulfilled for a twenty-five year period that would culminate in the appearance of the Tibetan version of the New Jerusalem, the hidden city of Shamballa. Eight hundred sixty years after 1127 is 1987, and 25 years after that is 2012. - p.173.

Comparing their decoding of the Hendaye Cross with the Mayan calendar, they ultimately conclude with this:

“The cross at Hendaye, a true monument to the end of time, demonstrates how to calculate the traditional date of the Day of Judgment. It points to a very specific date, September 22, 2002, and a specific place, the paws of the Great Sphinx on the Giza plateau; September 22, 2002 falls on the midpoint of the last Mayan katun, 13 Reed and 20 Ahau, calculated from the summer solstice of 1992 to the winter solstice of 2012.” - p172-173.

The beauty of The Monument to the End of Time is its copious references to Christian iconography and symbolism. Many of the “occult” symbols turn out to have been of unsuspected apocalyptic significance all along. As with much of Christian symbolism, non-Christian groups have appropriated Biblical symbols and used them for their own purposes. This, it turns out, is true of Zodiacal, Hermetic (Enochian) and Templar symbolism. To sum up the thesis of their work, Weidner and Bridges state, “Fulcanelli is telling us that the Cross at Hendaye is a marker stone to some future catastrophe.” - p. 156.

2012 and the Prophetic Mazzaroth

Here is an astronomical interpretation of the imagery of Revelation, Chapter 12:

The moment the sages of 1177 foresaw, just after the turn of the seventh millennium of the Hebrew calendar and the beginning of the third Christian millennium, the alignment of eclipse cycle and the sacred calendars, occurred on October 3/4th, 2005, and two days later, on October 5/6th, the great portent appeared in the sky. The sun in Virgo, from a sidereal perspective, falling on the Virgin’s robed shoulder, “clothed by the Sun,” a thin crescent moon on the cusp of Virgo/Libra, “with the Moon under her feet,” and “pregnant” with the conjunction of Mercury, Jupiter and the alpha star of Virgo, Spica, at the level of her womb. “Crowned with twelve stars,” suggests the return of the cusp of Virgo/Leo, ancient starting point of the zodiac, to the fall equinox. The Red Dragon, even with all its evil connotations, can be seen as the Head of the Dragon marking the solar eclipse, waiting to eat the child, the Sun/Son, the moment it is born.

So, in Washington City, at noon on October 5/6th, 2005, even though the sun was veiling the event, the Great Portent moved into alignment over the city’s monuments. The White House’s south front would have been a good place to view it, and in our computer view, that’s our observation point. As the Sun touched the meridian on October 5th, the whole of the Portent spread out to the east, from meridian to eastern horizon. The first thing we notice is that the Washington Monument is not due south of the White House, as L’Enfant planned. It is offset to the east just enough to align with the fixed star Spica and the conjunction of Jupiter and Mercury. This is apparently not accidental, as the dedication ceremony for its present location, done in 1880, was aligned down the Mall with the rising of Spica. ... Further down the Mall to the east is the new Moon, on the Virgo/Libra cusp, under the feet of Virgo, and beyond that in Libra is Venus.

Esoteric and Occult Goddess worship has culminated in the design and purpose of Washington D.. Embodied as the Goddess Columbia, who is the new face of an old deity. According to this website (www.goddesscolumbia.com...), the design in D.. was meant to be fulfilled in recent time, and was not exactly aligned until now. The great 'wonder in heaven' of revelations occurred in October of 2005. According to the dates set forth in the book of Daniel, Mt. Zion will be in the hands of unbelievers for 2,300 years. The Greeks conquered Israel in 333BC and 2,300 years later in 1967AD the Jews re-conquered it after the 6-Day War. The two other periods linked with the abomination of the Temple are 1,290 and 1,335 years. The Muslims turned the Dome of the Rock into a mosque in 677, and 1,290 years later in 1967 east Jerusalem was annexed by Israel. The other period is 1,335 years after the Muslims captured the Temple. And that is 45 years after 1967, or 2012. DUN DUN DUNNNNN!!!!

- <http://www.abovetopsecret.com/forum/thread282567/pg2>

So, this author believes that the proper interpretation of Daniel's two periods of 1290 and 1335 years is that the Temple will not be liberated until the year 2012!!! The Jewish annexation of east Jerusalem in 1967 was part of the war between two infidels, Arabs and Jews, both of whom vie for power against true Israel!!!! True Israel will not regain control of the literal city of Jerusalem until after the Judgment Day, when the battle of Armageddon will vanquish all of our enemies!!! (More proof of this later!)

Season of the Witch

For those who have eyes that see, Zionist-sponsored multiculturalism, economic dictatorship, brainwashing, and warmongering have created a witches' brew of social disaster. They are reaping this harvest as we speak. If you cannot see how drastically civilization has declined during the Age of Zionism, then you might as well go back to sleep. Your eyes are shut by illusion and propaganda. Pandora's Box has been opened by the Zionists, and the stupefied masses, unable to grasp the reality of it all, treat it as if it were a form of entertainment. But the spectators cannot seem to grasp that this is reality, not a movie! The beautiful, seductive starlet, who gets paid with Jewish blood money, is really an ugly old hag, Mystery Babylon, mother of harlots. Truly, this is the "Season of the Witch."

This final twenty-year period, the last Katun of the Mayan Calendar, appears to be the "season of the apocalypse." It was during this period that Zionist Neo-Kahns have dragged America into the Middle East conflict with a vengeance. The Zionists and their neo-Khan friends have instigated the two Bush regimes into attacking Iraq twice, with the first attack beginning in 1992, the so-called "Operation Desert Storm." 1993 saw Waco and the first attack on the Twin Towers. Flight 800, Ruby Ridge, Oklahoma City, Somalia and Kosovo were all Zionist-Mossad-CIA (collectively known as "Al-Qaeda") operations that proved that the International Banking Mafia could get away with anything. Draconian legislation, such as the deceptively misnamed "Patriot Acts," I & II - totally in opposition to the spirit of the Constitution and Americanism - has been foisted upon the sheeple, who swallow government lies as if they were gospel, all to beat down the enemies of the Jewish State. In the name of "democracy," the American people have been converted from freedom-lovers into fear-mongers and war-mongers, willing to trade our hard-won liberty for the machinations of the Zionist Superstate, the Orwellian New World Order. How long will it take for enough Americans to wake up and put an end to this satanic, politico-religious fiasco? For the Zionists, 9/11/2001 was a master stroke. They demolished the Twin Towers and blamed it on Arabs with box cutters. Anyone who believes the highjacking conspiracy theory of George Bush and the neo-Kahns is a fool. There is simply no doubt that 9/11 was an act of Zionist Treason against America and the world, an act which was designed to usher in the New Dark Age of Satan's Orwellian Superstate. In the guise of "national security," tyranny reigns. The Department of Homeland Sabotage was conceived by Zionists and is headed by Zionists. It is just another KGB, complete with jack-booted thugs and Jewish racketeers and mafiosos.

While the American sheeple sleep, tyranny grows stronger. The Judas-goat, George Bush, gloats while America self-destructs. We are reaping the “blessings” of having “blessed the Jews” for 60 years with our money, gullibility and stupidity. Choosing to ignore the Bible’s numerous warnings of “Be not deceived” and “Beware of wolves in sheep’s clothing,” Christians are doing the will of the anti-Christ while believing they are doing the Will of God. Never in history have so many people – billions! – been so thoroughly deceived. It is a monument to the success of the Big Lie. Turning a blind eye to tyranny will not sit well with the Father. Those “Christians” who have allied themselves with the Devil will be shocked when the Judge hands them their walking papers, stamped with the words, “Not qualified for the Kingdom.” Instead of heeding the warnings of Scripture, they preferred the flatteries of the pulpitbastards. How can such people be allowed into the Kingdom?

The second Iraq war has been payback for America. We are bogged down in a war to make the world safe for the Zionist state. Military occupation is a grim, but profitable business. The Jews should know. It is the modus operandi of the House of Rothschild. It surely looks as though this illegal Jewish fiasco will escalate beyond the Middle East. Since both the Democrats and the Republicans are nothing but Zionist puppet parties, with greater allegiance to the Israeli State than to America, there is only one possible outcome: disaster. In fact, under Zionist influence, America has become the world’s leading military empire. The “ugly American” has become a hook-nosed kike. This is what happens when you let Mystery Babylon, the International Banking Mafia of the House of Rothschild, dictate your domestic and foreign policy. Every indication is that we will not get out of the Middle East quagmire soon, since the Jews are determined to exploit America’s dwindling resources until we go bankrupt. The ultimate goal of this International Banking Mafia is to enslave every nation under the yoke of banker’s debt-usury. Those nations which do not partake of the international debt-usury system, such as Iran, must be forced to comply or they will be eliminated. This is the “Domino Effect” of Mystery Babylon. The dominoes must fall to Babylon. While non-Jewish Americans fight and die in Iraq to make the world safe for the Synagogue of Satan, America gets to pay with money and blood, and take the blame, while the International Jew reaps the profits, all the while pretending to be the world’s self-proclaimed, self-worshipping “savior,” “God’s chosen people,” the International Jewish Kehilla.

To make matters even worse, religious zealots, namely, the Christian Zionists, cheer on the violence and madness, because they have been brainwashed into believing that “blessing the Jews” will result in blessings for America – this, in spite of the fact that America has been in a steady downward slide toward immorality, decadence and corruption, ever since Harry Truman was the first to “bless the Jews,” with his official recognition of the “Jewish State,” when the United Nations created the abomination of desolation in 1948. Of course, where religious fanaticism is concerned, it is useless to appeal to facts and reason. After sixty years of continually sliding down the slope of Zionist depravity, the deluded Christians still expect the Jews to “convert to Christ.” If it weren’t so tragic, it would be funny. Hundreds of thousands of Judeo-Christian pulpitbastards either beat the war drums or look the other way. This morally bankrupt priesthood, while enabling this gargantuan injustice against the goyim who stand in the way of Zionism, preach “peace and love” from the other side of their forked tongues – with a straight face, in fact. I guess hypocrisy does not recognize itself in the mirror. Like mindless zombies, the American people swallow the rubbish coming from their pulpits and “news” outlets, washing it down with trite slogans, such as “support our troops” – while the killing machine consumes its victims unimpeded. Our Founding Fathers, who warned us not to get involved in foreign wars, are turning in their graves. America, you inherited a Free Country; but you gave it away for mess of pottage. Esau has gotten his revenge over Jacob. (For an excellent expose detailing the decline of the “Christian” priesthood, please see the “Great American Pastor Disaster, by Des Griffin <http://www.midnight-emissary.com/pastordisaster.htm>)

The fact that the children of Esau would establish a temporary dominion over the children of Jacob was prophesied by Isaac, when Esau begged him to bless him just like he blessed Jacob. Here is the account:

“Esau said, have you but one blessing, my father? [Here is the insincere proto-Jew, shamelessly begging!] Bless me, even me also, O my father. And Esau lifted up his voice [the wailing Jew] and wept [as they still do today at the Wailing Wall, praying for the destruction of Jacob-Israel]. Then Isaac, his father answered him: Behold, away from the fatness of the earth shall your dwelling [since the Jews despise farming and the building trades] be, and away from the dew of heaven on high. By your sword shall you live [by promoting warfare between and among the other peoples of the earth], and you shall serve your brother [as advisors, moneylenders, consultants, doctors and lawyers]; but when you break loose, you shall break his yoke from your neck.” - Gen. 27:38-40, Revised Standard Version. The KJV does NOT contain the words “away from,” a fact which makes this passage more difficult to understand.

It is a historical fact that the Canaanite, Edomite Jews have never been an agricultural people, as Anglo-Saxon Israel has been. Rather, the Jews have always made their livings by seeking non-Jewish customers for their goods and services, since there never have been enough Jews to constitute a major market. Thus, they have served the Jacob-Israel people, as this prophecy dictates. Unlike True Israel, Jewry has never engaged in farming. It is not part of their culture today, nor has it ever been, because the Jewish people were never, are not now, and never will be Israel. They are impostors, and this prophecy by Isaac is simply more proof that they are not Israel. Farming is a foreign subject for Jews, as is carpentry! But the Bible clearly says that True Israel is an agricultural people! (Gen. 27:28; Deut. 8:7,9; 28:11; 33:13,14,28; Isa. 35:1-2 {“The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them.”}; 43:19; 58:11,12.) Historically, the Jews have never engaged in farming; and a Jew would simply be lost out in the wilderness. Jews do not possess the practical skills of manual labor. The Jews look down their noses at these trades, because such positions are considered by them to be menial and even degrading. A typical Jew does not know what it means to hold a hammer or a saw in his hands, let alone use it. It has always been the Anglo-Saxons, who have built civilizations with these trades. We are the “builder race.” The Jews are most happy to let others do the manual labor. As one Jew said, “I write checks for that sort of thing.” They prefer positions (education, finance, journalism, media, law, religion, etc.) that give them power OVER US within our own societies, always seeking the advantage over us. The Jews have always exploited and destroyed civilizations. They don’t know what it means to build a civilization. Anglo-Saxon farmers have literally fed the world. The “holy” book of the rabbis, the Talmud, says, “No occupation is inferior to that of agricultural labor.” (Yeb 63a., Exh. 161.) And it is also a historical fact that, until the Twentieth Century, the children of Edom have served the children of Jacob in these various professions, since the Jews have always been residents in OUR NATIONS, never having had a nation of their own, until the creation of the abomination of desolation on May 15, 1948. The Rothschild United Nations Organization decreed the Jewish State into existence on that date, breaking Jacob’s yoke off of Esau’s neck, in complete fulfillment of the prophecy of Isaac. By exploiting international finance (capitalism), revolutionary movements (communism), as well as hoaxocaust propaganda and White Guilt, the International Jew has turned the tables on Jacob; and we are today serving Esau, to our great detriment. Esau is indeed getting even with his “brother,” Jacob-Israel. But Esau’s ascendancy will end on the Judgment Day. Of this, we have Yahweh’s personal guarantee. (Zech. 14:21.)

White Christendom must realize this most important fact, namely, that the Jewish people have always been strangers among us; and they have never considered themselves to be our brothers, always preferring to live among their own people while taking advantage of our society. The fact that they ALWAYS REFUSE TO ASSIMILATE INTO OUR NATIONS is a matter of unimpeachable recorded history. Listen to this warning from the Book of Deuteronomy:

“The stranger that is among you shall climb above you up on high, and thou shalt come down very low. He shall lend to thee, and thou shalt not lend to him: he shall be the head, and thou shalt be the tail.” - Deut. 28:43-44.

Yahweh Himself told the prophet Ezekiel to record these prophetic words for our benefit:

“Therefore, thus saith Yahweh Elohim, Now I will bring again the CAPTIVITY OF JACOB and have mercy upon the WHOLE HOUSE OF ISRAEL, and will be jealous for my holy name; after that they have borne their shame, and all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against me, when they dwelt safely in their land, and none made them afraid.” - Ezek. 39:25-26.

To those who falsely believe that the Jews are Israel, such prophecies are completely indecipherable. It is the Jews who control the national banks of this world, even though True Israel has built the nations and literally built the structures where these banks today operate. Traitors of our own race and religion have cooperated with Satan in bringing about our current enslavement. Indeed, the alien (Jewry) that dwells among us has become the head, and we (White Christendom) have become the tail. These Biblical prophecies prove that the Jews cannot be Israel. In an historic twist of fate, it is the Jews who are the slavemasters, who have brought about True Israel’s global enslavement to debt-usury economics (Mystery Babylon). Anglo-Saxon Israel has become the debt-slave of the Overpresence, the International Banking Mafia of Jewry. Nor can the Jews say that they have ever dwelt safely in the Abomination State. Nor do the Jews teach that they have any shame to bear. Their very public posture is that the Jews are innocent of any and all wrongdoing. Contrary to the Word of God concerning Israel’s guilt and shame, they say, “WE ARE THE INNOCENT VICTIMS OF PERSECUTION.” They openly and often teach that it is we Christians who are to blame for the hoaxocaust, thus instilling within our people a guilt complex, which is of utterly fictitious origin. Yet we bear this shame as well!!!! The Jews bear no guilt or shame; and they will not admit to having done anything wrong, past, present, or future. This disingenuous posturing is transparent to those who have eyes that see and ears that hear; and it should be proof enough that they are impostors, who have usurped both the name and inheritance of True Israel.

Those of us who have been sounding the warning about the madness, stupidity and monstrous evil of the world’s current pro-Zionist policy are labeled “extremists,” “racists,” and “anti-Semites.” There is no reasoning with madmen, fools and tyrants. A fool cannot see his own foolishness until his face is rubbed in the dirt. Madness walks the streets, while sanity is condemned to a jail cell. Tyranny reigns, and the sheeple imagine their new form of slavery to be “democracy.”

Serpents and Dragons

From the above collection of end time studies, it is reasonable to conclude that there is an astronomical component to the ancient mythology surrounding serpents, dragons, crosses, the sun, the moon, and other objects in the sky. Not all of these objects are as obvious as the sun and the moon. It seems as though the symbolism is pointing to constellations, meridians, and cosmic intersection points, all of which would have required very sophisticated knowledge of astronomy.

Modern science does not wish to grant prehistoric man any form of highly advanced civilization, but it is becoming increasingly clear that modern science is wrong about the ancient past. As I argued in “Enmity, Part 2,” I believe that the ancient civilization of Atlantis was highly advanced technologically. It was a colonial civilization led by the familiar “bearded White men.” But disaster struck around 10,500 BC. An asteroid struck Atlantis and drove it under the Atlantic Ocean. Nearly all traces of Atlantean technology, except for its great stone monuments, were destroyed by this global catastrophe, which forced the surviving Atlanteans to flee in two directions: west to Central and South America, and east into the Mediterranean Basin. [http://www.anglo-saxonisrael.com/newsletter/2008_1_7.php]

Just as comets and meteors are associated with fire, so are many of the related myths of the ancient world. Rather than being non-existent mythological creatures, the dragons and serpents of mythology are references to real events that happened in the sky, such as comets, asteroids and solar flares ("fire-breathing dragons"). Their true meaning has been lost over millennia of time, but their significance is being rediscovered, interestingly enough, by modern bearded White men, who are the only ones tapping into this fascinating legacy of stone monuments, astronomical calendars, and ancient legends. I think that, in underestimating the level of civilization of the ancient world, modern analysts have tended to equate mythology with superstition. This is a mistake. The reality is that mythological tradition is a preserved record of nations and kings at war before, during and after the Judgment of Atlantis and the natural cataclysms that occurred along with these wars. Properly understood, these ancient myths not only tell the story of ancient conflict and destruction, they also provide us with a warning of a judgment yet to come. Since we have failed to learn from history, we are doomed to repeat it, one last time.

Don't forget, war is not just an attack upon enemy soldiers and populations. War is an attack upon nature itself. Wars do tremendous damage to the ecology. Those who promote war are guilty, not only of genocide, but of terricide. We are supposed to replenish the earth, not destroy it. Interestingly enough, those who are most guilty of genocide and terricide are also guilty of Deicide. How long will duped "Christians" follow the anti-Christ into perdition?

The Seven Times Prophecy

Christians must understand how America, not the Jewish State, is the fulfillment of the prophecy of the "regathering of the Twelve Tribes."

If the disciples had the key to understanding prophetic calculation, of determining the length of 'seven times punishment' (as mentioned in Leviticus 26: 18, 21, 24 and 28), then they wouldn't have asked Jesus in Acts 1:6, "Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the Kingdom of Israel?" The key is found in Revelation. Most judeo-Christian students of the Bible are unaware of the 2,520 year cycle and its importance in Bible prophecy. However, most know about the 1,260 day cycle mentioned in Revelation 11:3 and 12:6 and verse 14, where it's called a time, and times and half a time. 1,260 is half of 2,520. A prophetic year is 360 days, because it's halfway between a solar year (365 days) and a lunar year (354 days). 3 1/2 prophetic years is thus 1,260 days and a full seven year cycle is 2,520 days. In long term prophecy, the days are years. We get the confirmation of this conversion in Numbers 14:34, "after the number of the days in which ye searched the land ... each day for a year, shall ye bear your iniquities" and in Ezekiel 4:6, "and thou shalt bear the iniquity ... I have appointed thee each day for a year."

Daniel 12:7 repeats the expression 'a time, times and an half'. Although he does not mention 1,260 specifically, it is generally accepted that a 'time' refers to 360 days or years. Therefore, 'times' would be a doubling, or 720, and 'half a time' would be 180. Add them up: 360+720+180 and you get 1,260. This calculation verifies that a 'time' is indeed 360 years. So, 'seven times' is seven multiplied by 360, which equals 2,520. 'Seven times' is mentioned seven times as such in the Bible, and remarkably the '3 1/2 times' is also referred to seven times. Additional proof that these periods of time are synonymous is found in Revelation 3:2 and 13:5, where it is 42 months (i.e. 1,260).

Somebody may say, "So what?? What does all this prove? What do these numbers have to do with America?"

Well, I would ask the question, "What is the greatest Christian nation that has ever existed?" And if you're honest, you'd have to admit that it's the USA. And then I would ask, "Do you really think that God would not mention such a nation in the Bible, not by name, but by description; by its fruits; like a fingerprint that would identify only one person?" We are talking about God's people Israel. In Leviticus 26:18, 21, 24 and 28, God promised to punish these Israelites 'seven times', or as we now know, prophetically speaking, a long period of time for correction being 2,520 years. God consistently deals with His people during times of judgment, with the idea of restoration and cleansing at the end of that time.

Divine predestination, which dovetails with prophetic synchronization, relocates Israel after her fall, captivity and dispersion; never to return to Palestine. Confirmed in II Samuel 7:10, we read: "Moreover I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more; neither shall the children of wickedness afflict them anymore, as beforetime." Because of their national sins, God would drive them out and into a new land. If you look at some good biblical maps, you'll get an idea of the migratory routes that our ancestors took when they left Assyria (modern Syria and Turkey) and traveled north and west. John 7:35 refers to them as 'the dispersed', and Jesus knew where the lost sheep of Israel were and commanded His disciples to go to them. What followed was the Christianization of Europe. Israel would occupy Isles or islands, and coastlines, wilderness and uncultivated land their fathers never knew. God was to scatter and sift them among nations, and then would regather the twelve tribes and again, give them a land to possess in the Kingdom Age. It would not be in the old Jerusalem; thus it would be a prophetic new Jerusalem.

The name Hebrew means colonizer, and we can see through history who has colonized the world. Jews cannot fulfill this fingerprint of Israel, as they only moved into countries once they were developed, and usually fleeing from countries they've been expelled from, which had fallen into decadence under their influence. The Jew has never had their own nation until 1948, and that merely being a welfare state subsidized by Christian countries like the US, Britain and Germany. Much false prophecy has been churned out because of the mischief of so-called rabbinical scholars. Well, the 'seven times punishment' is an irrefutable prophecy that will knock your socks off (or, in their case, their little beanie caps) of which they cannot argue its undeniable simplicity.

Let's get to the punch line! The conquest of the ten-tribed northern house of Israel took about 25 years to complete. The logistics were monumental, as some two million people were transported hundreds of miles away from their homeland. As near as can be determined through archaeology, the historical record and the Bible itself, the first campaign against Israel began in 745 BC on the east side of the Jordan River. Precisely 2,520 years from 745 BC is the final date where the 'seven times punishment' expires upon the nation of Israel. On this date, a nation was born in a day, just as Isaiah 66:7-9 had prophesied, which I think also corresponds to Revelation 12, when it speaks of a woman travailing in birth, in pain to deliver, bringing forth a man child. This was speaking of Israel becoming a new nation. Verse 8 in the Ferrar Fenton says, "Who has heard such a thing? Who has seen it like that? For the earth to produce in a day! In a moment a nation be born?" And if I can paraphrase God in verse 9, He is saying "should I restrain this birth which I have produced?" This glorious moment in history; the conclusion of the chastisement upon God's Israel people and the restoration of their birthright blessings was none other than July 4, 1776.

- Seven Times Punishment, by Pastor Mark Downey
{<http://www.kinsmanredeemer.com/SevenTimesPunishmentText.htm> }

In 745 B., Tiglath-Pileser, the king of ASSYRIA, began the first invasion against Israel in the reign of Menahem (2 Ki.15:19-20). In this year, the Assyrians captured and deported half the Tribe of Manasseh, the half which lived on the eastern side of the Jordan River. This event began the process of deporting the ten northern tribes away from Palestine, who were then resettled in northern Media, just south of the Caucasus Mountain Range. From there, they eventually migrated through these mountains into Europe and became known as the Caucasian People. Putnam's Dictionary Of Events, copyright 1927, page 6, states, "745, Accession of Tiglath-pileser III of Assyria, who wages war against Chaldea, Syria, and the kingdom of Israel." (Tiglath-Pileser is called "Pul" in the Bible -- 2 Kings 15:19; 1 Chr.5:26). As Pastor Downey explained, from 745 B.. we add 2520 YEARS (Seven Times) to get 1775 plus one (compensating for the mathematical fact that there is no year "zero") is 1776 A.D., the very year the American Declaration of Independence was signed.

There is simply no doubt that the nation called America is the Regathering of the Twelve Tribes of Israel, as major representations of all twelve tribes have long since migrated here from the European Dispersion. Interestingly, this migration started on another Dec. 21. On Dec. 21, 1620, the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock. This may only be a coincidence, but, later on, we'll see that there is an unexpected relationship between Dec. 21 and the Hebrew Solar Calendar.

The China Card

America is where White Christendom will make its last stand against the 8th Beast, Mystery Babylon. There will be one more world conflict, as the Beast means to destroy True Israel, White Christendom. Since the International Jew controls international economics, the Rothschild New World Order is staging the collapse of America's economy in order to provoke us into the Battle of Armageddon. The Jew World Order will give America a final ultimatum: Either you surrender your precious Constitutional Republic to our world economy or we will provoke China against you, militarily.

The intellectuals of the planet are being brainwashed to accept the United Nations as the world's last and only "hope for world peace." The machinery of this world government has been in the process of formation ever since the House of Rothschild hijacked the Congress of Vienna in 1815, right after the Napoleonic Wars. The Rothschilds saw this Congress as an excellent opportunity to establish a One World Government under their economic control. That war-mongering family has not ceased to provoke and stage international conflict since that time. The aim of this satanic family has always been to destroy White Christendom. And the United Nations/New World Order is the propaganda vehicle by which the Left has been herded into accepting One World Government. At the same time, the Rothschilds and their Talmudic rabbis have been brainwashing the Christian Right to accept the proposition that Christianity "must support the State of Israel." But this Jewsrail State was created by the Jewnited Nations in 1948. Anyone who does not understand that the Jews are manipulating both Right and Left does not comprehend the power of the 8th Beast.

Even now, the International Banking Mafia is arming China for the eventual ultimatum that will be delivered, not only to America, but to the entire world: "Join us or be thrown into another World War." This is the Orwellian nightmare that awaits the planet. The Jews have the power to do this, because they have been both secretly and openly providing China with military technology for over thirty years, for a profit. The United Nations is nothing but an Investment Club for the International Corporations. It greases the skids for quick and easy profits. It facilitates this by having established "International law," which circumvents and ignores national laws. These national laws have been a hindrance to profits, as nations have always had an interest in protecting their environments, working class, society, culture, health, etc. This is why the international corporations pursue trade with communist countries, such as Red China, in order to exploit China's slave labor pool. China also has no pollution control laws, so the internationalists profit from slave labor and the lack of having to waste money on pollution control. Having given Red China "most favored nation" status since the 1970's, the globalists have systematically de-industrialized the United States. This policy has been ruthlessly implemented in order to deprive Americans of their jobs. As the globalists moved their industrial operations to Third World countries, Americans have been systematically impoverished. The Iraq War is a perfect example of this policy, which is enriching China while bankrupting America through inflation. The Jews who run the Federal Reserve Bank are America's worst enemies, but the American people are not being told this by the Jew-controlled press.

When the internationalists began this de-industrialization of America in the 1970's, the globalists promised, on talk show after talk show, that globalization will be "good for America's economy." The American public swallowed this lie while they watched their jobs disappear. Both the Republicans and Democrats supported this sell-out of America's industrial base. The only ones who sounded the alarm were people such as Willis Carto's Liberty Lobby, the John Birch Society, the Christian Identity Movement, anti-IRS protesters, and other Constitutionalists and "radical right extremists," who were marginalized by the Kept Press. Now, the fruit of their policy is staring us in the face. America cannot produce its own military hardware, as that is now being manufactured in China!!! We are being set up for a major fall. While China's military capacity grows at an alarming rate, America's industrial capacity declines to almost nothing.

As the international investment crowd continue to allow America's economy to collapse, they expect to profit from the staged warfare between Islam and the West, thus beating both into submission. This staged war is being financed by fiat money. This is why the Federal Reserve Note is declining so precipitously. As the "dollar" hyperinflates, America's economy will grind to a halt. The ultimatum will be this: Submit to the New World Order of Judeo-Communism (as the proposed "solution" to the world's economic problems) or we will sic China's military on you stupid goyim. Of course, the International Jew will not put it so bluntly; but America and China are slowly being maneuvered into this position. China will have no choice but to comply because, without America as a thriving market, China will no longer be able to sell the goods it produces. Keeping their own people busy producing goods is the only way that Red China can placate their restless masses with the skimpy paychecks they now receive. With the collapse of America's economy, irreversible unemployment will come to China. China's regime will then blame America for China's problems and will use this as the excuse to invade America. (This is all contained in the Gog chapters of Ezekiel 38 and 39, plus Rev. 20.) China's military-industrial complex is quite capable of attempting this, thanks to Judeo-Capitalist traitors here in America. {Please see my article entitled "Who Is Gog?" for a thorough prophetic analysis of what will happen in the near future: http://www.anglo-saxonisrael.com/newsletter/2006_11_16.php }

When the International Banking Mafia plays the China Card, the planet will erupt into the Third World War. The irony is that, once this war erupts, the International Jew, who created the Chinese monster, will also be destroyed by this same monster, because as this war progresses, paper money will become completely worthless, as nation after nation will be consumed by chaos. With a planet full of refugees, the control of markets via Jewish fiat money will evaporate, because there will no longer be any markets to control. The reign of the House of Rothschild will come to end, having been destroyed by its own greed and evil machinations.

The Jewsraeli State is NOT True Israel

One of the more fascinating elements of Bible prophecy is the capture of the City of Jerusalem by the British at the end of World War I. It is prophetic fact that the City of Jerusalem was liberated, not by the Jews, but by the Israelite nation of Great Britain in 1917. This was accomplished by General Allenby of the British Army. And this feat was prophesied by two distinct prophecies, one Biblical, the other Islamic.

Here is an account of the Islamic prophecy:

Twelve hundred years ago the Muslim scholars were aware of the ancient Jewish [sic, Judahite] prophecy of the coming Hebrew Messiah - who would rule the world after entering the Temple

Mount through the Eastern Gate - and in hopes of preventing the Messiah from fulfilling prophecy they sealed the gate. Ironically by sealing the gate they were fulfilling prophecy. During the reign of Suleyman the Magnificent (1520-1566), they rebuilt the gatehouse and the walls of the Eastern gate as it is seen today. In their religion walking through a graveyard would defile a priest or holy man. To prevent this prophecy of restoring Israel from coming true, they built a large graveyard in front of the Eastern Gate, hoping this would prevent the Messiah from walking through the gate and fulfilling the prophecies. To be doubly sure to prevent the Messiah from entering the gate, the Arabs placed the graves of several children on the ground only inches from the huge foundation stones of the gate.

Twice this century an attempt to open the Eastern Gate had failed. First, on December 9, 1917 the Grand Muffti, the Arab leader of Jerusalem, decided to open the gate. He ordered the other gates to Jerusalem sealed to stop the approaching allied Army led by British General Allenby. Since he needed one gate open, he ordered his workers to open the sealed Eastern Gate. As they began their work, General Allenby had his biplanes fly over Jerusalem dropping leaflets asking the Arabs to "Flee Jerusalem." The Muslims had a prophecy, stating, they would never loose the holy city, until they were asked to leave by a prophet of Allah. [This prophecy dates back to the Tenth Century Muslim poet, Ibn Khasri. In Arabic, "God's Prophet" is "Allah-Nebi." Khasri's prophecy even stated that Allah-Nebi would enter the city of Jerusalem on foot, exactly as General Allenby did. "Eli] When the Arabs saw General Allenby's name on the leaflet, they interpreted it as meaning Allah's prophet [Allah-Nebi], then they fled the city without a shot being fired.

{Source: http://www.homeworship101.com/bb-c11_conquering_messiah.htm This website has a detailed account of General Allenby's career and role as liberator of Jerusalem. Britain and America are today led by the House of Joseph (Ephraim and Mannaseh), hence, Jerusalem was liberated by Israelites of the tribe of Joseph, not by the Jews. The account is infected by the false association of the Jewish people with Israel. Keep this in mind and the account will make more sense: http://www.psalmist.biz/liberation_of_jerusalem.htm }

The similarity of "Allenby" to "Allah-Nebi" is uncanny!!!! What an amazing fulfillment of prophecy! The Arab prophecy predicted the name and the manner of the fulfillment, while the Bible predicted the time. The Biblical prophecy of the liberation of the city of Jerusalem is contained in this detailed analysis by Dr. Stephen Jones. It puts the difference between True JerUSAlem and the counterfeit Jewsraeli/AshkeNAZI State into perspective:

God revealed the dream to Daniel, who then told it to the king and gave its explanation. Daniel 2:31-35 is the dream:

31 You, O king, were looking and behold, there was a single great statue; that statue which was large and of extraordinary splendor, was standing in front of you, and its appearance was awesome. 32 The head of that statue was made of fine gold, its breast and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of bronze, 33 its legs of iron, its feet partly of iron and partly of clay. 34 You continued looking until a stone was cut out without hands, and it struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay, and crushed them. 35 Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold were crushed all at the same time, and became like chaff from the summer threshing floors; and the wind carried them away so that not a trace of them was found. But the stone that struck the statue became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

The interpretation of the dream was that the head of gold was Babylon. The arms of silver, belly of bronze, legs of iron, and feet of iron and clay were successive kingdoms that would arise after Babylon. In other words, King Nebuchadnezzar's dream prophesied of a succession of empires. This Babylonian succession of empires was fulfilled in this way: Medo-Persia formed the two arms of silver; Greece was the belly of bronze; Rome was the legs of iron. As for the feet of iron and clay, the iron part was the religious-political power that assumed power after the fall of the Roman Empire--the Church of Rome.

These "feet" were made of a mixture of iron and clay because the Roman Church was not the sole empire that would control the old land of Judea (Palestine). Throughout the years, it was conquered by the Muslims in the 7th century, but control passed back and forth during the time of the Crusades. Thus, the iron represents the control of Rome, while the clay represents the times when it was controlled by Muslim forces.

In 1917 control over Palestine was passed to the British, after General Allenby took Jerusalem from the collapsing Ottoman Empire toward the end of World War One. This took place precisely at the end of Babylon's 2,520 years that covered the full extent of the time of the Babylonian succession of empires. $2,520 = 360 \times 7$ and is known as "seven times" in prophecy. In 1917 a new idea was introduced into the equation. The Balfour Declaration set forth the goal of the British government to allow Palestine to become a Jewish homeland, a place of refuge, where Jews could immigrate, purchase land, and live as citizens among the native Palestinian population in a new British colony.

Thirty years later, however, after another horrendous war, and after enduring Muslim violent hostility and Jewish terrorism in the 1940's under Menachem Begin and Yitzhak Shamir, the British pulled out and gave the question of its future into the hands of the United Nations, which had just been formed. On Nov. 29, 1947 they voted to partition the land into two nations: one Jewish, and one Palestinian. The United Nations obviously did not resolve the issue, and so we have inherited the problem to this day. But getting back to our topic at hand, I want to show how this ties in with the concept of the Debt Note.

The only way to pay off this Debt Note that is owed to God is to give Him the fruits of His labor--the fruits of the Kingdom. God planted Israel in Canaan for the purpose of producing people who were in the image of God. In effect, He wanted to produce children who were like Him. It is what we know today as the "Sons of God." This divine purpose did not begin with the Canaan plantation. It was expressed at the beginning in Genesis 1:27, "And God created man in His own image, in the image of God He created them; male and female He created them." The only way anyone can actually step forward and pay the Debt Note is to become what God intended man to become from the beginning. This was the purpose of the coming of Jesus Christ, and it is why He is called the "Son of God." The book of Hebrews 1:3-5 says,

3 And He is the radiance of His glory and the exact representation of His nature, and upholds all things by the word of His power. When He had made purification of sins, He sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high; 4 having become as much better than the angels, as He has inherited a more excellent name than they. 5 For to which of the angels did He ever say, "Thou art My Son; today I have begotten thee?" And again, "I will be a Father to Him, and He shall be a Son to Me?"

Israel as a whole was called and "chosen" to bring forth the Son; not only Jesus Christ, the Son of God, but also the manifested Sons of God (Rom. 8:19). Subdividing this calling into its component parts (according to 1 Chron. 5:1, 2), Judah was given the genealogical calling to bring forth Jesus Christ, the King, and the Son of God. Joseph's son, Ephraim, was given the name "Israel" (Gen. 48:16) and its calling to bring forth the Sons of God. (Thus, "Joseph is a fruitful bough," in Gen. 49:22. The Hebrew word is BEN, "a branch, or a son."). Judah did bring forth Jesus Christ, but His main rival, King Herod, attempted to kill Him shortly after His birth. Years later, the leaders rejected Him again and this time crucified Him. Yet this was necessary in order for true Israel to bring forth the Sons of God. As King of Judah, Jesus paid the law's Debt Note for the sin of the world (1 John 2:2), in order that He might bring forth the Sons of God as King of Israel.

The Debt Note Given to Edom

The divine law prophesied that Christ was to come twice in order to accomplish His purpose. The law regarding leprosy in Lev. 14 said that it took TWO doves to cleanse lepers. The animals or birds sacrificed in the law were prophetic of Jesus Christ, who gave His life as a Sacrifice on the Cross. Leprosy itself is a biblical symbol of mortality, because leprosy was a slow death. Its cure, then, is immortality. The first dove was to be killed, and the second dove was to be dipped in the blood of the first dove and set free into an open field. The first dove therefore prophesied of Jesus Christ's death, while the second dove speaks of His second coming. The second dove was to be let loose into the open FIELD, and Jesus said in Matt. 13:38, "the field is the world." Hence, He must come into the world a second time, but not to die again.

We read in Rev. 19:13 that in His second coming, "He is clothed with a robe dipped in blood." This is a reference to Lev. 14:7, where the second dove was dipped in the blood of the first dove. It identifies the second dove with the first dove and bases the second work of Christ upon the first.

It also identifies Jesus' second coming, not with Judah, but with Joseph--the only man in the Bible whose robe was dipped in blood (Gen. 37:31). Jesus came the first time through the line of Judah (specifically of the lineage of King David) in order that He could lawfully be the King. But He must come as "Joseph" in order to receive His birthright, for as 1 Chron. 5:2 says, "the birthright belonged to Joseph." That is why his robe has been dipped in blood in Rev. 19:13. Once we understand these basic things of the law, we can build upon this knowledge. To Judah was given the Throne; to Joseph was given the Birthright and the name of Israel. When Jesus came the first time, His throne was usurped even as Absalom usurped the throne from his father, David. It was done with the help of Ahithophel (2 Samuel 15:12), even as Jesus' throne was usurped by the religious leaders of Judah with the help of Judas.

In modern times, as we approach the time of the second coming of Christ, we see the same type of conflict repeating itself. But this time the conflict is not about the Throne, but about the Birthright of Joseph. In 1948 the Jews usurped the Birthright of Joseph with the help of the Church--the modern Judas. The Jews by their own admission are not descendants of Joseph, and therefore have no legal right to claim the birthright name (Israel) given to Joseph's sons. Yet they did so in 1948. They could have named their nation "Judah," as some of them actually suggested, but they decided upon "Israel" in order to trick the Christians into thinking they were the fulfillment of Bible prophecy regarding the restoration of Israel.

And so, it is deja vu all over again. The treachery is now complete. Both the Throne of Judah and the Birthright of Joseph were usurped unlawfully, each with the help of a "Judas." Judas was Jesus' disciple and "friend" who betrayed Him. The Church is also Jesus' disciple and "friend" who betrayed Him. And so, even as Judas was replaced, so also will the Church be replaced by the overcomers. "His office let another man take," as we read in Acts 1:20 (quoted also from Psalm 109:8, David's reference to Ahithophel).

Matthew 21:43 says,

43 Therefore I say to you (Jews), the Kingdom of God will be taken away from you, and be given to a nation producing the fruit of it.

Likewise, earlier in that same chapter Jesus did something that sheds much light on this. Matthew 21:18, 19 says,

18 Now in the morning, when He returned to the city [Jerusalem], He became hungry. 19 And seeing a lone fig tree [the national symbol of Judah], He came to it, and found nothing on it except leaves only; and He said to it: “NO LONGER SHALL THERE EVER BE ANY FRUIT FROM YOU.” And at once the fig tree withered.

A few chapters later, Jesus added to this prophecy in Matthew 24:32, 33, saying, 32 Now learn the parable from the fig tree: when its branch has already become tender, and PUTS FORTH ITS LEAVES, you know that summer is near; 33 even so you too, when you see all these things, recognize that He is near, right at the door.

So, we can see that the Jews, who are not Israel at all but Esau/Edom and Ashkenaz/Khazarians from the land of Gog and Magog, are making their last ditch effort to steal Jacob’s inheritance, as payback for Jacob’s impersonation of him before Isaac. This is in fulfillment of Isaac’s prophecy at Gen. 27:37-40: And the Jews are doing this by turning the tables on Jacob, IMPERSONATING ISRAEL. (Rev. 2:9, 3:9, 12:9.)

*“Then Isaac answered to Esau, Behold, I have made him [Jacob] thy lord, and all his brethren have I made his servants: and with wheat and wine have I furnished him, and unto thee now, what shall I do, my son? Then Esau said unto his father, Hast thou but one blessing my father? Bless me, even me also, my father! And Esau lifted up his voice and wept.” ~ Revised English Version. [Understand here that Esau had already relinquished his right to the birthright when he DESPISED (Gen. 25:34) it by selling it to Jacob. This act proved his unworthiness!] Then Isaac his father answered him, and said unto him, Behold away from the fatness of the earth shall your dwelling be, and away from the dew of heaven. [Away from the fatness of the earth, since Jews despise both farming and country life in favor of the cosmopolitan city life. Away from the dew of heaven because they reject God’s Law while hypocritically pretending to follow it and teach it!] By your sword shall you live [Jews have financed and engaged in warfare from time immemorial], and you shall serve your brother [The Jews have spent most of history serving True Israel as advisors, moneylenders, scribes, physicians, lawyers, etc., actually seeking us out in order to take advantage of our prosperity!]; but when you break loose you shall break his yoke from off your neck.” - Revised Standard Version, which is much better than the KJV, which mistranslates the underscored verse by deleting the words “away from” in verse 39.*

The yoke was broken by Esau when the Jewish State, the abomination of desolation, was created by the Rothschild United Nations on May 15, 1948, setting up the final conflict between Esau and Jacob (described in the Gog chapters of Ezekiel 38 & 39), at which point the Synagogue of Satan makes war upon the White Christian nations. The current Iraq War is part of this conflict, which is being financed by the fiat money power of the Federal Reserve Bank. But this war is nothing but one in a long series of wars, since the Napoleonic Wars, by which the House of Rothschild (Mystery Babylon) causes White Christians to fight staged wars while Jewish banks profit. This conflict will not be resolved until the Judgment Day, which will be followed quickly by the Second Coming, as the satanic, Edomite/Khazar abomination will finally be vanquished by Jesus Christ Himself. This will be the Battle of Armageddon. The Rothschild-Zionist plan for the destruction of America assumes that America will lose this war. It also assumes that they can restore order after such chaos. Both assumptions are incorrect.

Yahweh’s Solar Calendar and the Female Gestation Cycle

One of the most astounding coincidences of the Hebrew Calendar is the apparent fact that the Feast Day Appointments of Yahweh’s Calendar correlate with the major developmental stages of the human fetus in the mother’s womb.

{Internet source, Seven Thunders Ministry: <http://www.seventhundersministry.com/> }

Seven Thunders is an Amerindian site devoted to practicing their own form of Christianity. Given the traditional Amerindian attunement to nature, it is only “natural” that an Amerindian Christian would notice the correlations between the life cycle of the fetus and Yahweh’s Calendar Appointments. Here is how this study opens:

“Just as Yahweh set up specific days for His feasts, there are also specific cycles of growth for a baby in its mother’s womb. It is fascinating to discover the parallels between His feasts days and the development of life in a mother’s womb. This study will attempt to demonstrate the amazing similarities, for in God all things have perfect timing!”

Here are the parallels, according to 7 Thunders Ministry:

Feast Day	Gestation Stage
Passover	Fertilization (formation of the zygote)
Unleavened Bread	Implantation of the Zygote in the Uterus Wall
First Fruits (Wave Sheaf)	Zygote Becomes an Embryo
Pentecost	Embryo Becomes a Fetus
Trumpets	Third Trimester Starts
Atonement	Baby Begins to Make Its Own Blood
Tabernacles	Viability

If this correlational table is indeed valid – which it appears to be – then the Biblical Appointments have a hidden significance never before suspected!

In the northern hemisphere, Yahweh’s Solar Calendar always starts with the Spring Equinox, when the daytime is equal to the nighttime and when life is renewed. Here is a link that shows that a woman’s fertility maximum is around Day 14 (Passover) after ovulation: http://www.craigmedical.com/ovulation_tests.htm Ovulation consists of the egg being released from the ovary into the uterus, where it begins to mature under the influence of the luteinizing hormone (LH). Without this preparation/maturation process, the female egg cannot be fertilized by the male sperm.

If we take the Spring Equinox as the beginning of the female fertility cycle, then, starting on the first full day after the Spring Equinox, we have the First Sabbath of the year. This First Sabbath (Day 1) thus symbolizes the beginning of ovulation, the release of the egg. Two weeks later is the egg’s most fertile time, the Day of Passover (Day 14). I suppose you could say that, if the egg is not fertilized, it is “passed over.” If fertilized, the egg becomes a zygote within 24 hours, containing the combined DNA of both parents. During the next seven days, the zygote must implant itself into the wall of the uterus, where it will be nourished for development and growth.

Passover is always the day before a Sabbath, so the next day (24 hours) is always the Sabbath of Unleavened Bread. This begins the 7-day period of the Feast of Unleavened Bread. In this context, “unleavened” means pure, unmixed and uncontaminated. Barring complications, the zygote will attach itself to the uterine wall and grow.

The day of First Fruits of barley (Day 16, also known as Wave Sheaf Day) represents the point where the Zygote’s outer membrane opens up and physically connects with the mother’s uterus, beginning the process of developing the umbilical cord. The umbilical cord provides the necessary exchange of bodily fluids, for the zygote to develop into an embryo. Forty-nine days later, Pentecost (Firstfruits of wheat) becomes the point where the embryo becomes recognizably human, with appendages, head, eyes, shoulders, etc., all taking shape. This represents the transition from embryo to fetus. The Feast of Trumpets (third trimester) represents the point where the fetus has all of its parts fully formed and functioning. The little human being needs now to fully develop and integrate those parts. Notably, its ears are capable of hearing (the trumpets) at this point. The sixth stage (Day of Atonement) is when the fetus starts producing its own blood, in preparation for the day when it will no longer have the mother's blood available for nutrition. The final stage before birth is the Viability Stage. The Feast of Tabernacles is also called the Feast of Booths, meaning living outside in tents. It represents the baby's ability to live outside of the womb.

Now, given this truly remarkable parallelism, I would like to carry it one step further. The human gestation period is approximately 9 months, or 270 days. ($9 * 30 = 270$. With the Solar Calendar of Enoch and Jubilees, we would add the three 91st Days of the three seasons. $270 + 3 = 273$ days.) If we begin this process on the First Sabbath after the Spring Equinox, say March 21 (ovulation), then the birth date of the baby would be December 21, the Winter Solstice!!!!

The Mayans considered the Great Rift to be the "Birth Canal" of the Milky Way Galaxy. The Great Rift Nebula will be in perfect position (surrounding the Sun/Galactic Center conjunction) on Dec. 21, 2012, in perfect position to "give birth" to a "new heaven and a new earth." Thus the Solar Calendar can be included among the various pointers that focus our attention on Dec. 21, 2012.

Fascinating, isn't it? The March, 2008 issue of America's Promise Newsletter also contains an article on this subject, by Mike Vincent.

(http://amprom.org/m_39.asp) Here is what Pastor Vincent has to say about the Feast of Tabernacles: "The Feast of Tabernacles follows on the 15th day of the seventh month. This is the day that the Israelites celebrated God's breathing the breath of life into Adam. Medical Fact: by the 15th day of the 7th month the child is capable of breathing air, he or she is a fully developed Tabernacle and can be born. However, to achieve maximum strength the child should continue to grow inside a mother's womb for another 70-80 days. It can thereafter be born and dedicated to God. The feast 80 days later is called the Feast of Dedication."

Solar Flare, 2012

Patrick Geryl, an astronomer who has been watching the sun spot cycles, has this to say about 2012:

In the book Earth under Fire I came upon the correct theory. More precisely, in the chapter entitled "Solar Storms and Geomagnetic Flips." The astronomer Paul La Violette writes "Field flips have been accomplished experimentally, by shooting large quantities of loaded particles on a strong bipolar magnet. These particles are then caught in the magnetic fields and cause a "ring-stream" in them. At a certain moment this stream speeds up to such an extent that the field of the magnet reverses completely."

In an equivalent scenario the field of the earth can reverse in just the same way. Astronomers know that the particles of a solar storm can compress the earth's magnetic field and temporarily speed up the power of the earth's field.

When the solar particles reach our planet, the electromagnetically-loaded particles will move in a spiral along the magnetic lines: from the magnetic north pole to the magnetic south pole and back. While passing this north-south axis, they will move into the direction of the equator. When they arrive there, they will join into a super powerful "ring current."

This "ring current" generates an intense magnetic field that is opposite to the earth's magnetic field. In order to overpower the earth's magnetic field you need a solar flame a hundred times more forceful than the biggest one we have ever seen. At the reversal of the magnetic field of the sun this degree will certainly be reached.

From here on, my point of view deviates from that expressed by Paul La Violette. Not only will the poles reverse, but also the earth will begin to rotate in the opposite direction! This can only occur when the "ring current" pushes the inner core of the earth in the opposite direction.

Everybody knows that when you change the poles of an electric motor, it will start turning the other way. The same holds for the interior of the earth. When an external short circuit takes place, the core cannot do otherwise but start turning in the opposite direction!

“Then there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars, and upon the earth trouble among the nations, with perplexity: the seas and the waters shall roar.” - Luke 21:25, Geneva Bible.

Rev. 16, which deals with the seven last plagues before the Judgment Day, tells us this:

“The fourth angel poured his bowl on the sun, and it was allowed to scorch men with fire; men were scorched by the fierce heat, and they cursed the name of God who had power over these plagues, and they did not repent and give him glory.” - Rev. 16:8-9, RSV.

I believe that the “heavens being on fire,” spoken of by Peter the Prophet (2 Peter 3:12), can be taken quite literally. It is confirmed by Malachi:

“For behold, the day cometh that shall burn as an oven, and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble, and the day that cometh shall burn them up, sayeth Yahweh of hosts, and shall leave them neither root nor branch. But unto you that fear my name shall the sun [Son] of righteousness arise, and health shall be under his wings, and ye shall go forth and grow up as fat calves; Remember the Law of Moses my servant, which I commanded unto him in Horeb for all Israel with the statutes and judgments.” - Mal. 4:1-4. (Geneva Bible)

Alpha and Omega

http://www.watchmanbiblestudy.com/BibleStudies/BibleStudy_BiblicalAstronomy.htm :

*During the era of the great geographical discoveries, when the oceans were widely explored, there arose a need for a unified method of naming stars, the only navigational aids in the open seas. The German astronomer Johannes Bayer (1572-1625) introduced, in his 1603 stellar atlas Uranometria Nova, the practice of designating the brightest stars in the constellations by the letters of the Greek alphabet. Today it is not the only method of denoting stars, but, apart from the individual names given to the brightest stars, it is the most convenient one.*

Usually the brightest star in a constellation is designated alpha (♠), the first letter in the Greek alphabet, but this is not so in the case of the constellation Pisces. Here the star designated omega (♠), the last letter of the Greek alphabet, is slightly brighter than alpha and much brighter than the star beta (♠), the second letter. It is in fact the third brightest star, after eta (♠) and gamma (♠), among the approximately seventy-five stars in Pisces visible to the naked eye. The reason for this change from the normal way of designating stars in a constellation remains a puzzle. At this point, let me remind you of what the Lord Jesus says of himself in the book of Revelation: “I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last” (22:13; cf. 1:8,17; 2:8; 21:6). In the same chapter he refers to himself as “the bright and morning star” (v.16).

At present the sun is in Pisces at the time of the vernal (spring) equinox.² However, due to a slight wobbling of the earth on its axis, the position of the sun within the twelve constellations of the Zodiac gradually moves backwards over the years, the whole process being calculated as taking 26,000 years before it is back in the same position again.³ As there are twelve Zodiac constellations, this means that the sun remains in a particular constellation of the Zodiac at the time of the spring equinox for just over 2,000 years. The sun moved into the constellation of Pisces, the Fishes; “representative, as shown above, of the Lord Jesus Christ;” shortly before his birth, and is calculated to leave Pisces and enter Aquarius, the Water Carrier, in the next 100 years. The present age is therefore sometimes referred to as the Age of Pisces.

*We now need to consider the concept of the meridian. This is an imaginary line running from the horizon due north of an observer through the heavens to the horizon due south of an observer. The meridian at the vernal equinox is called the zero meridian, and it runs through the constellation of Pisces in which the sun is situated. At the time of the birth of Jesus Christ the nearest visible star in Pisces to the zero meridian would have been that designated alpha (♈). However, due to the slow movement of the sun through the Zodiac, mentioned above (the precession of the equinoxes), the nearest star in Pisces to the zero meridian, in fact the nearest of all the 1,800 brightest stars as listed in a star catalogue, is now that designated omega (♉). It is calculated that it will be exactly on the zero meridian early in 2012. [My comment: See HIStory, Our Future Studies and Global Warming and the Day of the Lord for confirming date studies from the Bible and current events.] It is surely significant that, in the constellation with a name that is particularly identified with the Lord Jesus, a star designated alpha by astronomers was closest to the zero meridian at the time of His birth, and a star designated omega is closest to the zero meridian at the time when we expect him to return. This is especially so when, as explained above, astronomers have departed from their normal convention and designated one of the brightest stars in the constellation omega.*

If we write Dec. 21, 2012 with numbers only, it becomes 12/21/2012. This could be taken as a binary code of ones and twos, with each 1 symbolizing the First Advent and each 2 symbolizing the Second Advent. If we add all the digits together, the result is 11 (two ones). When we reduce this to a single digit, the result is, again, 2! 1 = alpha star = First Advent. 2 = omega star = Second Advent. This could all be very coincidental. Then, again, it could have been planned that way!

America, the New JerUSAlem

Prophetic Jerusalem is not the same as the literal city of Jerusalem. The city of Jerusalem is still under Yahshua’s curse. “O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the Prophets, and stonest them that are sent to thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, as the hen gathered her brood under her wings, and ye would not. Behold, your house is left unto you desolate: and verily I tell you, ye shall not see me until the time come when ye shall say, ♪Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of Yahweh.” - Matt. 23:37, Luke 13:34.

Contrary to the prevailing delusion amongst Judeo-Christians, the Jews, who presently control the city of Jerusalem, will NEVER acknowledge Jesus as the Messiah, because they are NOT His sheep. The Jews are Edomites and Khazars, not Israelites, so, as explained by Stephen Jones above, they have NO BIBLICAL CLAIM to either the Old Jerusalem or the New Jerusalem. Their claim is, quite simply, fraudulent. Since the Jews are not Israelites, they are not His Sheep. They have rejected Him; and He returns the favor:

“Then came the Jews round about Him, and said unto Him, How long dost thou make us to doubt? If Thou be that Christ, tell us plainly. Jesus answered, I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do in My Father’s Name, they bear witness of Me. But ye believe not, FOR YE ARE NOT MY SHEEP.” - John 10:24-26.

Since the City of Jerusalem is currently under the control of the anti-Christ, no good can come of this fact. But, of course, the anti-Christ is a liar, whose lies are believed by practically the whole world (Rev. 12:9)! Amazing, isn't it, that anyone could seriously believe that those very same people, who plotted to murder Christ and who HAVE NEVER ACCEPTED HIM AS THE MESSIAH, could possibly be "God's chosen people"!!!!

Speaking of Gog's attack upon True Israel in the latter days, Ezekiel tells us:

"And thou shalt say, I will go up to the land of unwalled villages: I will go to them that are at rest and dwell in safety, which dwell all without walls, and have neither bars nor gates." - Ez. 38:11.

This one verse alone gives us three proofs that the New JerUSAlem is not the literal city of Jerusalem: 1.) The city of Jerusalem has always been, and still is today, a walled city. 2.) Never has the city of Jerusalem, under Jewish occupation, been at rest or in safety. The Jewish occupation of Jerusalem has been one of constant, unending, relentless violence and chaos, as daily reports from 1948 on attest. 3.) Jerusalem and Palestine have always been filled with bars and gates.

Only America qualifies as the "land of unwalled villages." The Jewish State is a fake. The sooner the Christian world wakes up to this mistaken association, the sooner the violence and injustice of that tyrannical regime will end.

"Therefore, thus saith Yahweh Elohim, Now will I bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have compassion upon the whole house of Israel, and will be jealous for mine holy Name." - Ez. 39:25.

It is True Israel that is in captivity once again, as today the international debt-usury system of Mystery Babylon, which is in the hands of Esau-Ashkenaz (Gog), has enslaved us. There is NO WAY that the Jewish people can be considered to be in captivity. They have all the money in the world; and it is THEY who control the fortunes of nations, via their Empire of Merchants.

Conclusion

"Then came the Pharisees and Sadducees, and did tempt Him, desiring Him to show a sign from heaven. But He answered, and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, fair weather, for the sky is red; And in the morning, ye say, Today shall be a tempest: for the sky is red and lowering. O hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky, and can ye not discern the signs of the times?"
~ Matt. 16:1-3, GB.

The signs of the times are piling up very high. It is very hard to ignore them! This survey of various prophecies, secular, Biblical and non-Christian, serves, I believe, as ample warning that we are indeed in the End Times. Whether or not Dec. 21, 2012 is D-day, we will have to wait to see. But current events clearly show that we are in the midst of a precipitous decline in civilization, a decline which shows no indication of being reversed, because those who are in power do not want it to be reversed. They are determined to have their World Empire, or go down in flames and ashes trying to complete it. Little do these children of Satan realize that all of their plans and deeds have been anticipated by Yahweh, as He is going to send Yahshua and Archangel Michael to cleanse this planet very soon.

"But by the same word the heavens and earth that now exist have been stored up for fire, being kept until the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men." - 2 Peter 3:7.

If the interpreters of the Mayan End Date and the Cross at Hende and other various sources cited herein are correct, then the period from 1992 to 2012, the last Katun of the Mayan

Calendar, is the season of the apocalypse, the crescendo leading to the Judgment Day, with the last 7 years being the “time of Jacob’s trouble,” the Great Tribulation. Interestingly, 9/11/2001 occurred near the middle of this season. When the American people finally realize that the Zionists staged that horrific attack on the Twin Towers in order to drum up sympathy for their homicidal aggressions against the Arab world (because Islam forbids usury, just as the Bible does) and against Christians as well, I would not want to be a Jew living in America “ or anywhere in the world, for that matter. The days of rage are just ahead. After the Wrath of the Awakened Saxon is vented on the Talmudic Jews and their pathetic shabez goy hirelings, namely, the televangelist warmongers, the media whores will be next in line for the wrath of the Anglo-Saxon. Their dupes, the Christian Zionists, deserve the same fate, but stupidity does not warrant the death penalty. Their fate will be shame and contempt. They will be allowed to live, so that they can long reflect upon their betrayal of Christian principles and Yahshua Himself. Instead of following Christ, they chose to bless His enemies and walk the path of the anti-Christ.

When the America of yesteryear was still a Christian nation, we were noble, generous and kind. Today, under the influence of Judeo-Zionism, America has become a dirty, imperialistic, callous brute. What an amazing transformation! It just shows you what the “love” of power and money (Mystery Babylon) can do to a once great and prosperous Christian nation.

Prepare for the Judgment Day

“Behold the storm of Yahweh! Wrath has gone forth, a whirling tempest; it will burst upon the head of the wicked. The anger of Yahweh will not turn back until he has executed and accomplished the intents of His mind. In the latter days you will understand it clearly.” “ Jer. 23:19-20 RSV.

“For Yahweh, your God, is a consuming fire, a jealous God.” “ Deut. 4:23.

“If any man’s work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. If any man’s work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.” - 1 Cor. 3:14-15.

All prophecy leads to this conclusion: that our planet must endure a trial by fire, so it is best to be prepared.

As for preparations, we need to get ready for this great and glorious day of the Lord, mentally, physically, and spiritually. Mentally: Expect increased social chaos. Do not be attached to material possessions. Be prepared to part with valuables. You may have to leave quickly, with only the clothes on your back. Remember what happened to Lot’s wife! “For as lightning cometh out of the East, and is seen into the West, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.” “ Matt. 24:27.

“He was destined before the foundation of the world but was made manifest at the end of the times for your sake. Through Him you have confidence in Yahweh, who raised Him from the dead and gave Him glory, so that your Faith and Hope are in Yahweh.” - 1 Peter 1:20-21, RSV.

Trust in the Holy Scriptures. They were written for the understanding of True Israel in these last days.

Physically: Store necessities (food, water, shelter) far away from big cities, where the violence will strike first and hardest. Be prepared to drop out of sight, preferably to a hidden place with like-minded patriots. As Jesus said, “Flee to the mountains.” Lacking mountains, be prepared to flee into the wilderness, or to a small town far away from any big city. The armies of the anti-Christ (Gog and Magog) will not bother with small groups of Israelites in the countryside until all of the cities are either secured or destroyed. That’s when the guerilla war between Yahweh's chosen and the invading army will occur. [George Washington's Vision at Valley Forge tells us how this guerilla war will go. If you are curious about this, please visit: <http://www.anglo-saxonisrael.com/washingtonsvision.php>]

"I saw heaven opened, and behold a White Horse; and He that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war." - Rev. 19:11.

Spiritually: Understand that this is the prophesied Judgment of the World, promised in Scripture. Pray to Yahshua (Jesus Christ) for guidance. We are instructed to "come out of" Babylon. Pray Psalm 91 for protection. Print out a copy and keep it with you. Prepare a sanctuary where you can ride out this storm with like-minded Israelites. Study the Scriptures daily. This is how you develop a "personal relationship with God." The closer you are to Yahweh and Yahshua, the closer they will be to you. If you keep the Commandments and call upon their Holy Names, you will be saved.

"For that time will arise which brings affliction; for it will come and pass by with quick vehemence, and it will be turbulent, coming in the heat of indignation. And it will come to pass in those days that all the inhabitants of the earth will be moved one against another, because they know not that my Judgment has drawn nigh...For there will not be found many wise at that time, and the intelligent will be but a few: moreover, even those who know will most of all be silent; And many will say at that time: Where hath the multitude of intelligence hidden itself, and whither hath the multitude of wisdom removed itself." - Baruch, 48:31-36.

The evidence that these are the "last days" is overwhelming, for there is no doubt that we are living at a time when all of these end-time prophecies are in effect:

- 1.) The Great Apostasy ("falling away") prophesied by Paul at II Thess. 2:3-12
- 2.) The Lukewarm Church of Laodicea. (Rev. 3:14-19.)
- 3.) The Time of the Eighth Beast of Mystery Babylon. (Rev. 17-19.)
- 4.) The Time of Increased Knowledge (Dan. 12:4), yet lacking Wisdom (Bar. 48:36).
- 5.) The Book of Daniel has been unsealed (correctly interpreted by Christian Identity Bible scholars) during the End Times.
- 6.) The Twelve Tribes have been regathered in America.
- 7.) The Anti-Christ (Talmudic Judaism) has been revealed (II Thes. 2:3).
- 8.) The many Caucasian People who are today remembering their Identity as God's Chosen People, Israel. (Ezekiel 39:7,22-29; Hosea 3:5.)
- 9.) Esau has broken Jacob's yoke from off his neck (Gen. 27:40) and Esau has enslaved Jacob one last time (Ezek. 39:25).
- 10.) The Christian Identity Movement is emerging as the prophesied Remnant (Elect) of the Twelve Tribes (144,000), those who "call upon the Name of Yahweh" (Rev. 22:4) and "Obey His Commandments" (Rev. 22:14).

[Here is a link providing more proof that we are in the End Times: <http://jahtruth.net/signs.htm>]

There has never been a time in history when all of these signs have been fulfilled, until now. We are the living fulfillment of these prophecies; and the Remnant is capable of understanding these prophecies and their correct interpretation. At the same time, the Judeo-Christian world is under the delusion that the Anti-Christ is yet due at some time in the future, not realizing that he is already here, having manifested in the form of their own religion. The non-Remnant have been led down the primrose path, wallowing in various delusions promoted by their own pulpitemasters (false priests) and by the Zionist-controlled media and entertainment industry. If ever there was a time when these end-time prophecies of the Bible have been fully in effect, the time is right now. The timeline of Biblical prophecy shows this to be the case.

“But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no not the angels of heaven, but my Father only. But as the days of Noah were, so likewise shall the coming of the Son of man be.” - Matt. 24:36-37.

We know that the days of Noah were full of great varieties of evil, especially that of fornication and race-mixing. If you do not see the similarities to today, then you need to take your Talmudically-correct blinders off. We are living in a time when only those with Biblical vision and knowledge will be able to understand what is happening. The Christian Israel Remnant must stand like a rock in the midst “the great and terrible Day of the Lord.” The rest of the world will be utterly mystified by the shaking of the foundations. No one has told them to beware of the quicksand of politico-religious deception. The false priests will finally be exposed as the hypocrites and flatterers that they really are; and the watchmen who sounded the alarm will be justified for their Faith in the Holy Scriptures.

Even though the verse says that we will not know the “day and hour,” it certainly appears that Dec. 21, 2012 is in the ball park. It might be the day before or the day after. As Jesus said, only the Father knows. It is Yahweh who has set in motion this Plan to redeem the world, and it will be His Hand that initiates the Final Act. The Watchman atop the watchtower must do his duty, so that no one can say, “There was no warning.”

“Surely the Lord God will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto His servants, the Prophets.” ~ Amos 3:7.

Although the Hebrew word, nabiy, has a primary meaning of “seer, prophet,” it also means, “one who is inspired.” I truly wish I could say that Yahweh has given me the ability to foresee the future, as the Biblical prophets did. But what they saw, they did not understand. Their job was to faithfully record their visions. We are now in a position to understand the prophecies that have been delivered to us. I have never been given such visions. But I think that it is just as important to take the Scriptures at their word, and compare them to the past and present, so as to discern the signs of the times, and to demonstrate that the prophecies can be understood. This is another way of “seeing.” The visions He gave to His Prophets were meant to be understood by this generation. I have been inspired to attempt this analysis of prophecy, a shout from atop the watchtower. The internet has become True Israel’s “watchtower.” By this means I am able to share my inspiration with you, my fellow Israelites. You are the ultimate judge of the value of this, my attempt at eschatology concerning 2012. Please share it with as many True Israelites as possible. I hope this instrument is of genuine value to you as a fellow Christian. I do not wish to be an alarmist or doomsayer. I am merely a realist looking at a world brim-full of delusion and deceit. It is better to be prepared, as Noah was. From now until the Day of Judgment, the catchphrase is “Proceed with caution” and “Come out of Babylon.”

“For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the whole face of the earth. Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.” ~ Luke 21:35-36.

Any would-be prophet would love to see his speculations borne out by events; but, in this particular case, I would much prefer that some peaceful solution be found. If we could put these Zionist/Babylonian criminals on trial for their crimes against Yahweh, Yahshua, and humanity, and thus avert World War III, I would not hesitate to try that. But I fear that there are not enough good people in this world who understand the gravity of the situation. The Beast is much too powerful for us to engage militarily, legally, or even politically. “Who can make war against the beast?” (Rev. 13:4.) So, our strategy has to be something like that of Czar Alexander I of Russia, who, realizing that he could never defeat Napoleon on the battlefield, burned Moscow to the ground, so that Napoleon’s troops would have no shelter or provisions. That strategy proved to be successful, when a few months later, the Russian winter decimated Napoleon’s army and shattered his dreams of empire.

It seems that our “stiff-necked” people can only learn the hard way. The lessons of history are clear and decisive in matters of economics, politics, and war, yet we never learn; and this history keeps repeating itself. This is one of the reasons why the Bible was written, so that we can grasp the nature of deception and ultimately defeat those who employ it against us and against other unsuspecting victims. No matter how many times the Scriptures say “Be not deceived,” it seems that we prefer sweet-sounding lies over truth and substance, just like the false promise that Eve preferred in the Garden: “Thou shalt NOT surely die.” (Gen. 3:4.) For Adamkind, there will be a Final Exam in the very near future.

Right now, it is obvious that we have two versions of Christianity to choose from: the sugar-coated, feel-good pabulum of Churchianity (Judeo-Christianity) versus the brutal honesty of Christian Identity. As the Great Tribulation draws closer and grows more ominous, the vain hopes of the materialists and pseudo-Christians will be dashed to pieces, and it should become very obvious which version of Christianity is the correct one. In the face of our current implacable enemy, the 8th Beast of Mystery Babylon (Talmudic Judaism’s Empire of Merchants), one thing is certain: without Yahweh, we are utterly helpless.
