

The Saxon Messenger

Edition 44 2016

Dear Reader

Political Devices

With the U.S. presidential election only days away, we decided to publish this Saxon Messenger only days in advance, and do something a little different. With the exception of a few related items, this issue is a collection of articles written by myself over the past several years, all of which are aimed at illustrating the futility of the concept that our White race and what is left of a Christian society can survive the challenges which it faces in these last days through political means. There is no political solution, we professed that many years ago, and we continue to stand by that profession today.

But we are not trying to dissuade anyone from fighting for what it is right in the public arena. And on the surface, it seems that a Trump presidency may be better for Whites than seeing that Bolshevick Hag, the Wicked Witch whose name we will not print here, sit in the White House for four or eight years longer than she already has. This is especially true since it may well be that Donald Trump is the last apparently White man who may ever have a chance of winning the American presidency. But on the other hand, we remember the hope that people had in another liberal-turned-conservative Republican, Ronald Reagan, who greatly magnified the imperial American armies, and among other things had opened up the trade spigots with China, thereby flushing American manufacturing into the Yellow River. So the Great Conservative was, as it turned out, only great for the objectives of World Jewry.

It is with very similar suspicions that we said over a year ago that Donald Trump exists only to make White Nationalists look stupid. Here we will qualify that remark. He will make White Nationalists look stupid if they place their hope for the future of White America in him, and they will deserve their fate. Donald Trump is no friend of Whites, as his record and the lives of his children prove doubly and triply.

But on the other hand, if Whites support Trump only because it defeats the Wicked Witch, and because it helps to further Balkanize the nation by alienating Jews and other non-whites from Whites, then that is a good reason to do so. We have no political solution, but perhaps we can and should use the political process as a device to do as many in the so-called “alt-right” have been doing, which is to “red-pill” fellow Whites who are finally waking up to racial realities when they observe the behavior of non-Whites and Jews in this election cycle.

So we can use politics as a tool, but we should not ever view politics as a source of hope. That is because, as we have already said somewhere in these pages, Donald Trump will do one of three things. He will sell out and renege on all of the promises that he has made which are actually in White interests, or he will invite a war trying to keep them, or he will be assassinated. That is because the international Jews who currently control all of the World are not going to wind back any of their globalist agenda, they are not going to wind back any of the Marxist agenda they have advanced inside of every Western nation, and they are not going to cede any of their political, economic and social power without a fight. That fight is inevitable, and when it does finally happen, it will be unlike any other fight which has yet been seen in history. Therefore, while we would like to see this election result in the start of that Armageddon which the so-called “red-pilled” Whites everywhere have been hoping for, we rather tend to believe that Trump will probably follow the route of compromise instead, keeping his head and disappointing all of his White Nationalist and alt-right supporters.

But for us, that too will only be a blessing. Because if Trump turns out to be the dud that we suspect, as he has always been surrounded by a kosher cadre of creditors, employees, advisers and relative-in-laws, then perhaps all of those Whites who claim to be red-pilled will finally come to realize that the only solution is the final solution. And on the other hand, if the media lies succeed once again, and if the Wicked Witch wins the election instead, it is inevitable that those same Whites will come to that same conclusion. So regardless of who actually wins the election, Whites will be even further disenfranchised, and hopefully they shall finally come to the only correct conclusion: that we as a race have no political solution against Jewish World domination. We won't give the reasons for our assertions here, but they are found throughout our articles in this issue. We hope, and even pray, that they are widely considered by White men and women everywhere.

Heaven
or
The Elections
of Men*

This program is going to be titled The Kingdom of Heaven, or the Elections of Men? We are going to begin by presenting a short sermon by Bertrand Comparet, and making some remarks in reference to it. But then we shall discuss the currently ongoing election season in the United States, and how Christians should look at both it and at the possibilities. We shall have brother Ryan and, perhaps a little later, some of our other friends and brethren with us for that discussion.

The Kingdom Of Heaven or In Heaven? by Bertrand L. Comparet. Prepared for internet publication by Clifton A. Emahiser's Teaching Ministries, with Critical Notes

Disputing the nature of the Kingdom of Heaven in this sermon, Comparet is really disputing with Judaized Christians who have some sort of fantasy vision of the kingdom of heaven as castles in the clouds.

There is some dispute, in ecclesiastical circles, whether the kingdom of Yahweh, so often mentioned by Yahshua, is to be on earth or only in heaven. This is based chiefly on the use, only by Matthew, of the phrase the kingdom of heaven. Because of this verse, some have argued that the kingdom must only be in heaven, being heaven itself as ruled by Almighty Yahweh. Neither Mark, Luke nor John refer to the kingdom of heaven, but only to the kingdom of God. Even Matthew uses as an equivalent phrase, the kingdom of God, four times at Matthew 6:33; 12:28; 21:31 & 21:43. In Matthew 13:43 & 26:29 Yahshua speaks of the kingdom of their Father [in reference to the righteous] and My Father's kingdom. Both of these phrases obviously being equivalent to the kingdom of God. There is clearly no distinction between the kingdom of heaven and the kingdom of God. [So Comparet asks:] Then why were the two phrases used?

These different phrases happened because outwardly pious Jews had first taken the name of Yahweh out of the scriptures, substituting the word adonai, meaning lord. This happened in the seventh century B.C. At least as early as 200 B.C., they had begun to substitute heaven for Yahweh.

Here we must note that actually it can only be proven to have happened that the Tetragrammaton representing the name Yahweh was systematically substituted by words for Lord from some time before the close of the first century BC, at least as early as the time of the apostles, and before the ministry of Christ began. Josephus attests that by his time the name of God was forbidden to be spoken. The Dead Sea Scrolls, however, also contained the Tetragrammaton, even in the Greek portions of the writings. While the usage of heaven as an address to the gods is found among the pagan poets of the Greeks and Romans, Comparet seems to be conjecturing as to why Matthew used the term. The Greek word for God appears very frequently in the Wisdom of Sirach, written around 200 BC.]

Even today, many Jewish publications won't use the word God, writing it G-d. Funk and Wagnall's New Standard Bible Dictionary says the following: "Kingdom of God', usage of terms: A New Testament phrase based upon and expressing in its final form the Old Testament idea of the spiritual rule of God over men. The phrase, kingdom of heaven, is used in the New Testament by Matthew only, and is an exact equivalent of the phrase kingdom of God. The substitution of heaven for God, is based on the popular superstitious feeling, in later Judaism, which led to the avoidance of the divine names in common speech.”

Actually, the Jews retained the Tetragrammaton in the Masoretic text, but they are trained never to utter it, using the equivalent for lord instead. It was evidently under the influence of the Jews that the Geneva Bible and the King James Version had substituted the word Lord for Yahweh in all but a few places. Comparet correctly concludes:

So nothing can be based upon the use of the words kingdom of heaven.

Comparet has established that references to the kingdom of heaven are equivalent to referring to the kingdom of God, and therefore from Scripture it can also be proven that the kingdom of heaven is not necessarily a kingdom in heaven. So he continues by asking:

But what clues can we find in the Bible? First, Yahweh’s throne and kingdom are eternal. The following Bible verses all confirm where the kingdom of Yahweh is: [it is] on earth.

Psalm 45:6: “Thy throne, O Yahweh, is for ever and ever: a scepter of righteousness is the scepter of Thy kingdom.”

Psalm 145:13: “Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and Thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.” An eternal kingdom on this earth was promised.

II Samuel 7:12-16: “And when thy days be fulfilled, and thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, I will set up thy seed after thee which shall proceed out of thy bowels, and I will establish his kingdom. He shall build an house for My name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever. I will be his Father, and he shall be My son. If he commit iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the children of men: but My mercy shall not depart away from him as I took away from Saul, whom I put away before thee. And thine house and thy kingdom shall be established forever before thee: thy throne shall be established before thee: thy throne shall be established forever.”

I Chronicles 28:5 & 29:23: “And of all my sons (for Yahweh hath given me many sons,) He hath chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of Yahweh over Israel. ... Then Solomon sat on the throne of Yahweh as king, instead of David his father, and prospered, and all Israel obeyeth him.”

Psalm 89:3-4, 28-29, 34-36: “I have made a covenant with My chosen. I have sworn unto David My servant, Thy seed will I establish forever, and build up thy throne for all generations. ... My mercy will I keep for him for evermore, and My covenant shall stand fast with him. His seed also will I make to endure forever, and His throne as the days of heaven. ... My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips. Once I have sworn by My holiness that I will not lie to David. His seed shall endure forever, and his throne as the sun before Me.”

Daniel 2:44: “And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it will break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever.”

We know Solomon never sat on the throne of Yahweh in heaven. We are told in the Bible that “Solomon sat on the throne of Yahweh as king”. Therefore Yahweh has an earthly throne, as well as a heavenly throne. It is prophesied that Yahshua shall sit upon the throne of the kingdom of Yahweh. It is quite definitely an earthly kingdom, and an eternal one.

Revelation 11:15: “And the seventh angel sounded, and there were great voices in heaven, saying, the kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our God and His Christ; and He shall reign for ever and ever.”

Psalms 47:2-7: “For Yahweh the Most High is terrible: He is a great king over all the earth: For Yahweh is the king of all the earth: sing ye praises with understanding. Yahweh reigneth over all the heathen.” This kingdom contains evil people, who must be rejected. Are there evil people in heaven?

Matthew 11:12: “And from the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.”

Matthew 13:47-50: “Again the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind, which when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away. So shall it be at the end of this age: the angels shall come forth and sever the wicked from among the just, and shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.”

Matthew 21:43: “Therefore I say unto you (the Jews), The kingdom of Yahweh shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.” We are told the children of Satan are in the kingdom of heaven, and must be expelled. This can't be in heaven.

Matthew 13:37-43: “He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man. The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one: the enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are the angels. As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire, so shall it be in the end of this world (order). The Son of man shall send forth His angels, and they shall gather out of the kingdom all things that offend and them which do iniquity.” This kingdom is one where people are material enough to eat and drink.

Matthew 26:29: “I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in My Father's kingdom.”

Luke 22:29-30: “And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as My Father hath appointed unto Me: that ye may eat and drink at My table in My kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.”

The kingdom of heaven is the kingdom of Yahweh, and it is on earth. It contains both good and wicked people at present. Both good and bad people will be in the kingdom until the second coming of Yahshua, at this time the angels will cast out the wicked. The kingdom will be here forever and those in it won't be merely spirits. They will be real and solid enough to eat and drink earthly meals. It is the kingdom of heaven, but it is not in heaven.

This ends Comparet's sermon, and we have a critical note by Clifton A. Emahiser:

This has to be one of the better presentations Bertrand L. Comparet ever gave! Off hand, I would place it among his top ten. I find little with which to disagree, but much to concur! Therefore, I will add some of my own observations.

In this lesson, Comparet cited Daniel 2:44 thusly: “And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it will break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever.' If ever Comparet turned out a masterpiece it was his Daniel's Fifth Kingdom sermon which would also rate among his top ten. For the first four kingdoms of Nebuchadnezzar's dream-vision the futurist interpreters of prophecy use a historical view. Then, without any good reason, they suddenly switch to a futurist view which is hardly consistent. At that point they skip ahead nearly 2000 years and declare that Christ will set up His kingdom then. It was to be Christ's Kingdom all right, but it was the Germanic (Scythian Israelite) tribes that crushed the ten toes (provinces) of the Roman empire.

Therefore, the German tribes represented the "kingdom" which Daniel prophesied would "stand for ever". That kingdom is already here, and has been for centuries, and when Yahshua Christ returns at his Second Advent, He will be crowned King!

Clifton had written another critical note for this sermon, which concerns the race of the people who constitute the Kingdom of Yahweh. However we will postpone discussing that to promote another facet of God's Kingdom on earth which Comparet alluded to, but did not discuss explicitly. Not only is the kingdom of heaven here on earth, but the kingdom of heaven is now. It is now, and in one degree or another, it always has been now. For Christ had told those Pharisees and others in Judaea who had opposed Him, that "The Kingdom of God is among you", as it is translated in the Christogenea New Testament where it says in Luke chapter 17 that "20 Then being asked by the Pharisees when the Kingdom of Yahweh would come, He replied to them and said: 'The Kingdom of Yahweh does not come along with observation. 21 Nor shall they say "Behold, it is here!" or "it is there!" For behold! The Kingdom of Yahweh is among you!"

The Kingdom of God is on earth, and at the time of Christ it was already among men. That is because the people of God are the representatives and the substance of the Kingdom of God on earth, and they always have been. As we have heard Comparet quote the words of Christ as they are recorded in Matthew, He had said to the Judaeans: "The kingdom of Yahweh shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof." But, as we have also seen Comparet quote from Daniel, "the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it will break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever."

The children of Israel constitute the citizenry of the Kingdom of Yahweh. They failed to keep the law, which represented the constitution of that kingdom, as it is portrayed in the Old Testament, and for that they were sent off into punishment. The 70-weeks kingdom in Judaea was only a remnant stub, until the cast-off children of Israel were reconciled to Yahweh in Christ, and could once again be given the mandate to establish His kingdom. That is the challenge which Christians have had ever since, and they have once again failed to live up to the task, even though the instructions for establishing the Kingdom of Yahweh are found right in the New Testament. That is right, the Kingdom of Christ had been established when His people turned to Christianity and began governing themselves under Biblical law, no matter how imperfectly. Under White world hegemony, laws reflecting Christian civility had been established everywhere White men were found. But now, as it says in Revelation chapter 17, because the children of Israel had joined themselves to the beast, we read that “17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfill his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled.” And this is where we stand today, joined to the beast in a society where those Christian laws are being constantly eradicated and replaced with Babylonian Jewish immorality.

In its rawest, uncontrolled form, Democracy is mob rule, and emotions and knee-jerk reactions have always ruled the mobs. But in a world of Jewish-created money and Jewish-controlled media, Democracy is whatever the Jews can get away with when the majority doesn't have a clue, and really doesn't care except for one election every four years when people think they are going to vote themselves some sort of a savior, a god to deliver them from whatever woes they perceive. In that regard, I want to talk about Donald Trump. Too many people on the right, and especially too many Identity Christians, are looking for Donald Trump to be the next great savior, another Hitler, even a White Messiah. If only Trump would win, everything will be suddenly good. In any event, such opinions of any politician only amount to idolatry, and Christians should never even be caught up in such nonsense.

Donald Trump has been in bed with the devil throughout his entire life. His father left him a real estate empire in New York City, the land of two million Jews, which Donald drove into the ground. But he was resurrected by wheeling and dealing in an almost exclusively Jewish industry, which is the casino industry. So now he is a billionaire, a man who made his fortune through the misfortune of others, and it is difficult to even imagine that Christians should look for deliverance from such a man.

Trump's daughter, who is closely involved in the family business along with her brothers, has not only married a Jew, but has studied under a rabbi for several years and is proud of and actively practicing her Judaism. Jews have worked on Trump's campaign, like Samuel Nunberg and Michael Cohen. The Jewish Forward recently ran an article titled *Trump Has Strongest Jewish Ties of all GOP Candidates*. Trump is in so deep with Jews, he could never climb out of the pool if he wanted to. There are too many heavy lead weights chained to his ankles. So if anyone thinks that Donald Trump is the answer to the Jewish question, they are living in a fantasy.

But to be fair, on the other side of the coin, Jews and other Progressives, both Democrat and Republican, have waged a battle against Trump which has not been seen in any recent Presidential primary. So we either have a legitimate candidate who thinks that some Jews are good and can work for good, which has happened very often in the past, or we have just another puppet being manipulated by Jews for the ultimate and complete demoralization of whatever is left of the Christian Right. If anything, we hope the result is this: that Christian Whites finally realize that all politicians are whores for the same beast, and we have no political solution.

Let's face the cold, hard facts. The Jews have been gradually tightening their grip on America ever since the Federal Reserve Act passed in 1913, and that control is very near absolute today. Jews also control the economies in all of the major powers, Britain (where it all started), the EU, China and Russia, as well as nearly every smaller country. We have bombed or have threatened to bomb all the countries that the Jewish banks do not control, Libya and Syria being recent examples.

The Jews waged a 1500 year campaign for the control of Christendom, and the world, and they are not going to concede that control at any ballot box. If anyone thinks that voting for the right political candidate is going to save us from satanic world rule, they are again living in a fantasy world. We have no political solution, and the world is not going to be taken back from Satan without much bloodshed.

If Donald Trump wins the election and plays the political game like a good citizen is expected to do, the Progressive agenda may be slowed a little, and he will be seen by the right as a “good president”, but nothing of the advances made by the Progressive agenda these last hundred or so years will be undone. Rather, this may only happen because it may be more profitable to allow the goyim such a temporary reprieve. By carrying on the pretense of the artificial left/right dichotomy for a few more years, the Jew may continue to squeeze his pints of blood from the Christians. But by allowing this, they are only postponing the acknowledgment of the victory of World Talmudism by maintaining the facade of the triumph of Liberalism in the West. So we hope Trump wins, if only to show White Nationalists how stupid they are for having any hope in such a man, or for having any hope in a man at all.

But let's imagine that once Trump is elected that he overlooks his Jewish family connections, the Jews on his staff, the Jewish business connections, and that he is actually for real. Let's imagine that Trump betrays his Jewish friends and family and that he is really some closet anti-Semite fascist who plans on delivering America and the west from the clutches of world Jewry. If he were to do that, he certainly could not do it with a pencil, or with Executive Orders. If Trump were for real, the first thing he would do is take over the Fed, by nationalizing the banks, and not merely by auditing the Fed.

The idea of auditing the Federal Reserve is a hoax in itself. It is not Federal, and it is not a Reserve. The money supply does not matter. Value-backed money, such as money based on a commodity of gold or silver, does not matter. What matters is that people accept dollars in exchange for goods and services, and that foreign nations trade for oil in dollars. So if Trump leaves the Fed in the hands of the bankers, the bankers will always prevail, and the economy will always be run by the Jews.

So if Trump tries anything which is actually geared towards the advantage of White and middle-class America, and he does not take over the Fed, the Jews will respond by tanking the economy. And if he manages to take over the Fed, the Jews will do their best to tank the economy from the outside, through their control of all of the foreign economies. Then there will be war. The EU will be turned against America by the Jew. Even Britain and Canada will be turned against America by the Jew. Russia and China will start destroying American installations overseas. Whatever is left of American shipping will be targeted. All of America's foreign holdings will be seized. The shelves at Walmart will be empty of anything useful within days. Then the Mexicans, Negros, Chinese and other foreigners in America will become a fifth column for the Jews, and they will be used to create havoc and to destroy White America.

There is no taking America back, there is no making America great again, without first eliminating the Jew. In the end, that means that America must be destroyed. There is no fixing anything without bloodshed, and fixing anything at all will indeed require much bloodshed. And to survive that, we do not need Donald Trump.

But we do need Yahshua Christ, and only he can save us. As the Revelation has prophesied, we shall have the status quo, or we shall have bloodshed. But there is no in between. Christ Himself had warned us, that “the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.” That was true of the Edomite Jews in the first century, and it is just as true of the Jews today.

Donald Trump is a very part of the beast system which the children of Israel, who are also the Whore of Babylon, have joined themselves to, and for which they are being punished. Donald Trump will not be our savior. Donald Trump has absolutely no understanding of what is really good for our Race, and what really needs to be done to quote-unquote “fix things”. But if he is for real, if he is sincere about the promises he has made, he may precipitate the culmination of our punishment, and things will get much worse than they are now. If he is just another politician, he will fail to follow through on any of his promises, he will compromise with and appease both sides, and we will have many more years of the status quo.

Continuing with Clifton Emahiser's critical notes of Bertrand Comparet's essay, The Kingdom Of Heaven or In Heaven?: The other passage Comparet cited for which I would like to comment is Matthew 13:47-50. The following is part of what I wrote in a brochure entitled Was Christ Politically Correct? Matt. 13:47-50:

We will now determine just what's biblical and what's not: for this we will go to Matthew 13:47-50 which reads: “47 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind: 48 which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away. 49 So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just, 50 And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.” From here, Clifton finishes his note by demonstrating from W.E. Vine's Expository Dictionary Of New Testament Words that the word for kind in this passage is the Greek word γένος, and that the Greek word γένος means race. Then Clifton offers the passage again, from this improved perspective: “47 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea [of people], and gathered of every race: 48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good [racial kind] into vessels, but cast the bad [racial kind] away. 49 So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked [races] from among the just [race], 50 And shall cast them [the bad racial kind] into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.”

.... the battle ahead is even greater. It is our obligation to prepare ourselves and our people for it now. That cannot be done at the ballot box. We are not going to vote ourselves salvation

The Kingdom of Heaven is here and now, and consists of good fish. The bad fish, however, are all of the non-White races, as well as the Jewish tares hidden among the White wheat. In order to establish the rule of our God all of these aliens and mongrels must be distinguished, removed, and destroyed in the fires of hell. [Interestingly, a friend did point out that Trump did seem to be causing division between these very groups, but he also has a lot of support from so-called minorities.] To hope for a Trump victory in order to maintain the status quo is only to hope that it is not our generation which must live up to this Christian responsibility. Voting for Trump, we are voting for compromise and appeasement. Doing this, we continue to defer the Kingdom of God for the sake of the children of the Devil. But if Trump is real, there will be war. Christ did not tell His apostles to wait for a good Roman emperor to convert, or to try to manipulate their own way into Roman rulership and change things for the better through legislation. Rather, in Daniel it is written that the Kingdom of Heaven would “break in pieces and consume” all other worldly kingdoms, and that too was done in a great battle. The rest of the Revelation is no different, and the battle ahead is even greater. It is our obligation to prepare ourselves and our people for it now. That can not be done at the ballot box. We are not going to vote ourselves salvation.

When Whites obey Christ, the way is much easier, and the Kingdom of Yahweh materializes. When Whites turn their back on their God, they are punished with tyranny, and will be punished much further until they return to Christ. For all of these reasons and more, Identity Christians should not be promoting the prospect of hope in a man, and especially in a politician like Donald Trump. They should not be making Trumptards of themselves. Rather, Identity Christians should be warning their fellows, that there is no hope in a man, and that there is a great struggle ahead of us if justice is to prevail, and if our race is to survive ■

Hitler's War in a Christian Identity Perspective

William R Finck

Christogenea Saturdays, February 27th, 2016:
Hitler's War in a Christian Identity Perspective

Lately we have been discussing Christian Identity vision and objectives in presentations with Mark Downey and again in a recent article posted at Christogenea, which summarized some of the things we said in those presentations. Here we are going to offer what may at first seem to be a strange mix, especially to those who have not heard us speak about Adolf Hitler and National Socialism. This subject we have not touched on now for many months. What might seem to some to be a strange mix has a definite purpose. I would deplore you not to accept the Anglo-American-Jewish propaganda concerning 20th century history. It amazes me that so many fools who claim to be Identity Christians, and especially pastors, still accept all of those Jewish lies. Tonight I want to summarize, at least in part, what has happened in Europe and throughout the West in recent history, what is happening now as a result of that history, and also offer a summary of the proper perspective which the Identity Christians should have of both the events of recent history, and most importantly, of the place which we must assume for ourselves within the context of that history.

All the Jews stand for lies, and we must stand for truth.

To help us accomplish this objective, we are going to present our recent article. But first, we are going to present what is commonly known as Adolf Hitler's last speech. It was a radio address to the German Volk made on January 30th, 1945. While it is short, we are going to read all of it, because it describes an earlier stage in the very same battle that our White race faces once again today. Except that comparatively, Whites as a collective people today are more like the Germans of 1922 than they are of 1933 or 1945. The speech is addressed to the German Volksgenossen, which are national comrades, and National Socialists, and ostensibly both labels were used to refer to the same people.

This version of the speech is from a collection published online in PDF format at nseuropa.org, a website operated anonymously but hosted, since January of 2012, by our labors at Christogenea. There is another translation of this speech available which is more commonly posted at various internet websites. However we believe this translation to be the more eloquent. We do not know the identity of the translator, or even if this has ever been published in print. So here we will begin our presentation of this speech:

German Volksgenossen! National Socialists!

When, twelve years ago, the now deceased Reich president von Hindenburg entrusted me, as the leader of the strongest party, with the chancellorship, Germany faced the same situation at home as it does today abroad with regard to international politics. Initiated and carried out according to plan through the Treaty of Versailles, the process of the economic destruction and annihilation of the democratic republic led to a situation that was slowly being regarded as permanent: nearly seven million unemployed, seven million part-time workers, ruined peasants, destroyed trade, and a corresponding breakdown of commerce. The German ports were only ship cemeteries. The financial situation of the Reich threatened at any moment to lead to the collapse not only of the nation, but also of the Lander [provinces] and the [local] communities. However, what was decisive was the following: behind this systematic economic destruction of Germany was the specter of Asian Bolshevism, just as today. And just as on a large scale today, the bourgeois world on a much smaller scale was completely incapable, in the years before our seizure of power, of effectively opposing this development.

Even after the collapse of the year 1918, it was still not recognized that an old world was passing away and a new world was being born. It was not a question of supporting by all means what had become decayed or rotten and artificially preserving it, but a question of the necessity of replacing it with something visibly healthy. A bygone social order had broken down, and any attempt to maintain it was bound to fail. Thus, it was no different from what is happening now on a large scale, when likewise the bourgeois states are doomed and only Volksgemeinschaften [national communities] which possess a clear orientation and are ideologically fortified have a chance of surviving this gravest European crisis in many centuries.

We were granted only six years of peace after January 30, 1933. In these six years, we secured so many tremendous accomplishments and planned even greater ones; so many and such great things that we all the more elicited the envy of our democratic, good-for-nothing surrounding world.

What was decisive, however, was that we succeeded with superhuman efforts in these six years in reorganizing the defense of the German Volkskorper [the body of the German nation], which meant not so much giving it the material military strength as the spiritual power of resistance necessary for self-assertion.

The gruesome fate which is today overwhelming the east and which exterminates tens and hundreds of thousands of human beings in villages and market towns, in the countryside and in the cities, will, with the utmost effort, be parried and overcome by us, despite all setbacks and severe trials. If this is at all possible, then it is because, since the year 1933, an inner change has taken place in the German Volk. If a Germany of the Treaty of Versailles still existed today, Europe would long have been swept away by the Central Asian floods.

Adolf Hitler understood that world Jewry sought not only to rule over Germany economically, but also the destruction of German blood. For instance, he expressed the problems caused by the French occupation of the Rhineland, which in the era after the First Great War had “become a playground for hordes of African niggers” (Mein Kampf, Volume 2, chapter 13). In response to the immigration policies of the “bourgeois nationalists“, the capitalists of 19th century Germany, Hitler had said (in Mein Kampf, Volume 2 chapter 2): “Those people did not understand that a policy of Germanization can be carried out only as regards human beings. What they mostly meant by Germanization was a process of forcing other people to speak the German language. But it is almost inconceivable how such a mistake could be made as to think that a Nigger or a Chinaman will become a German because he has learned the German language and is willing to speak German for the future, and even to cast his vote for a German political party. Our bourgeois nationalists could never clearly see that such a process of Germanization is in reality de-Germanization; for even if all the outstanding and visible differences between the various peoples could be bridged over and finally wiped out by the use of a common language, that would produce a process of bastardization which in this case would not signify Germanization but the annihilation of the German element.” As Hitler had feared, Germany indeed suffered at the hands of the Central Asian hordes in the aftermath of the war. However in recent history the treachery is even greater, as hundreds of thousands of Turks, Arabs and Niggers are admitted into Germany freely, and even granted the houses and money and daughters of Germans for the troubles of making the journey.

Continuing with Hitler’s speech:

There is no need to discuss this with blockheads who will never die out and who are of the opinion that a defenseless Germany would not have become the victim of this Jewish-international world conspiracy because of its impotence.

That is nothing other than turning the laws of nature upside down! Since when does the fox not kill the defenseless goose just because the goose is not aggressive by nature, and since when does a wolf become a pacifist because sheep do not wear armor? That-as I said earlier-there are bourgeois sheep who believe that nonsense in all earnestness just proves how necessary it was to eliminate an era whose educational system was capable of breeding such personalities, sustaining them, and granting them political influence.

Long before National Socialism came to power, a merciless fight against this Jewish-Asiatic Bolshevism was already raging. [In the nations of Central and Eastern Europe.] If it did not invade Europe as early as the years 1919–1920, it failed only because it was too weak at the time and too poorly armed. Its attempt to eliminate Poland was not abandoned because of compassion for the Polish, but because of the lost battle of Warsaw. Its intention to destroy Hungary was never realized, not because it reconsidered but because the Bolshevik force could not be sustained militarily.

Likewise the attempt to shatter Germany was not abandoned because its success was no longer desired, but because it was not possible to eliminate the rest of our Volk’s natural will to resist. [Demonstrated by the actions of the Freikorps after the Communist uprisings in Germany in the early 1920’s.] Jewry then immediately started the systematic breakdown of our Volk. By so doing, it found the best allies in those stubborn citizens who did not wish to admit that the age of the bourgeois world was over and would never return, that the epoch of unrestrained economic liberalism belonged to the past and could only lead to collapse, that the great tasks of the present can only be managed by the authoritarian, concentrated strength of the nation based on the law of equal rights for all and resulting equal duties, which, in turn, means that the fulfillment of these equal duties will inevitably lead to equal rights.

Thus, National Socialism, in the midst of a gigantic economic, social, and cultural reconstruction, gave the German Volk an armament, particularly in terms of education, that alone was suited to be transformed into military values.

The power of resistance of our nation has grown so tremendously since January 30, 1933, that it can no longer be compared with the earlier epoch. To maintain this inner power of resistance is therefore the surest guarantor of the final victory! If today Europe is the victim of a serious illness, then the affected states will either have to overcome it by summoning their entire and utmost power of resistance, or they will be doomed. But the convalescent, that is the survivor, overcomes the climaxes of such an illness only in a crisis that greatly weakens him. It is therefore all the more our unchanging will not to shrink from anything in this struggle to rescue our Volk from this most gruesome fate of all time, and to obey steadfastly and loyally the commandment of the preservation of our nation. The Almighty has created our Volk.

[The alternate translation freely available on the internet has “God the Almighty has made our nation.”] By defending its existence, we defend His creation. That this defense is connected with nameless misfortune, suffering, and pain without equal, lets us become all the more attached to this Volk. However, it also lets us gain that hardness which is necessary for doing our duty even at the worst crisis points. This means not only our duty toward the decent, eternal Germany, but also our duty toward those few men without honor who divorce themselves from their Volk.

We can argue about Hitler’s application of his faith, but we cannot argue about the substance of his faith. He truly believed that in his struggle against Jewish Bolshevism, he was defending the Creation of God. In the first volume of Adolf Hitler’s Mein Kampf, we read in the closing words of chapter 2 the following: “Should the Jew, with the aid of his Marxist creed, triumph over the people of this world, his Crown will be the funeral wreath of mankind, and this planet will once again follow its orbit through ether, without any human life on its surface, as it did millions of years ago. And so I believe to-day that my conduct is in accordance with the will of the Almighty Creator. In standing guard against the Jew I am defending the handiwork of the Lord.”

Men without any sound spiritual foundations, men without the internal fortitude of spirit which comes only from a solid conviction of faith, float from one position to another, from paradigm to paradigm, seeking a means by which they can justify their actions. This was not Adolf Hitler. Rather, Hitler was consistent in his philosophy concerning God and Nation from beginning to end: and he maintained his position from the rise of his political career to the last days leading up to his certain destruction.

And while those same convictions led to his destruction, and the destruction of the nation which he loved, he rightfully explained here that such a destruction was inevitable anyway, but he never turned his back on his nation, he never gave up hope.

We also see that here we see that in 1945, Adolf Hitler was expressing the same exact religious conviction concerning God, race and nation which he had expressed when

Mein Kampf was first written, before 1925. If a man is going to lose a war, or lose his life, he is better off doing it by defending his faith, as Christ Himself had said, as it is recorded in Luke chapter 9, “24 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it. 25 For what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?” Likewise, Adolf Hitler and his National Socialists were fighting against the same people who had killed the Christ.

To continue with Hitler:

Therefore, there is only one commandment for us in this fateful struggle: Who fights honorably can save his own life and that of his loved ones; who attacks the nation from behind, as a spineless coward, will under any circumstances die a shameful death. That National Socialism has awakened and reinforced this spirit in our German Volk is its greatest accomplishment. Once the bells of peace ringing out after this mighty international drama has subsided, then people will realize what the German Volk owes to this spiritual rebirth: it is no less than its existence in this world.

A few months and weeks ago, the Allied statesmen still spoke openly about Germany's fate. Then a few papers admonished them that it would be wiser if they would rather make promises, even though there was no intention of keeping these promises. As a relentless National Socialist and fighter for my Volk, I would like to assure these other statesmen once and for all at this hour that any attempt to impress National Socialist Germany with phrases of Wilson's type assumes a naivete that the present Germany does not know.

However, it is not at all important that in the democracies, political activities and lies go hand in hand. What is important is that any promise these statesmen give a nation is completely insignificant today, because they are no longer in a position to follow through on any such assurance. That is no different from one sheep assuring another that it will protect it against the tiger. In opposition to that I repeat my prophesy: Not only will England not be in a position to tame Bolshevism, but its own development will follow the inevitable course of this degenerative disease. The democracies can no longer get rid of the spirits they themselves have summoned up from the steppes of Asia.

All the small European nations which capitulated trusting in the Allied assurances are heading for their complete extermination. Whether they meet this fate earlier or later is in view of its inevitability- completely without significance. The Kremlin Jews are moved exclusively by tactical considerations in their decisions to proceed with brute force in one case and temporary restraint in the other. The end will always be the same.

Germany will never suffer this fate! The victory gained twelve years ago in the interior of our country guarantees this. Whatever our enemies may come up with, whatever suffering they may cause the German cities, the German landscapes, and above all our people, pales in comparison with the incorrigible misery and misfortune that would hit all of us, should the plutocratic-Bolshevik conspiracy win. It is, therefore, all the more necessary on the twelfth anniversary of the seizure of power to make one's heart stronger than ever before, and to harden oneself in the sacred resolve to take up arms, no matter where, no matter under what circumstances, until victory finally crowns our efforts. On this day, I would like to leave no doubt about one other thing: in spite of a hostile environment, at one time in the past I chose my way in the depth of my being, and I followed this path as an unknown, nameless man, up to the final victory. Often proclaimed dead and always wished dead, at long last I was the victor! My present life is likewise being exclusively determined by the duties incumbent on me.

Together, they amount to only one duty, namely, to work for my Volk and to fight for it. Only He can absolve me from this duty who has called on me to take it on. It was in Providence's hands to eliminate me through the bomb that went off only one-and-a-half meters away from me on July 20 and, thereby, to end my life's work. [Hitler refers to the Valkyrie plot against his life, culminating in a bomb being planted at his headquarters, the Wolf's Lair, in July of 1944] That the Almighty protected me on that day is something I regard as a confirmation of the mission I was assigned. I will therefore continue in the coming years to follow the path of the uncompromising representation of the interests of my Volk, ignoring all need and danger, and filled with the sacred conviction that the Almighty will in the end not abandon him who wanted nothing other all his life than to spare his Volk a fate it never deserved in terms of its numbers and significance.

Anyone who reads Mein Kampf and then reads Hitler's speeches, and sees Hitler's consistent and accurate descriptions of the role of the International Jews in the control of both global Capitalism and Marxist Communism, and how he maintained his convictions in those areas to the bitter end, would know that there is no way that Adolf Hitler could have been a Rothschild agent, or an agent for the British, or a pawn of American industrialists, or anything else that clowns like Jim Condit or Anthony Sutton try to make him out to be. Rather, it is Condit and Sutton who are the tools of the international Jews, and certainly not Adolf Hitler.

I therefore appeal in this hour to the entire German Volk, but especially to my old comrades in arms and all soldiers who are at its head, to arm themselves with an even greater, hardened spirit of resistance, until, as once before, we can lay on the grave of the dead of this mighty struggle a wreath with a bow inscribed: But you have triumphed in the end! I expect every German therefore to fulfill his duty to the utmost, and to take on every sacrifice that will be and must be demanded of him. I expect of every healthy man that he risk life and limb in this battle. I expect every ill, infirm, or otherwise indispensable man to work with the utmost effort. I expect the inhabitants of the cities to forge the weapons for this fight, and I expect every farmer to give bread to the soldiers and workers of this fight by limiting his own consumption as much as possible. I expect all women and girls to support this fight with the utmost zeal, as they have done up to now. I turn to the German youth with particular confidence. By forming such a committed community, we have the right to step before the Almighty and ask Him for His mercy and blessings. After all, a nation cannot do more than this: those who can fight, fight; those who can work, work; and all come together to sacrifice with only one thought in mind: to secure freedom, national honor, and a future for life.

No matter how grave the crisis may be at this moment, we will overcome it in the end, in spite of everything, thanks to our unchangeable will, our readiness to sacrifice, and our abilities. We will survive this misery. In this fight, too, it is not Central Asia that will win but Europe! And at its head will be the one nation which, for one-and-a-half millennia, has represented Europe as its hegemonic power against the east and will represent it in the future: our Greater German Reich, the German nation!

We generally should not trust post-war sources of statements attributed to Adolf Hitler, which were not published or otherwise known to have existed before he died. This is because since the end of the war, opportunists, and especially the Jews, have tried to mold an image of Hitler which suites their own agendas. The book Table Talk is one of these efforts, and it consists of utterly unreliable garbage.

But here I will quote one such source, because I know that he is really no fan of Adolf Hitler, and has no apparent interest in portraying Hitler for anything other than what he actually was. We can put a modicum of trust in his research, even if we do not agree with many of his conclusions. That source is David Irving. Now, Irving is not a revisionist, and there should be no doubt that Irving is an Anglophile who upholds many of the false paradigms constructed to explain Hitler's purpose and intentions. So in many ways Irving is just another Court Historian. However where he presents material in English from original sources which are otherwise little known and absolutely inaccessible outside of certain German academic circles, the original material he presents is generally reliable.

So on page 857 of the edition of David Irving's book Hitler's War which is freely available at his website, we see an account of Hitler's last days and some of his last words as they were recorded by Joachim von Ribbentrop at the Berlin bunker in April of 1945, and among them we read: "For the first time Hitler now admitted to Ribbentrop that the war was lost. He dictated to Ribbentrop four secret negotiation points to put to the British if he got the chance. If the Continent was to survive in a world dominated by Bolshevism, then somehow London and Berlin must bury the hatchet. He instructed Ribbentrop to write secretly to Churchill in this sense. 'You will see,'

Hitler predicted. 'My spirit will arise from the grave. One day people will see that I was right.'"

Anyone who is White and who has a conscience orientated towards the preservation of his White nation, race or culture should clearly see today that Adolf Hitler was right, and in that sense, his spirit has indeed been resurrected, and will always be resurrected, because it is essentially the same spirit of our God and Creator and of his Christ. The Jews killed Him, they killed National Socialist Germany, and they seek to kill us as they lie to us about both Christ and Hitler. This is the essence of the challenge which all Identity Christians should be prepared to face. One may be hot or cold, but one would rather not be caught lukewarm when the moment of decision arrives.

This battle was not begun in 1914, in 1933, in 1939, or even as long ago as the year in which Christ was crucified. Rather, it was begun in Genesis chapter 3. Adolf Hitler had also said in Volume 1, chapter 10 of *Mein Kampf*, that "The sin against blood and race is the hereditary sin in this world and it brings disaster on every nation that commits it." Likewise, in chapter 11 of that same volume of Mein Kampf, he said that "the original sin committed in Paradise has always been followed by the expulsion of the guilty parties." Adolf Hitler knew much more about Genesis than the vast majority of today's so-called theologians and clergymen. He also understood that the international Jew is the eternal corrupter of blood and race, as we have seen demonstrated in so many ways throughout even our more recent history. This battle did not end in 1945, and it will not end until the final destruction of the enemies of Christ: which is the real holocaust of the Jew which has been promised in both testaments of our Bibles. Like his father Abraham, Adolf Hitler will also rejoice to see that day, and he will.

But as Christ Himself had warned in the Gospel, as it is recorded in Mark chapter 13: "12 Now the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death. 13 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved." Likewise, we are very much as Germans were in 1922, with so many of our own people siding with the enemies of our race. As we have seen Hitler allude to in his speech, Germany also had its traitors, and those who would sell out their nation to the enemy, even attempting to kill their own brethren for reward. But we will prevail if, like Hitler, we also maintain our convictions steadfast until the end. As Paul of Tarsus exhorted, in a somewhat different manner, we should never lose focus of the prize.

With this, I am going to read my recent short article, The Christian Identity Objective, because I see our Christian Identity struggle as the next, and hopefully the final, phase in the same great struggle which the National Socialists were fighting in Germany seventy years ago. And if I am wrong, and it is not, then apparently we have no hope at all, and if not for the return of our Christ, we have already lost. But we have faith, that there is a God, and that God will not be mocked. But we also have an obligation to fight the fight, bringing the true Gospel of Salvation to our fellow Israelite brethren.

While this article represents many of the thoughts which I had expressed in the two recent discussions which were presented here along with Pastor Mark Downey, there are also some ideas which were not expressed in those discussions, and which perhaps we may elaborate upon this evening.

The hour is late, and all of the formerly Christian nations are overcome with the enemies of Christ. The dusk is far too advanced for Christians to be wasting precious time arguing over the place of beasts in the kingdom of God, when it should be obvious to all that after 500 years of trying to civilize and make Christians of them, there has been little but misery and failure, and they are still nothing but beasts. The negro takes the image of Christ, remodels it in its own image, and destroys everything it touches in His Name. The Oriental takes up the image of Christ, and adds it to his collection of mystical talismans, imagining that it is just one more tool in the arsenal of idols that will help him to gratify his lusts, along with shark fins and tiger penises. The Mexican takes up the image of Christ, but only as a child, and then worships the young virgin instead, yearning for the fulfillment of its own beastly impulses. Their religions are all religions of lust, they pervert Christianity into a religion whereby they can facilitate the gratification of their lust, and they will never actually be Christians because they have no care for Christ or for the spiritual values which Christ truly represents.

For a thousand years the Jew had tried to destroy Christendom from the outside, and had militarized both the African and Asian beasts against the West, but they failed to destroy it. Do not be deceived, Islam is the invention of Jews, and as soon as it appeared the Jews used it to destroy both White North Africa and the Iberian peninsula. Likewise, the Turks are not Islamic by mistake, even though they crossed the Euphrates nearly 400 years after the followers of Mohammed had conquered Mesopotamia by the sword. They too were only a tool used by the Jews in the destruction of Christian Byzantium.

But when the Jew failed to take the Germanic nations by the force of the Arabs and Turks, he slowly crept into Christianity and undermined Christian institutions with anti-Christian ideas. And since they initially failed to flood Europe with the beasts, it was the Jew who ultimately convinced the popes to bring Europe to the beasts, something which was always a Jesuit agenda. So a universal doctrine which was at one time only universal to the civilized world, was transformed into a multiracial doctrine and the churches of Europe were prepared to accept the ideologies of the humanist revolutions, once they were convinced that they should humanize the beasts.

From this point Christianity was being offered along with bribes to the alien races, to have them behave in compliance with Christian expectations. When they refused to comply, it was often forced upon them with the sword. But these attempts to civilize the savages were not Christian at all. Rather, they were the workings of converso-Jews among the Jesuits and the imperialist popes, Jewish mercantile interests in Spain and Portugal which had soon relocated to Holland and England, and the later post-Reformation rulers of Europe who sought influence abroad in competition with the popes. Eventually, such religious imperialism disaffected most European Christians who have no affinity with the savages that the churches insisted upon taming. Ever since the colonial period, the churches have cared more for the aliens than they have for their own people. This is the big picture of Medieval European history which is missed by all of the blind mainstream academics.

Adolf Hitler understood this problem with the churches of Europe. Therefore he wrote in Mein Kampf, in Volume 2 chapter 2: “How devoid of ideals and how ignoble is the whole contemporary system! The fact that the churches join in committing this sin against the image of God [Hitler properly believed that the Aryan man, which we in Christian Identity identify as Adamic, to be the image of God], even though they continue to emphasize the dignity of that image, is quite in keeping with their present activities. They talk about the Spirit, but they allow man, as the embodiment of the Spirit, to degenerate to the proletarian level. Then they look on with amazement when they realize how small is the influence of the Christian Faith in their own country and how depraved and ungodly is this riff-raff which is physically degenerate and therefore morally degenerate also. To balance this state of affairs they try to convert the Hottentots and the Zulus and the Kaffirs and to bestow on them the blessings of the Church. While our European people, God be praised and thanked, are left to become the victims of moral depravity, the pious missionary goes out to Central Africa and establishes missionary stations for negroes. Finally, sound and healthy--though primitive and backward--people will be transformed, under the name of our 'higher civilization', into a motley of lazy and brutalized mongrels.” This is exactly what we see in those same churches today.

The religious chaos which has resulted from this perversion of Christianity is due to the complete corruption of Judaized Christian churches with the satanic worship of the “universal brotherhood of man” characterized by the cries of the so-called French Revolution for liberty, equality and fraternity. The destruction of Christian institutions with satanic Jewish humanism over the last two hundred years has prepared Christendom for the onslaught which it is now suffering. The devils deceived the west into exporting Christianity to the beasts, so that they could ultimately facilitate the original objective of flooding all of Christendom with beasts.

The early Jewish instigation of pagan imperial Rome to persecute Christians, and then the Arab, Mongol and Turkic wars against the European nations after Europe had turned to Christ, are all parts of the same ongoing agenda to destroy Christianity, orchestrated by the same satanic Jew. It is described quite succinctly in Revelation chapter 12: “And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.” Nearly all of the major internal wars of European history were also instigated by Jewish influences, either in religion or in commerce, exacerbating the problems with the continual struggles between kings and popes. Now the culmination of the serpent’s flood is evident today, and that is also described in Revelation chapter 20, where we read that: “Satan . . . shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about...”

And this is the point where Christendom is at now. The camp of the saints is not only surrounded, but it is being overrun, as a parallel description in Ezekiel chapters 38 and 39 also portrays. However rather than discuss the outcome, we will instead discuss how Christians who are not Judaized should perhaps react to the reality of the situation. Of course, we must remain under the assumption that professing Christians also accept what their Bibles say, and we shall continue under that assumption.

As Paul of Tarsus had stated several times, the promises of God can not be made of no effect. Making those statements, Paul did not refer to the “promises of Jesus”, but rather to the “promises of God”, meaning the promises attributed to the Old Testament God. To see them, one must read through the Old Testament. In a survey of those promises we see that one man's seed, or offspring, were to inherit the world, or the Adamic society of that time, and that they would become as the stars of heaven in multitude. From this point forward the descendants of that man who were deemed eligible to inherit these promises were, for various reasons, narrowed to one in particular: Jacob, from whom sprang the twelve tribes of Israel. As late as Acts chapter 26 Paul attests that the promises of Christ are for those same twelve tribes, and stated that the Jews were in opposition to them.

Now those who are inclined to Jewish egalitarianism may immediately object, citing one of the promises to Abraham where in Genesis chapter 12 it says that “in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed”. However they neglect to consider that “all the families” who would be blessed could only be those Adamic families descended from Noah which had been described just a few verses earlier, in Genesis chapter 11. It can be proven historically, that all of these families were originally White, and that all modern Whites descended from these families, although most of them have since been destroyed, having become mixed with non-White races. No matter what one may think of the first 9 chapters of Genesis, the historical record from Genesis chapter 10 forward is quite clear.

Even Ethiopians and Egyptians were originally White, and those Medieval Christians who thought

otherwise had obtained their information from Medieval Jewish rabbis, and the lies have been repeated ever since.

Some may also object, that the flood of Noah covered the “whole earth”, and therefore all people must have originated from the descendants of Noah, but that is not true. Just a few chapters after the descendants of Noah are listed in Genesis, we find the descendants of the giants, who are the Rephaim, and the descendants of Cain, who are the Kenites, as well as some other tribes which did not descend from Noah, but which are alive and well in the time of Abraham, and which are listed in Genesis chapter 15, just five short chapters after the descendants of Noah are listed. These other races survived the flood because they were not in the “whole earth” which the flood had destroyed. In Genesis chapter 4, Cain was driven “from the face of the earth” that was later destroyed in the flood, proving that he was elsewhere and that the flood did not cover the entire planet, but rather only the “whole earth” where the children of Seth had dwelt, the earth which Cain was driven away from. [Unless, of course, one wants to think that perhaps Cain was taken to another planet. That is how ridiculous the idea is that the whole planet could have been flooded.]

So the promise to Abraham that “in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed” could only have pertained to those White families listed in Genesis chapter 10, and it was also secondary to the promises that Abraham's offspring would become many nations, and that they would inherit the earth. As Paul of Tarsus had explained in Romans chapter 4, in 1 Corinthians chapter 10, and in Galatians chapters 3 and 4 and elsewhere, the White nations of Europe which arose after the time of Abraham are the actual children of Jacob-Israel and the heirs to those promises. The first objective of Christian Identity should be, of course, to confirm the identity of the heirs of those promises in the world today, and the destiny which is assured to those same people in Biblical prophecy.

As for the other, non-White races, their creation is not mentioned in the Bible, and there is no plan for their benefit ever mentioned in the Bible. We only see the promised destruction of all of those who come into contact with the children of Israel, first in the historical books of Scripture as the Israelites had invaded the land of Canaan, and then in the prophetic books of Scripture where the Israelites were being scattered abroad. For instance, in Jeremiah chapter 30 the Word of Yahweh God promises, in reference to the children of Israel, that He would “make a full end of all nations” where He had scattered them, but that He would not make an end of them, instead only correcting them in their punishment. This promise is repeated in Jeremiah chapter 46. The Scripture relates a similar message in Isaiah chapter 41 where it says to the scattered children of Israel: “11 Behold, all they that were incensed against thee shall be ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing; and they that strive with thee shall perish. 12 Thou shalt seek them, and shalt not find them, even them that contended with thee: they that war against thee shall be as nothing, and as a thing of nought.”

As the apostle John had written to those having the promise of salvation: “we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness.” In the entire scripture, all of the promises of salvation are for the children of Israel, and there are no promises of salvation for any of the other so-called races. Honest theology is the study of the covenants and promises of God, and it may be referred to Covenant Theology, which is the only valid theology since the promises of God cannot be “made of none effect”. Unless, of course, one worships an entirely different god than Yahweh, the God of the Scriptures. In essence, Christian Identity is Covenant Theology identifying the parties to those covenants and promises in Scripture and in History, so it is the study of the fulfillment of Covenant Theology.

Since there is no plan for the other, non-White races in the Bible, to attempt to include them in the plan, or to imagine and create a plan for them, is to pretentiously add to the Word of God. Everything that God created is good, as it is described in Genesis chapters 1 and 2. But if the other races are not mentioned in those chapters, how can men imagine them to be good as well? In the parables and sayings of Christ found in the Gospel, there are good kinds and bad kinds, sheep which are preserved and goats which are destroyed, grapes and thorns, figs and thistles, wheat planted by Him and tares planted by the devil.

Are there people who were planted by the devil? What we are not told in Genesis, we are told in the Revelation of Jesus Christ. As Christ Himself had told us, He came to “utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.” In the Revelation, in chapter 12, we read: “9 And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.” That old serpent is that old serpent of Genesis chapter 3, who was a representative of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil which the Adamic man was not ever supposed to touch. But he did, and in his punishment when he planted his seed, thorns and thistles would spring up. These are the thorns and thistles which Christ warned against, from which men would gather neither grapes nor figs. Christ had also described these as the tares among the wheat, because the sons of Adam and the later children of Israel had accepted those branches of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil, producing those thorns and thistles. Therefore the later children of Israel were told that because they did not exterminate them, they would be thorns and pricks to them, in their eyes and in their sides.

The only illustration in Scripture which explains the origin of the non-Adamic races is Revelation chapter 12 and the early presence of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil, as opposed to the Tree of Life, which was already present in the Garden of God when Adam was created. This is how, as it is described in Revelation chapter 12, the serpent had the ability to cast a flood from its mouth for which to pursue the woman, because that flood is from that evil tree associated with the serpent in Genesis 3. So the apostle Peter speaks of the interlopers amongst the Adamic children of Israel, those spots in their feasts of charity, and calls them “natural brute beasts made to be taken and destroyed”, and referring to those same wicked men Jude likewise calls them “trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots...”

Many of the Judaized egalitarians who call themselves Identity Christians have accepted the old British Israel concept of Dominion Theology. This is a theology developed to promote imperialism, first put into practice by the Roman Catholic Church under the guidance of the Jesuits, but later adopted and adapted by British Israel believers to support the legitimacy of the structure of the British Empire. When the empire collapsed, it became evident that the British did not have a mandate to rule over the other races, and British Israel became a laughingstock, wholly discredited. Today it is even more so discredited because the other races, which were formerly subjects, are now running roughshod over Britain, and British Israel adherents have no sufficient answer for that development.

How is Christian Identity relevant in today's society? How can we help to steer Christian Identity down a path which is useful to our nation and race in these last days? By telling the truth about race, because the promises of God are for only one particular race, and because the promises of destruction are for all other races. If we do not face the entire truth concerning the issue of race, we cannot all “attain to the unity of the faith” to which Paul beckons us in Ephesians. But rather, we shall continue “being tossed as waves and carried about in every wind of teaching by the trickery of men, in villainy for the sake of the systematizing of deception”, as he had also described in that very epistle. But if we believe that Christian Identity is true, then we must by obligation provide the solid foundation for which to survive the trials that all of what was formerly known as Christendom now faces, or we fail in our mission for Christ.

However in the end Christ shall succeed, with us or without us. So where do we want to be?

Quoting from our recent presentation of the Epistle to the Ephesians, and somewhat edited:

Paul had told the Galatians, who were indeed a portion of the descendants of the Israelites that had been taken into captivity by the Assyrians eight centuries before that epistle was written, that “God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law, to redeem them that were under the law”, and all Israelites were at one time under the law of Yahweh their God. But because of their sins they were subject to judgment under that law after they had been alienated from God. However, in the Divine mercy which Yahweh had promised to the children of Israel, Paul also told them “24 Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. 25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.” Once the true faith of the Gospel is accepted, one is no longer an infant. Once the true faith of the Gospel is accepted, one no longer needs a schoolmaster, but should gladly endeavor to keep the commandments of God, as Christ Himself had said, “If you love Me, keep My commandments.”

The last commandment which Christ had given was that Christians must love one another, and they cannot do that while trying to love other races, for whom Christ had not come. He not gathering with Christ is a scatterer. Men should not attempt to gather grapes from thorns, or figs from thistles.

Once the true faith of the Gospel is accepted, it must be realized that the common bond of unity in the faith begins with the fact that the faith is only for those of the seed of Abraham through Jacob Israel, which is consistent with the words of the apostles and the prophets. As he described this very thing, Paul had said in Ephesians chapter 2 that the Body of Christ was founded upon the apostles and the prophets. Anything contrary to the Word of God in the promises to Abraham and the words of the prophets does not belong to the Gospel, but rather it belongs to the system of deception created by the enemies of God which is also spoken of by Paul in that epistle.

Reading the words of the apostles together with the prophets the Word of God presents a clear narrative focused on a particular family, beginning with the promises to Abraham that his seed would become many nations, and that they would inherit the earth. Examining that narrative, if we observe the words of the apostles and prophets then we must accept that the people who are the called in Christ were those whom the Old Testament informs us would be called, and that the saints are those whom the Old Testament informs us are saints. So Paul refers to the “family of the faith” as the “household of the mystery”, because up until Paul's time it was a mystery as to how those promises to Abraham were kept, and that was the mystery which Paul was commissioned to reveal. Therefore Paul had professed concerning this same faith, in Romans chapter 4, that the promise was indeed certain to all of the seed, meaning all of the people who descended from Abraham through Jacob Israel, as Paul explains in another way in Galatians chapter 3.

The prophet Daniel promises us that “the kingdom shall not be left to other people”, meaning to anyone other than the children of Israel. Therefore the Kingdom of God is meant for none but the children of Israel. Who should attempt to give it to other people? That man is a serpent and an adversary to God.

The Judaized egalitarians within Christian Identity would make the claim that the children of Israel are to convey the law to the other races, thereby being God's “servant race”. In truth, Yahweh had indeed called the children of Israel His servants, and they were His servants in order that they establish His Kingdom. However nowhere in Scripture is it written that His Kingdom would include the alien, non-Adamic races. In fact, they were never supposed to receive the law, and not even the other Adamic nations were given the law, as it says in Psalm 147: “19 He sheweth his word unto Jacob, his statutes and his judgments unto Israel. 20 He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his judgments, they have not known them. Praise ye the LORD.” There in that Psalm, we see the Psalmist praise Yahweh God for not giving the other nations His law. So the egalitarians within Christian Identity are little more than “Social Justice Warriors” attempting to rip the bread out of the hands of the children, casting it to the floor and calling it “crumbs”.

The laws of God commanded Israel to be a separate people, as we read in the words of Solomon in 1 Kings chapter 8: “For thou didst separate them from among all the people of the earth, to be thine inheritance, as thou spakest by the hand of Moses thy servant, when thou broughtest our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord GOD.” This commission has not changed, as Peter had likewise told his Christian audience that “ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people”, and the proof that he was writing to the anciently dispersed children of Israel is found in the verse which follows where he cited a passage from Hosea that can only concern the anciently dispersed Israelites: “Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.” These things were specifically prophesied of Israel in Hosea chapter 1, using that same language.

So how can the children of Israel teach the other so-called races the law while being a separate people? The two ideas cannot agree, and therefore one of them is false. In Genesis, the sons of Noah are told that “the fear of you and the dread of you shall be upon every beast of the earth,” and likewise the children of Israel were told, as it is in Joshua chapter 23, that “One man of you shall chase a thousand: for the LORD your God, he it is that fighteth for you, as he hath promised you.” In respect to this, Paul of Tarsus had written in his epistle to the Hebrews that by faith the ancient children of Israel had “subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.” If turning the armies of aliens to flight was no longer relevant in Christ, why would Paul even mention it as a feat performed out of faith? And if it was a feat performed out of faith back then, Paul himself offers it as an example for Christians today.

If King David was a type for Christ as King, as so many of the prophets admit, then we have Psalm 118 as our example in this same regard, where it says: “7 The LORD taketh my part with them that help me: therefore shall I see my desire upon them that hate me. 8 It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in man. 9 It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in princes. 10 All nations compassed me about: but in the name of the LORD will I destroy them. 11 They compassed me about; yea, they compassed me about: but in the name of the LORD I will destroy them. 12 They compassed me about like bees; they are quenched as the fire of thorns: for in the name of the LORD I will destroy them. 13 Thou hast thrust sore at me that I might fall: but the LORD helped me. 14 The LORD is my strength and song, and is become my salvation.”

As the camp of the saints is surrounded by the enemies of Christ, as the children of Israel are trodden down by all of those nations which Satan has gathered against them, this is the only salvation which the children of Israel can expect, as it says also in Luke chapter 1 that His purpose is “that we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us; to perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant”. This message is the Elijah message which Christ had said shall come before the coming of the Son of Man, which is described in Malachi chapter 4 where it is said that “he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers”. This is the only way that the Christian Identity message can be relevant in today's corrupted society.

Any other message regarding race actually accepts the false doctrines of Jewish egalitarianism, and to be accepting of the flood which has come forth from the mouth of the serpent: which is the presence of so many racial aliens throughout the nations once called Christendom. Any other message is to be lukewarm, where Christ had said in the Revelation, in chapter 3: “I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou were cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.” Being lukewarm is to compromise, and Scripture does not compromise.

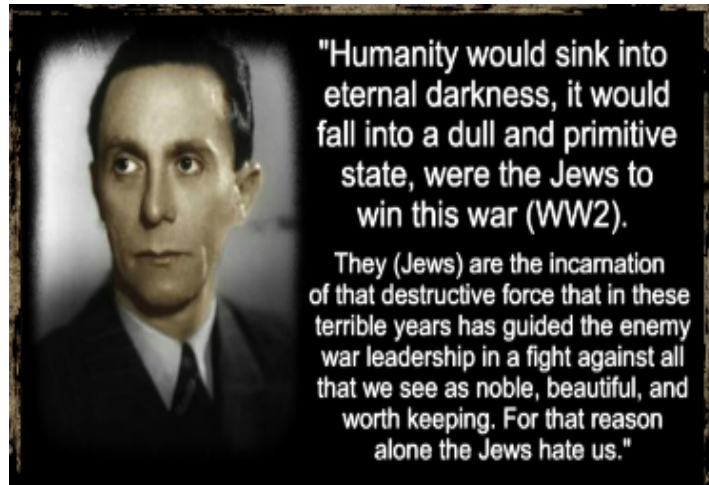

We who can articulate an understanding of Covenant Theology have an obligation imposed upon us by our understanding: we must help to prepare our race for the wedding supper of the Lamb. But we must also know and acknowledge that all of those who are not a party to Israel the bride shall be dinner for the beasts and the fowls of heaven, as it is described in Revelation chapter 19. Go read Revelation chapter 19. The Wedding Supper of the Lamb is not a party, but rather, it is described as a great war. As the Word of Yahweh our God promises in Obadiah 16, the other races, as well as the Jews, shall be as though they had not been. This is not only the proper Christian Identity objective, but is also the true Christian obligation.

As for Adolf Hitler, his war was our war. He fought against International Jewry in the defense of the German people, a people who would have been destroyed just as thoroughly in the decadence of Weimar and the designs of the Soviet Jews for world expansion. If we as a people are ashamed of Hitler, then the next step is that we should also be ashamed of the Word of our God and the Gospel of Christ. We should instead be joining in the fight against International Jewry, and defending the remnant of our race as it is today. That is the Christian struggle, even if Hitler himself did not understand it with that same perspective. The Social Justice Warriors within Christian Identity today deny the Biblical truth in relation to the alien races, and they also despise National Socialist Germany. And while we have no idols, we must not despise our fallen comrades. Rather, their resurrection is for the glory of our God.

In any event, whether we love Hitler or hate him, the Jews will label us as Nazis simply because we are Christians. So, like Hitler, even the Jews understand Christianity more than today's so-called theologians and clergymen.

To be victorious in this war, whether we ourselves see the end of it or not, then like Adolf Hitler, we too must keep our faith steadfast until the end, and never give up the fight even until death. But we must also have a clear vision, as to who the enemies of our race are, and who the people are who are being preserved in Christ. Of the ten virgins in the parable, five were prepared, and the other five were caught stranded in the markets, losing their opportunity to engage with the bridegroom because they had no oil for their lamps. We must not aspire to that same fate ■

Goebbels' Hope from a Christian Identity Perspective

William R Finck

A Christogenea Saturdays, March 5th 2016: Goebbels' Hope from a Christian Identity Perspective

Last night we made a presentation titled The Kingdom of Heaven, or the Elections of Men? In our last presentation here, a week ago, we discussed Hitler's War from a Christian Identity perspective. This presentation will continue some of the themes discussed in both of those prior programs.

Presenting Hitler's War from a Christian Identity Perspective, we saw that Adolf Hitler had correctly identified the war he was waging as a war for blood and race, and that the Jews wanted to destroy German racial integrity as well as desiring to control Germany and all the world economically. Hitler also correctly saw Bolshevism as a partner of Capitalism in the Jewish plan for world domination. So from a Christian Identity perspective, we must recognize that Hitler's war is also our war, and that it is still being fought even though the battle is not by the same means.

The ancient children of Israel were sent off into punishment nearly three thousand years ago for having forsaken their God, and in that punishment they grew into what became the later European society. We have no doubt that the Germanic and related nations are indeed the children of Israel who are destined to be reconciled to their God in Christ.

Those same children of Israel were also warned that only their God could deliver them from their enemies. That is the purpose of the New Covenant, where it says, in part, "That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us," as we may read in the first chapter of Luke. And while the New Testament Scriptures offer a blueprint which describes the path to that salvation, they have not yet been faithfully followed by men, and even then, they do not provide for any hope of that deliverance by the hands of men. As Yahweh said in Isaiah chapter 42, "And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them."

Adolf Hitler fought the right war, and he fought it out of immediate necessity. There is a greater lesson for our race in that war. But it was not necessarily fought in the way by which our God has determined the path of our salvation. We can pontificate all we want as to how and why Hitler's Germany suffered the defeat which it did, since it certainly appears to have fought on the side of righteousness, which we also believe. But understanding the Scripture, our deliverance cannot come at the hands of a man, not even a Godly man such as Adolf Hitler. When God gives a people up to punishment, no man is going to save us from Satan. When we turn to our God, the promise is that He will deliver us. So with everything in which Hitler was right, we have a lesson, and where Hitler had failed, we have a much more important lesson, but we will also fail unless we take it to heart.

Last night we attempted to express the challenges and troubles which would come if men want to free themselves from the satanic grip of World Jewry, and the futility of putting our hopes in an American politician. That politician may spark the flames of war once again, and perhaps if we repent of our sins, our God shall deliver us. But the politician himself will certainly not be our savior. So before we begin tonight, we must make a clarification: we are not promoting the idea that we should ever imitate the hope which Joseph Goebbels' had in Adolf Hitler. But on the other hand, if we are ever to prevail, we must have that same hope and more, in Jesus Christ.

And this is where we can find encouragement in Joseph Goebbels. He also understood the nature of the beast which National Socialist Germany had tried to overcome. He correctly believed that Germany was on the side of righteousness, and that Germany was waging a war against Satan himself. Identity Christians should agree with all of these things, or they are wanting in their studies and are still being misled by those same Jews. Now, the enemies of our race and our God label Joseph Goebbels as a liar, and as a fraud.

But in the end, history will reveal that Goebbels was true, and that his propaganda was designed to disseminate truths, and not lies. So those enemies falsely depict the hope which Goebbels had very consistently expressed right up to the end of the war. However the truth is that Joseph Goebbels was a man of faith, who actually believed that righteousness and justice would prevail. So for that reason, he believed right up to the end that Adolf Hitler would lead Germany to victory in the war, that because Germany was on the side of justice, that it would have the favor of God.

For our illustration of all of this, we shall read the speech made by Joseph Goebbels only 18 days before the Allies had declared victory in Europe. This speech was entitled Our Hitler, and a similar speech was made every year while the National Socialists were in power. This particular speech was made on April 20th, 1945. The translation which we read tonight is found at the German Propaganda Archive at Calvin University, a source which is not friendly to the National Socialist cause.

Our Hitler - Goebbels' 1945 Speech on Hitler's 56th Birthday

Source: This was printed in most remaining German newspapers on 20 April 1945.

German citizens!

At the moment of the war when — so it seems — all forces of hate and destruction have been gathered once again, perhaps for the final time, in the west, the east, the southeast, and the south, seeking to break through our front and give the death blow to the Reich, I once again speak to the German people on the eve of 20 April about the Führer, just as I have done every year since 1933. That has happened at good and bad times in the past. But never before did things stand on such a knife's edge, never before did the German people have to defend their very lives under such enormous danger, never before did the Reich have to draw on its last strength to protect its threatened self.

Times such as these are rare in history. They are unique and unparalleled for the fighting generation that must survive them. Historical events of similar nature and extent fade in our memory under the pain that we bear, under the sorrows that almost overwhelm us, under tortured questions about our own future and that of our brave, sorely-tested people...

This is not the time to speak of the Führer's birthday in the usual way or to present him with the usual best wishes. More must be said today, and by one who has won the right both from the Führer and the people. I have been at the Führer's side for more than twenty years. I have seen his rise and that of his movement from the smallest and most improbable beginnings up to the seizure of power [we wonder if the German original allows for a word other than seizure, as the National Socialists were elected to power], and gave my best efforts to them as well. I have shared joy and sorrow with the Führer, from unprecedented historic victories to the terrible setbacks in the remarkable years from 1939 until now. I stand beside him today as fate challenges him and his people with its last, most severe test. I am confident that fate will give him and his people the laurel wreath of victory. The fact that Germany yet lives, that Europe and the civilized world have not yet fallen into the dark abyss that looms before us, is thanks to him alone.

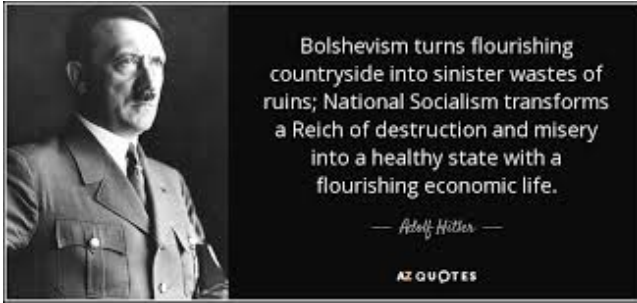

He will be the man of this century — who was sure of himself despite terrible pain and suffering — who showed the way to victory. He is the only one who remained true to himself, who did not cheaply sell his faith and his ideals, who always and without doubt followed his straight path toward his goal. That goal may today be hidden behind the piles of rubble that our hate-filled enemies have wrought across our once-proud continent, but which will once again shine before our burning eyes once the rubble has been cleared.

Goebbels would have done better to give God the credit for success, rather than Hitler. Nevertheless, here we see exhibitions of the hope which Goebbels maintained in the face of despair. As we hope to have demonstrated here recently, Hitler's goal certainly continues to lie before us, and the hope which Goebbels exhibited endures to this day, but not in the way in which Goebbels may have expected it. But what is more important a point to make, is that Goebbels portrays a Hitler who from his humble beginnings in the early 1920's and up to the precipice of defeat in 1945, as a man who had maintained the same course of action and was driven by the same determination and conviction in pursuit of the same ideals which he had always espoused. Of course, Hitler was not perfect, but his objectives and convictions were consistent from the beginning of his career to the end, unlike the vast majority of politicians who change course on a whim, have few firm convictions if any, and no clear vision of who they are, from whence they came, where they are going, and what they should stand for. Instead, they only stand for whatever vain ideas they think are popular with their supporters at any given time.

Goebbels continues:

Times like those we experience today demand more of a leader than insight, wisdom, and drive. They demand a toughness and endurance, a steadfastness of heart and soul, that appear only rarely in history, but that when they do appear produce the most admirable achievements of human genius. Burkhardt said in his Observations on World History: "The fates of people and of states, of entire civilizations, can depend on whether an extraordinary person can bring forth the proper strength of soul and action. Normal minds and spirits, no matter how numerous, cannot replace such a person."

Who can deny that only the Führer has the right to feel these words apply to him and his deeds in our and many coming generations? What can enemy statesmen say in response? They have nothing but superior numbers, their stupid and insane destructiveness and their diabolical lust for annihilation, behind which lurk the chaos of the collapse of civilized humanity. What has come of their loud and emotional theses of happiness, what of their Atlantic Charter and their Four Freedoms? Only hunger, misery, pestilence, and mass death. A whole raped part of the earth cries out against them. Once flourishing cities and villages in every nation of Europe have been transformed into fields of craters, and hundreds of thousands, even millions of women and children in the north, east, and southeast of the continent sigh and weep under the raging scourge of Bolshevism.

The objectives of the so-called “Four Freedoms” outlined in the 1941 State of the Union address by Franklin Roosevelt were only another political ploy by which to lure the innocent masses to their enslavement. After the war, and to this very day, nobody in Europe has freedom of speech, of worship, from want or from fear. In fact, much of Europe was handed over to the Soviets after the war, and had experienced little but oppression, while to this day there is no real freedom of speech anywhere in Europe. So the so-called “four freedoms” were really just empty platitudes and another empty promise from another vain American politician. Likewise, the objectives outlined in the Atlantic Charter, which was really only a joint policy statement issued by Britain and America in August of 1941, were also disregarded by the Allies even before 1945.

Continuing with Goebbels, where he rather justly refers to National Socialist Germany:

The most shining culture the earth has ever seen sinks in ruins and leaves only memories of the greatness of an age destroyed by satanic powers. The peoples are shaken by the most severe economic and social crises, which are but foretastes of the terrible events to come. Our enemies claim that the Führer’s soldiers marched as conquerors through the lands of Europe — but wherever they came, they brought prosperity and happiness, peace, order, reliable conditions, a plenitude of work, and therefore a decent life.

Our enemies claim their soldiers came to the same lands as liberators — but wherever they come there is poverty and misery, chaos, devastation and destruction, unemployment, hunger and mass death. And what remains of their so-called freedom is a life that no one would dare call decent even in the darkest corners of Africa.

In truth, throughout the East the German armies were seen by the common people as liberators all the way to the borders of Russia. But the Soviet forces recapturing lost territory left a path of destruction and reasserted Bolshevik tyranny. Goebbels continues:

Here is a clear broad outline of a program of construction that has proved itself useful, humane and beneficial, positive and forward-looking, in its own as well as in all the other lands of Europe. It stands against the fantasies of Jewish-Plutocratic-Bolshevist destruction. Here stands a man, sure of himself, having a clear and firm will, against the unnatural coalition of enemy statesmen who are only the lackeys and tools of this world conspiracy. Europe once had the choice between these two. It chose concealed anarchy, and must today pay for its mistake with million-fold agony. It will not have much time any more to choose its fate a second time. It is a matter of life or death!

The “concealed anarchy” to which Goebbels refers to seems to be a reference to the revolutions of the 19th century, where Jews had already begun to gain control of the European governments. However it may have also been a reference to the events of November, 1918. Now, as Goebbels asserts, if Europe is to maintain its nature, it must fight to the death. We now see the fruits of Germany's defeat, as all Europe is being overrun with aliens and many Germans are even inviting them, at the same time inviting the final destruction of European culture and racial integrity. Continuing with Goebbels:

A British newspaper wrote a few days ago that the result of the insane policies of the enemy powers would surely be a revolution of the European peoples against the Anglo-American plutocracy, and that Hitler was the man who was hindered by the same plutocracy through an unholy alliance with Asiatic Bolshevism as he began to bring Europe political and economic happiness. That is how it is, and nothing can whitewash our plutocratic enemies of their crimes.

This never happened as Goebbels wished, because after the war Europe was immediately divided into two camps, each camp being oppressed by its conquerors in different ways, and a false dichotomy of a cold war between “Capitalists” and “Communists” kept all of the West distracted for 50 years. It is only recently that we have seen any real public awareness of the nature of the “Anglo-American plutocracy”. In the meantime, the crimes of this plutocracy have been magnified many times beyond what Goebbels had witnessed. Next, Goebbels rather appropriately characterizes the nature of the battle:

Opposing this apparently all-powerful coalition of destructive satanic forces brings with it tests and burdens of superhuman nature, but that is not dishonorable — the opposite in fact! To bravely accept a battle that is unavoidable and inescapable, to wage it in the name of Divine Providence, to have confidence in it and its eventual blessing, to stand before fate with a pure conscience and clean hands, to bear all suffering and every test, never even thinking of being untrue to one's historic mission, never wavering even in the most difficult hours of the final battle — that is not only manly, it is also German in the best sense of the word! Would our people not accept this task and not fight for it as if it were the word of God, it would not deserve to live any longer, and would lose any possibility of further life.

To describe the challenges which Identity Christians should be willing to face today, I cannot do better than Joseph Goebbels did here. Today, we should understand that the battle against these same satanic world powers is indeed the Word of God. It is a battle which Christians everywhere should be willing to embrace, once we understand that only Identity Christians are truly Christian at all, and even though in the present age the real fighting has not yet begun, if we are not willing to face this battle, how could we deserve to live?

From Revelation chapter 2: “8 And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write; These things saith the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive; 9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan. 10 Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.”

From Revelation chapter 3: “7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth; 8 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name. 9 Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie;

behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee. 10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth. 11 Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.”

As Identity Christians, we claim to understand the anointing of God, and the true brotherly love which we should have for all those of our own White Adamic race. The word Smyrna means anointing, and the word Philadelphia means brotherly love. Therefore it is no mistake that these two churches were the only ones of the seven which were not criticized for wrongdoing. It is also no mistake that out of the messages to the seven churches, those made to these two churches had the warnings in reference to the false claims made of the identity of the Jews, who were not Judaeans at all, but who were indeed Edomite infiltrators, and the synagogue of Satan. Therefore we must face the battle which we are offered in the hour of temptation, and we will indeed have the crown. Goebbels continues discussing Germany's share of this battle:

What we experience today is the last act of a powerful drama that began on 1 August 1914 and which we Germans gave up on 9 November 1918 just before the end. That is why we had to begin again on 1 September 1939. What we hoped to spare ourselves in November 1918 we have paid for two- or threefold today. There is no escape — unless the German people surrenders any kind of decent human life and is ready to forever live in a way that would shame even the most primitive African tribes.

November 11th, 1918 marks the armistice signed between the Allies of World War I and Imperial Germany. But on November 9th Prince Maximilian of Baden, Chancellor of the Reich, betrayed the emperor Wilhelm II and handed over power to the Novemberists under Friedrich Ebert, which was the beginning of the Weimar Republic. Germany immediately conceded defeat to the Allies, but had never lost a battle on German soil. Many Germans, as Goebbels expressed here, thought that Germany was on the verge of victory. Prince Maximilian was acting on the offer of peace made in Woodrow Wilson's famous 14 Points, however that seems to have been a ploy, a Jewish bait-and-switch, because as soon as Germany conceded, Wilson turned his back on his own ideals, betraying Germany into the hands of the British and French and the oppressive Treaty of Versailles, which the Novemberists agreed to. The National Socialists rightly saw all of this as a betrayal of Germany, and sought to reverse it.

But Goebbels rightly attests here that if Germany had continued the fight in 1918, that it would not have faced the much more difficult battle against much greater odds in 1939. So the Germans who sought their own comfort and safety in 1918 were primarily responsible for the second great war. Of course, Goebbels was right. Neither the United States or the Soviet Union were as great a threat to Germany in 1918 than they were twenty years later. Those decades gave the plutocrats the opportunity to build up their own military capacity by which they overcame Germany. However, in 1918 Germany certainly had a better opportunity to defeat Britain and France, and deal with the Bolsheviks afterward.

Today we have a similar situation in the West. People want to elect a politician who will only maintain the status quo, so that they can dwell in their own comfort as our Western nations slowly fall into decay. Doing this, they are much like those Germans of 1918, who preferred economic slavery to the hardship of fighting for their liberty. Now we have Weimar Republics all over the place, because Christians would rather compromise with Satan, and the devils who rule over us get more and more powerful.

Continuing with Goebbels:

If it is manly and German as Führer of a great and brave people to depend wholly on oneself in this struggle, relying on one's own strength and certainty as well as the help of God in the face of an enemy who threatens with overwhelming numbers, to fight rather than to capitulate, then it is just as manly and German for a people to follow such a Führer, unconditionally and loyally, without excuse or reservation, to shake off all feelings of weakness and uncertainty, to trust in the good star that is above him and us all. This is all the more true when that star at times is covered by a black cloud. Misfortune must not make us cowardly, but rather resistant, never giving a mocking watching world the appearance of wavering. Rather than hoisting the white flag of surrender that the enemy expects, raise the old swastika banner of a fanatic and wild resistance, renewing the oath that we swore so often in the happy and safe days of peace [the 6 years from 1933 to 1939], thanking God again and again that He gave us a true leader for these terrible times, feeling bound in our hearts to his sorrows and trials, thus showing the enemy world that they can wound but not kill us, that they can beat us bloody but not force us down, torture us, but not demoralize us!

The victors of the war, in all of their propaganda disguising the true nature of the battle, have not informed us that the Soviet Union right from the beginning had planned and even boasted that it would make Bolshevik states out of every nation in Europe. They were attempting this as early as 1918 and 1919, and continued to make such threats and advances throughout the 1920's and 1930's. Adolf Hitler launched a strike against Russia because Stalin was preparing to invade Germany, hoping to fulfill the threats that the Bolsheviks had been making for two decades. Here Goebbels speaks as if all Germans understood that, because they did even if the facts are still overlooked in the West:

Is there a single German who disagrees? After six years of battle, could our people debase itself so low as to forget honor and duty, surrendering in the turmoil of the moment its holy and inalienable right to its great future for a pot of soup? Who would dare suggest that? Who holds us in such contempt that he believes that now, just as we stand before the final and decisive round of the war, we would be untrue to all our sworn ideals, that we would throw all our hopes for the future of our Reich overboard, giving up in the midst of the confusion of misfortune that has overcome us on ourselves, our land and people, and the lives of our children and children's children?

The world speaks of loyalty as a German virtue. How could our people have withstood the tests of this war without it, and how could it survive the war's coming end without it? For it is ending! The war is nearing its end. The insanity that the enemy powers have unleashed on humanity has gone beyond all bounds. The whole world feels only shame and disgust. The perverse coalition between plutocracy and Bolshevism is collapsing! Fate has taken the head of the enemy conspiracy. It is the same fate that the Führer escaped on 20 July 1944, amidst the dead, the wounded and the ruins, so that he could finish his work — through pain and trials it is true, but nonetheless as Providence ordained.

Roosevelt had died the week before this speech was given, and Goebbels is contrasting his death to the failed assassination attempt on Hitler when a suitcase bomb was exploded at the Wolf's Lair. When Hitler rather miraculously survived the explosion with only minor injuries, it was seen as a blessing and an omen of success for the German war effort. Goebbels continues:

Once more the armies of the enemy powers storm against our defensive fronts. Behind them is the slaving force of International Jewry that wants no peace until it has reached its satanic goal of world destruction.

But its hopes are in vain! As he has done so often before, God will throw Lucifer back into the abyss even as he stands before the gates of power over all the peoples. A man of truly timeless greatness, of unique courage, of a steadfastness that elevates the hearts of some and shakes those of others, will be his tool. Who will maintain that this man can be found in the leadership of Bolshevism or plutocracy? No, the German people bore him. It chose him, it by free election made him Führer. It knows his works of peace and now wants to bear and fight the war that was forced upon him until its successful end.

Here Goebbels properly characterized the world wars as the desire for world conquest by the satanic Jew. Therefore he believed that God would deliver Germany, because Germany stood against Satan in the battle for humanity. Adolf Hitler often expressed this same understanding, and characterized the international Jew in this same manner throughout his writings and speeches, from the beginning of his career to the end. Of course, Hitler and Goebbels were right, but that alone did not gain Germany the victory. Goebbels continues with his expressions of optimism:

Within a few years after the war, Germany will flourish as never before. Its ruined landscapes and provinces will be filled with new, more beautiful cities and villages in which happy people dwell. All of Europe will share in this prosperity. We will again be friends of all peoples of good will, and will work together with them to repair the grave wounds that scar the face of our noble continent. Our daily bread will grow on rich fields of grain, stilling the hunger of the millions who today suffer and starve. There will be jobs in plenitude, the deepest source of human happiness, from which will come blessing and strength for all. Chaos will vanish. The underworld will not rule this part of the world, but rather order, peace, and prosperity.

Goebbels was still hoping for victory, and his hope was the hope that God would give them that victory. This is the hope that all Identity Christians must have today: to withstand World Jewry and seek the peace and prosperity of God. Continuing with Goebbels:

That was always our goal! It is our goal today. If the enemy powers had their way, humanity would drown in a sea of blood and tears. War would follow war and revolution would follow revolution, finally destroying the last remnants of a world that was once beautiful and lovely, and that will be so again.

History has proved, and is, proving Goebbels to be correct in this aspect.

The Cold War, the Korean War, the Vietnam War, the Iraqi, Libyan and Syrian Wars, the threatened wars over the Ukraine and in Iran, and all the social upheavals and revolutions, the sexual revolution, the feminist revolution, the Civil Rights revolutions, it never ends and under World Jewry, and it never will. Goebbels continues:

But if we achieve our goals, the project of social construction begun in Germany in 1933 and [which] was rudely interrupted in 1939 will be taken up again with renewed strength. Other peoples will join in — not because we force them to, but rather of their own free will — because there is no other way out of the world crisis. Who could show the way save the Führer! His work is the work of order. His enemies have only a devil's work of anarchy and devastation to set against his work.

And here we must differ, because Christ had shown us the way. But because we forsook it once again, Germany and all the world are under the control of Satan. We can only turn to Christ for salvation, and until we do, all the efforts of men shall fail.

German history is not rich in great statesmen. But where one has appeared he usually had something to say and give, not only to his own people, but to the world. What would there be European about Europe had not German kaisers and kings, counts and generals and their armies repeatedly withstood the onslaughts from the east! [Mongols, Turks, etc.] Usually only a disunited continent stood behind them that either did not understand or even fell upon Germany in the midst of its saving work for Europe. [The French especially, even allying themselves with the Turks against the Germans.] Why should it be any different today? At the present state of things, which the war is just before, or perhaps even in the midst of, a peripeteia, it is difficult to understand this great battle between peoples. [Peripeteia is a Greek word describing a sudden change of fortune. Right up to the end, Goebbels is expecting such a change in favor of Germany.] One thing, however, can no longer be disputed: If there had been no Adolf Hitler, if Germany had been led by a government like those in Finland, Bulgaria, or Rumania, it would long since have become the prey of Bolshevism. Lenin once said the path to world revolution leads through Poland and the Reich. Poland is already in the possession of the Kremlin, despite all the attempts of the Anglo-Americans to conceal it. If Germany had followed, or would follow, what would become of the rest of our continent?

This was the plan of World Jewry since at least the dawn of the 19th century: to envelope Christendom in a dichotomy between Democratic Capitalism and Marxist Communism, dividing and conquering for the ultimate ascendancy of World Jewry. Goebbels continues:

To ask the question is to answer it. The Soviets would probably already be at the Atlantic coast, and England sooner or later would receive its just reward for its betrayal of Europe that finds its most wretched expression in its marriage with Bolshevism. In the United States too, one would soon think differently of the dreadful world phenomenon that a Jewish press entirely and fully conceals from the American public.

The Jewish press was portraying the Soviet Union as a worker's paradise throughout the 1920's and 1930's, concealing all of the crimes of the Bolsheviks, and in spite of the fact that official reports prove that the governments of Britain and the United States were fully aware of both the horrific nature of Bolshevism, and the Jewish nature of those who brought us Bolshevism. The British and Americans then allied themselves with Stalin against Germany, even though they were fully aware of the murderous nature of Stalin's regime in the Soviet Union, and all the crimes against humanity which he had committed. But Communism was, in fact, just another agent of the Rothschilds. Goebbels continues:

If the world still lives, and not only our world but the rest of it as well, whom has it to thank other than the Führer? It may defame and slander him today, persecuting him with its base hatred, but it will have to revise this standpoint or bitterly regret it! He is the core of resistance to the collapse of the world. He is Germany's bravest heart and our people's most passionate will. I permit myself to make a judgment that must be made today: If the nation still breaths, if it still has the chance of victory, if there is still an escape from the deadly danger it faces — it is thanks to him. He is steadfastness itself. I have never seen him fail or falter, or weaken or tire. He will go his way to the end, and there awaits not the end of his people, but rather a new and happy beginning to an era in which Germandom will flourish as never before.

Goebbels was right, but salvation will not come by the hands of man, and for that reason Hitler did not prevail.

Listen, Germans! Millions of people look to this man from every land on the earth, still doubting and questioning whether he knows the way out of the great misfortune that has befallen the world. He will show the peoples that way, but we look to him full of hope and with a deep, unshakable faith. We stand behind him with fortitude and courage: soldier and civilian, man, woman and child — a people determined to do all to defend its life and honor. He may look his enemies in the eye, for we promise him that he does not need to look behind him. We will not waver or weaken. We will never desert him, no matter how desperate and dangerous the hour. We stand with him, as he stands with us — in Germanic loyalty as we have sworn, as we shall fulfill. We do not need to tell him, for he knows and must know: Führer command! — We will follow! We feel him in us and around us. God give him strength and health and preserve him from every danger. We will do the rest.

Here, in spite of his references to God, Goebbels attributes to Hitler a position which Christians should reserve for Christ. So Goebbels concludes:

Our misfortune has made us mature, but not robbed us of our character. Germany is still the land of loyalty. It will celebrate its greatest triumphs in the midst of danger. Never will history record that in these days a people deserted its Führer or a Führer deserted his people. And that is victory. We have often wished the Führer in happy times our best on this evening. Today in the midst of suffering and danger, our greeting is much deeper and more profound. May he remain what he is to us and always was — Our Hitler!

Adolf Hitler was a Godly and pious man. His writings and his speeches prove beyond doubt that he had faith in God, and that he was well aware of the machinations of the enemies of God by which they were engaged in subverting all of Christian society. But he was not God. Joseph Goebbels, in the position which he had in National Socialist Germany, was obliged to extol the virtues of Germany's leader and excite the people into rallying behind that leader. So while Goebbels had proclaimed adoration for Hitler which seems to have bordered on worship, even he was careful to describe a Hitler and a Germany under God. And while the propaganda of Goebbels was quite effective, and most every German did indeed rally behind Hitler, but that still did not give Germany the victory.

But the lesson we should see in this is clear: that in the face of incredible odds, and even in the clutches of defeat, Joseph Goebbels maintained his faith steadfastly until the end, and in this, he will eventually be vindicated; ultimately he will have the victory. Today, whether we happen to like it or not, we must stand with Hitler and Goebbels in the same battle against world Jewish supremacy. If we are to prevail in the end, we too must have that same faith which Goebbels exhibited here, but we must have it in Yahshua Christ, and not in any man. Having one element of the battle will not give us the victory, unless we also possess the other element of the battle, because vengeance belongs to God, and when we finally obtain it, only God will get the credit. While Hitler and Goebbels understood the nature of the enemy, they did not know who they were themselves, and why their nation was being tried in the fire as it was. Identity Christians assert their knowledge of those things, and therefore, as Peter had written in his second epistle, “We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts”■

Christian Expectations

William R Finck

Christogenea Saturdays, March 12th, 2016: Christian Expectations

Tonight we are going to present some Bible basics, and concerning this, all Identity Christians should be on the same page. However sadly, many are not. Tonight is going to be an evening where I repeat myself often, because I hope to present several different chapters from the scriptures which also repeat the same things. They can be summarized like this: that we as a people, the formerly Christian nations, are being tried by the enemies of our God, who has permitted this for our sins which He long ago had foreseen, and there is only one way out of this trial, and that is by the same path that has long ago been spelled out in Scripture. Should we really think that we can change things for the better with an election? The Scriptures tell us no such thing, and, in fact, indicate quite the opposite. We are never going to vote ourselves out of our current predicament, and the longer we try the worse it will get.

In our last few programs here, we presented Adolf Hitler's final speech, where he had summarized some of the reasons why Germany was forced to war in 1939, and we hope to have explained that the cause of National Socialist Germany is the same cause which Identity Christians also have. Hitler's war should therefore be our war, in spite of the fact that our fathers fought on the wrong side of it, and many of our people still do. We also presented Joseph Goebbels' last speech, intending to show that even if Germany had no hope to win, Goebbels' remained hopeful, and maintained to the end the conviction that God and justice would indeed prevail over Satan, the international Jew.

Last night, presenting the latter part of chapter 2 of Paul's epistle to the Colossians, we discussed the observation that so many Identity Christians are correctly persuaded that we should endeavor to follow the laws of Yahweh our God, but then on the other hand they often also intermingle a lot of the concepts of right and wrong from the greater society, or from their own personal judgment of things transpiring in society, whether good or bad. So they are really not following Yahweh's law in the degree which they may imagine. The laws of Yahweh our God are not merely for personal governance, nor are they only for church. Rather, the Biblical law outlines the plan for governance of the coming Kingdom of Heaven, and Christians should seek to live by it and establish it now. As Christ had said "If you love Me, keep My commandments."

We also had recently done a program entitled *The Kingdom of Heaven, or the Elections of Men?* Some of our listeners did not fully appreciate this program, as some strong positions were stated concerning Christianity and national politics, and especially the current political drama unfolding here in America, assuming that Donald Trump continues to lead in the voting for the Republican party Presidential nomination. Back to the Goebbels program. While attempting to express the faith which Joseph Goebbels had that ultimately, justice would prevail in world events even if Germany lost the war, we stated that Identity Christians should indeed have that same hope, and with even more certainty. In regard to this we quoted the apostle Peter, from his second epistle where he said that “We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts.”

Tonight, we shall begin with our discussion from that very point, and therefore this program is titled Christian Expectations.

If there is no God, then none of this matters. I do not matter, you do not matter, your listening to this is vain, and as the sinners are portrayed in Isaiah: “let us eat and drink; for to morrow we shall die.” But if there is a God, He shall not be mocked, and in the end, His Creation shall indeed be preserved. Our only question is, just how it will be preserved. Of course, all Identity Christians are fully confident that there is indeed a God, and therefore justice will ultimately prevail.

As we have often professed over the course of the hundreds of presentations of the Scripture which have been offered here, the Biblical prophecies do not exist so that we can see the future. But rather, they exist so that when they have been fulfilled, reading the prophets it may be revealed to us that God is true and His Word is certain. But once we properly identify the parties of Scripture, the children of God and the children of the devil, and the prophecies which have thus far been clearly fulfilled, we can have a certain expectation of what is to come.

Writing in the middle of the second century, Irenaeus, the early Christian bishop of Lugdunum in Gaul, had said in chapter 26 of Book 5 of his voluminous work Against Heresies that, as the chapter summary goes, “John and Daniel have predicted the dissolution and desolation of the Roman Empire, which shall precede the end of the world and the Eternal Kingdom of Christ”. Looking back, we can see that Irenaeus understood the prophecies of John, probably referring to Revelation chapters 4 through 6, and Daniel, probably referring to Daniel chapter 2, and perhaps chapter 7, very well in this regard. And not only that, but he professed that understanding three hundred years before Rome actually fell, at a time when Rome was at the very near height of its power. Except for the Word of God, no man in his right mind could have predicted the end of the mighty Romans Empire at the time that Irenaeus was writing these things in his interpretation of Daniel and John. And while Irenaeus did not live to see it, he certainly had a sound Christian expectation of what was to come. We also, can have this same expectation.

But before we know what to expect, we must know where we now stand. It takes many years of the study of history and Biblical prophecy to arrive at any serious conclusions in this regard, which is far beyond what we are able to do here for a single presentation. We already have a series of discussions of which the purpose was to exhibit our own studies in those areas, and a book which expresses the result, which we called Christreich. All we can say here, is that while Irenaeus certainly saw the fall of Rome in Daniel and the Revelation, he did not very well see what was to follow after, which we can better see from our perspective. Taking Irenaeus’ perspective and looking back, we can meet him at that point in his interpretation where he had been correct in his assessment of prophecy.

So interpreting Daniel chapters 2, 7 and 8, and Revelation chapters 7 through 17, after the fall of Rome we see the rise to world dominance of the nations of the Germanic people, and the 1,260 years of the supremacy of John’s second beast described in Revelation chapter 13, which is evidently the papacy of Rome. Concurrently, we see in Revelation chapter 12 that the woman was nourished with the Gospel for 1,260 years, after which the serpent would send out a flood to drown the woman. Ostensibly, this is the same flood described in Revelation chapter 20 as the armies from the four quarters of the earth which Satan would gather against the camp of the saints.

In Revelation chapter 17 there appears a great whore, and we can identify the whore as the collective children of Israel who had previously been described as the woman of Revelation chapter 12. Then we see a depiction of the great beast that she is joined to, and something happened in the late Middle Ages whereby the woman became a whore and the kingdoms of Christendom were turned over to a system controlled by a beast.

This we can see as Global Capitalism, of which Global Communism is a fully-owned subsidiary, and it belongs to Satan: the international Jew. In that chapter we see a description of seven kings, which are the seven previous Adamic world empires, and an eighth which is of the seven, which is controlled by world Jewry and the beast of Revelation chapter 17. And at the end of Revelation chapter 17 we read, in part, of horns of the beast which hate the woman and it says of those horns: “17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled.” So in Revelation chapter 18, the global system of governance and commerce which is put into place by the beast is called Mystery Babylon, and this is where we stand today.

Collectively, the children of Israel are represented in the Revelation at first as a woman, and then as a whore, because she had joined herself to this beast. Ostensibly, that joining was done voluntarily, and we have seen this unfold before our own eyes over these last couple of centuries. For this reason it is the woman who wears the name of this beast, “Mystery Babylon the Great, the Mother of Harlots and Abominations of the Earth.” And while the Kingdoms of Christendom are in the hands of the beast to which the woman had joined herself, we have an assurance, found in Daniel chapter 7, “27 And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him. 28 Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my cogitations much troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart.” This corresponds with Daniel chapter 2, where it speaks of the Germanic tribes which had destroyed Irenaeus’ Rome, and it says: “44 And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.”

Revelation chapter 17 depicts a woman joined to a beast, the ten horns which belong to the beast, the hatred which the ten horns have for the woman, and the attempt by those horns to destroy the woman, where it says: “And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.” Evidently, the way that the beast accomplishes this is through that same flood from the mouth of the serpent which is meant to persecute the woman, which are the nations from the four quarters of the earth that Satan gathers against the camp of the saints.

We belabor these things for a signal reason: because all of these poetically written visions so perfectly describe the condition of our White race as it is today. Therefore, how sure a word of prophecy do we need before we are convinced, that if all of these words of our God have unfolded so precisely, that the rest will also unfold precisely. So we should seek to stand with our God, as it is also described, speaking of those same ten horns of Revelation 17, that “These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.”

The Revelation represents a series of visions which do not necessarily follow one another chronologically, however there is a general chronological progression, and then every so often there is a summary vision. Again, we would need a long explanation to prove this, and we have already presented that in Christreich. Summary visions in the Revelation are given in chapter 13, and again in chapter 20, where in part we read: “7 And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison, 8 And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. 9 And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them. 10 And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.” We would assert that this vision represents the most recent stage of world history, where Satan, the Jew, was emancipated from the ghettos of Europe, and has now deceived the whole world. No doubt, it is the same Jew who is gathering the nations against the White race as we speak.

But there is a much longer version of this same prophecy found in Ezekiel chapter 38, and, after the manner of the Hebrew literary technique called parallelism, another version in Ezekiel chapter 39. First, note this: Ezekiel’s prophecy is only timed with phrases such as “after many days”, but the same language is repeated in Revelation chapter 20, so we are confident that this vision is for the present time. It was given while Ezekiel was in the Assyrian captivity of Israel, which we know because that is what the prophet told us in the opening of his prophecy, and it has not been fulfilled until now, except that it is absolutely manifest that at present it is beginning its fulfillment, once the parties of Scripture are properly identified.

Ezekiel 38: 1 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 2 Son of man, set thy face against Gog, the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him, 3 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal: 4 And I will turn thee back, and put hooks into thy jaws, and I will bring thee forth, and all thine army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed with all sorts of armour, even a great company with bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords: 5 Persia, Ethiopia, and Libya with them; all of them with shield and helmet: 6 Gomer, and all his bands; the house of Togarmah of the north quarters, and all his bands: and many people with thee. 7 Be thou prepared, and prepare for thyself, thou, and all thy company that are assembled unto thee, and be thou a guard unto them. 8 After many days thou shalt be visited: in the latter years thou shalt come into the land that is brought back from the sword, and is gathered out of many people, against the mountains of Israel, which have been always waste: but it is brought forth out of the nations, and they shall dwell safely all of them. 9 Thou shalt ascend and come like a storm, thou shalt be like a cloud to cover the land, thou, and all thy bands, and many people with thee. 10 Thus saith the Lord GOD; It shall also come to pass, that at the same time shall things come into thy mind, and thou shalt think an evil thought: 11 And thou shalt say, I will go up to the land of unwalled villages; I will go to them that are at rest, that dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates, 12 To take a spoil, and to take a prey; to turn thine hand upon the desolate places that are now inhabited, and upon the people that are gathered out of the nations, which have gotten cattle and goods, that dwell in the midst of the land. 13 Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions thereof, shall say unto thee, Art thou come to take a spoil? hast thou gathered thy company to take a prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take a great spoil? 14 Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say unto Gog, Thus saith the Lord GOD; In that day when my people of Israel dwelleth safely, shalt thou not know it? 15 And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts, thou, and many people with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army: 16 And thou shalt come up against my people of Israel, as a cloud to cover the land; it shall be in the latter days, and I will bring thee against my land, that the nations may know me, when I shall be sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes. 17 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Art thou he of whom I have spoken in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those days many years that I would bring thee against them? 18 And it shall come to pass at the same time when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, that my fury shall come up in my face. 19 For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel; 20 So that the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall shake at my presence, and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground. 21 And I will call for a sword against him throughout all my mountains, saith the Lord GOD: every man's sword shall be against his brother. 22 And I will plead against him with pestilence and with blood; and I will rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and great hailstones, fire, and brimstone. 23 Thus will I magnify myself, and sanctify myself; and I will be known in the eyes of many nations, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 39:1 Therefore, thou son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal: [Now, there is contention over the translation of verse 2, which the Geneva and King James translations are in grave error. Here we will supply it from the New American Standard Bible, which agrees also with the Greek Septuagint and Luther's Bible: 2 and I shall turn you around, drive you on, take you up from the remotest parts of the north, and bring you against the mountains of Israel.] 3 And I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrows to fall out of thy right hand. 4 Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel, thou, and all thy bands, and the people that is with thee: I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field to be devoured. 5 Thou shalt fall upon the open field: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD. 6 And I will send a fire on Magog, and among them that dwell carelessly in the isles: and they shall know that I am the LORD. 7 So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not let them pollute my holy name any more: and the nations shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel. 8 Behold, it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord GOD; this is the day whereof I have spoken. 9 And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the handstaves, and the spears, and they shall burn them with fire seven years: 10 So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall burn the weapons with fire: and they shall spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord GOD. 11 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto Gog a place there of graves in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea: and it shall stop the noses of the passengers: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude: and they shall call it The valley of Hamongog. 12 And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying of them, that they may cleanse the land. 13 Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a renown the day that I shall be glorified, saith the Lord GOD. 14 And they shall sever out men of continual employment, passing through the land to bury with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search. 15 And the passengers that pass through the land, when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamongog. 16 And also the name of the city shall be Hamonah. Thus shall they cleanse the land. 17 And, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD; Speak unto every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh, and drink blood. 18 Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bullocks, all of them fatlings of Bashan. 19 And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you. 20 Thus ye shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord GOD. 21 And I will set my glory among the nations, and all the nations shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid upon them. 22 So the house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God from that day and forward. 23 And the nations shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity: because they trespassed against me, therefore hid I my face from them, and gave them into the hand of their enemies: so fell they all by the sword. 24 According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions have I done unto them, and hid my face from them. 25 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Now will I bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the whole house of Israel, and will be jealous for my holy name; 26 After that they have borne their shame, and all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against me, when they dwelt safely in their land, and none made them afraid. 27 When I have brought them again from the people, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations; 28 Then shall they know that I am the LORD their God, which caused them to be led into captivity among the nations: but I have gathered them unto their own land, and have left none of them any more there. 29 Neither will I hide my face any more from them: for I have poured out my spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

If we examine the language of Ezekiel chapter 39, and compare it to Revelation chapter 19, we see that the descriptions are in many ways identical. It then becomes evident, that the feast of sacrifice in Ezekiel

39 is indeed the Marriage Supper of the Lamb which is described in Revelation chapter 19. But before discussing that, we shall discuss another parallel vision, found in Micah chapter 4:

Micah 4:1 But in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it. 2 And many nations shall come, and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. 3 And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. 4 But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it. 5 For all people will walk every one in the name of his god, and we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever. 6 In that day, saith the LORD, will I assemble her that halteth, and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted; 7 And I will make her that halted a remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation: and the LORD shall reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth, even for ever. 8 And thou, O tower of the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem. 9 Now why dost thou cry out aloud? is there no king in thee? is thy counsellor perished? for pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail. 10 Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail: for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Babylon; there shalt thou be delivered; there the LORD shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies. 11 Now also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zion. 12 But they know not the thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they his counsel: for he shall gather them as the sheaves into the floor. 13 Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion: for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth.

So there is a point where the daughter of Zion, the nations which were formed when the ancient children of Israel were cast out of Palestine by Yahweh their God, would be called to “arise and thresh” in response to those “many nations gathered against” her, who would defile her when pangs overtake her as a woman in travail. This same point is evident in another place, in Revelation chapter 18:

Revelation 18: 1 And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory. 2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird. 3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies. 4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. 5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities. 6 Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double.

So after the fall of Mystery Babylon, the children of God are told to separate themselves, and to “reward her even as she rewarded you”, and this must be that same call which we saw in Micah where it says “Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion”. In the balance of this chapter of the Revelation, we see a description of mourning by the kings and the merchants of the earth for their lost trade, and a description of the lost merchandise, and it concludes that “in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.” So we see the connection to World Jewry once again, as Christ had blamed the Jews of His Own time for these same crimes, in Luke chapter 11 where He said to them “that the blood of all the prophets spilled from the foundation of the Society should be required from this race, from the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zacharias who was killed between the altar and the house. Yeah, I say to you, it shall be required from this race!”

This is the Christian expectation: to see this Global Capitalist system fail, and once it does, to be one of those who gets to do the threshing, to see the Jews who have tried to establish themselves as gods go up in flames once and for all. That should be the foremost hope in the heart of every Identity Christian.

The description of the Marriage Supper of the Lamb parallels the visions of Ezekiel and Micah, where it also speaks of the aftermath of the fall of

Marriage Supper of the Lamb

Mystery Babylon: Revelation 19:1 And after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia; Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God: 2 For true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand. 3 And again they said, Alleluia. And her smoke rose up for ever and ever. 4 And the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen; Alleluia. 5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great. 6 And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth. 7 Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready. 8 And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints. 9 And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God. 10 And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy. 11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war. 12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself. 13 And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God. 14 And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean. 15 And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. 16 And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS. 17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God; 18 That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great. 19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army. 20 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone. 21 And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.

At this point only do we see the fulfillment of what was written in Obadiah, “15 For the day of the LORD is near upon all the heathen: as thou hast done, it shall be done unto thee: thy reward shall return upon thine own head. 16 For as ye have drunk upon my holy mountain, so shall all the heathen drink continually, yea, they shall drink, and they shall swallow down, and they shall be as though they had not been. 17 But upon mount Zion shall be deliverance, and there shall be holiness; and the house of Jacob shall possess their possessions. 18 And the house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble, and they shall kindle in them, and devour them; and there shall not be any remaining of the house of Esau; for the LORD hath spoken it.” Satan here is represented by the Edomite Jew, and all the heathen are all of those nations which Satan has gathered against the Camp of the Saints. In the end, as it is described in Ezekiel, the nations which see that the house of Israel was sanctified in the sight of Yahweh their God are those same Israelite nations, as there will be no others. As Obadiah informs us, they shall be as though they had not been. That is the purpose of the Marriage Supper of the Lamb, to fulfill the same promise which was made in Jeremiah: “11 For I am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee: though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, yet will I not make a full end of thee: but I will correct thee in measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished.”

This is our Christian Expectation: we wait for Mystery Babylon to fall, we would help it along if we only could, and we hope that after it does, we are still around to help partake in the promised vengeance against the system, and against Satan and his minions, which are all of these non-White races currently flooding into the White nations. They are all coming here to die, and we hope to see the end of them.

But this will not happen with an election. Elections are not a promise of our Christian hope. If you put your hope in a man for salvation, you turn your back on God, and that can be likened to idolatry. Now, I would not go so far as to label someone an idolater just for the act of voting, however if you vote because you hope a particular candidate is going to put the plan of God into effect, then you are also attesting a belief that God needs your help, or the help of a candidate, to fulfill His promises.

Every four years, well-meaning people think that they can help God, by promoting just the right Presidential candidate to “get us out of this mess”. For the last couple of election cycles, it was Ron Paul, who was going to audit the Federal Reserve, as if that is actually a solution for anything. Does anyone really imagine that Mystery Babylon will fall because the Federal Reserve does not withstand the scrutiny of an audit? Who is going to do the auditing? Another Jewish-controlled accounting firm? And what can they audit when there is no standard for what there should be? The money is not real, only except that people are led to believe that it is real, which is also an element of the modern Baal religion.

Some people have posited the idea that Donald Trump might be the catalyst precipitating the fall of Babylon. But even if that is the case, we should be campaigning for Babylon’s fall, rather than for Donald Trump, educating our people as to what is wrong with this system, and what we must do to be found on the right side of Justice in the end. Babylon is not going to fall with an audit, with a fence, with enforced green cards and immigration quotas, or with a renegotiation of NAFTA, or with any other trivial issue which may or may not be a part of any particular candidate’s campaign promises. Babylon is sure as hell not going to fall with an election, and if Yahweh our God wanted a particular candidate to win, even the niggers would be voting for that candidate. So He would not need us. But only Yahweh is going to make Babylon fall, and Identity Christians have better be prepared for what to do when it does fall, or they too will suffer its punishments.

So here is the real issue: Do we campaign for Ron Paul? Do we campaign for Donald Trump? Or do we campaign for Christ by informing our people of what is really going on? As Himself Christ had said, no man can serve two masters. No man can honestly serve competitive interests. Campaigning for Donald Trump, we neglect to take our God seriously, and we join in with all of the godless bastards and secular so-called white nationalists who have no faith in God, but would rather put their faith in a man like Donald Trump. Is that really where we should be found? Oh, Jesus ain’t really coming, so I am going to hedge my bet with this Jew-loving casino owner, because he talks a good schtick? We cannot have that attitude and still take our faith seriously, and if we do not take our faith seriously, how can we ever expect to win over the hearts of our people?

Trump might be good comedy, but that is all he is. He might be a little better than Hillary Clinton, but our feminized society deserves Hillary Clinton, the feminist hag. In the end, if Trump does win, he will leave White Nationalists looking either stupid or hopeless, and which one it is I cannot yet tell, but that would also serve our God because without Him, we are stupid and hopeless.

Yahweh has promised, in 2 Chronicles chapter 7, that “14 If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.” So do we think a Presidential candidate will solve for us the Jewish question? No, only fire come down from heaven will do that. How about the Nigger problem? The Mestizo problem? No, only repentance and an appeal to Yahweh our God can solve those, and once we repent, perhaps He will pave the way to solving those problems and all others, but it won’t be by election. We should be campaigning for one thing only: the truth of our God and His Christ ■

The Bible

William R Finck

While it is barely evident in Scripture, once upon a time the White Adamic race lived under the rule of something which the Bible later calls the Melchisedek priesthood. The word Melchisedek basically means Righteousness is my King. That this priesthood was represented in the natural patriarchy of man is evident in places such as 2 Peter chapter 2 where the apostle refers to Noah as “the eighth proclaimer of righteousness”, as well as in the contextual progression of the Biblical accounts in which a patriarchal society is clearly portrayed. This Melchisedek priesthood is mentioned in Psalms and in Paul's epistle to the Hebrews, and we are informed in both the prophecy and the epistle that Jesus Christ Himself is the new Melchisedek priest. Of course, Jesus Christ being the first-born among many brethren and being Yahweh God incarnate, He alone is the ultimate patriarch of our White Adamic race.

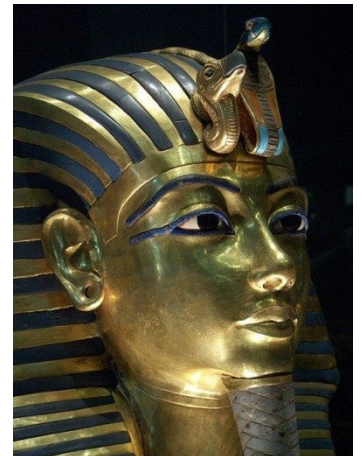

In Genesis chapter 10, some time between the reestablishment of the Adamic oikoumenê after the flood of Noah and the call of Abraham which came over 1,200 years later, a descendant of Ham named Nimrod merited special mention among the families of Genesis 10 because he had asserted rule over the others of his kindred. There we read: “8 And Cush begat Nimrod: he began to be a mighty one in the earth. 9 He was a mighty hunter before the LORD: wherefore it is said, Even as Nimrod the mighty hunter before the LORD. 10 And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar. 11 Out of that land went forth Asshur, and builded Nineveh, and the city Rehoboth, and Calah, 12 And Resen between Nineveh and Calah: the same is a great city.” The land of Nimrod's empire was later called the land of Cush in Scripture, after Nimrod's father. Ostensibly, at its height it encompassed Mesopotamia and extended to the border of Egypt.

During this time, the serpent had become a symbol of kingship not only in Egypt, but also in Sumer, Akkad and among the Hittites.

The Canaanite tribes had become very influential in the later manifestations of the empire of Nimrod, and around the same time that Abraham was called out of Ur of the Chaldees, nearby Babylon was being ruled by Canaanite kings. The twelve hundred years between the flood of Noah and the call of Abraham were anything but peaceful. They were racked by competitive wars between the Amorites, Amalekites, Horites, Hittites, Egyptians, Syrians, Elamites, Sumerians and Assyrians, as well as others. It is evident from both the Bible and Mesopotamian literature that Rephaim (“Giants”) such as Gilgamesh and Og of Bashan had come to rule over the cities of Mesopotamia and the Levant.

Abraham was, basically, called out of the mess which the ancient world had become because Nimrod and his successors had abandoned the way of Righteousness. Esteeming themselves to be gods and asserting rule by force over their fellow men. With the entire Adamic world abandoning Yahweh, Abraham was told that his seed would inherit the world, and believing God he was justified. We can trace the sons of Abraham through history to find that this promise has long ago been fulfilled, although some of his descendants mixed with the world's other races contrary to God's law, and that mixing has caused them to be cursed rather than blessed. The beginnings of those curses are recorded in the Bible.

Therefore the promises to Abraham were passed down to Jacob and his twelve sons, who at that time were only a tiny portion of the much greater Adamic race. The assurance that apart from Abraham's other sons they would be the rightful heirs of the promises to Abraham were also apart from any obligations of their own. The promises were unconditional because the promise to Abraham was unconditional. However subsequent to those promises, the children of Israel were offered a Kingdom, and with that Kingdom they were assured world hegemony and perpetual peace based on the concept that Yahweh God would be their King, that they would keep His Law, and with God as their King they would rule the world which they inherited.

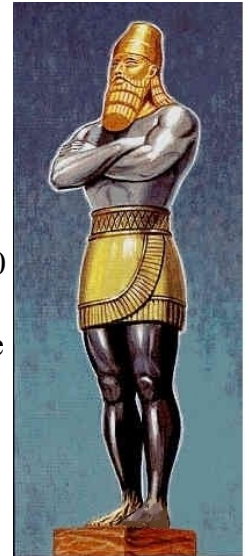

To one degree or another, the children of Israel lived in this manner until the days of Samuel. However when they saw that the sons of Samuel were unrighteous, rather than turning to God they sought an earthly king, as the other nations which surrounded them had earthly kings. At the time, these other nations were mostly Canaanite successors to various portions of the empire of Nimrod. Samuel was troubled, but Yahweh told him that He would indeed allow them an earthly king, not because they rejected Samuel or his sons, but because in reality they had rejected God Himself. This is recorded in 1 Samuel chapter 8. Yet even this had been foreseen in a prophecy within the Law itself in Deuteronomy chapter 17:14-15.

Deuteronomy 17:14 When thou art come unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, and shalt possess it, and shalt dwell therein, and shalt say, I will set a king over me, like as all the nations that are about me; 15 Thou shalt in any wise set him king over thee, whom the LORD thy God shall choose: one from among thy brethren shalt thou set king over thee: thou mayest not set a stranger over thee, which is not thy brother.

When the children of Israel could not keep the laws of Yahweh even under an earthly king, they were condemned to a period of seven times of punishment. Reading Daniel and the Revelation, that punishment is manifest in the 2520 years of Tyranny that had held the children of Israel captive under the beast empires and the papacy of Rome.

At the first Advent of Christ the children of Israel were only about 700 years into their period of punishment, and they had about 1800 years left. Understanding that situation, Paul of Tarsus in Romans chapter 13 explained that worldly governments were meant to be a punishment from God for those who do wickedly, but that those who loved God and sought to do good would have approval even from those governments. (As a parenthetical note, we must state that the persecutions and martyrdoms of Christians are another matter entirely since they fulfilled the purpose of God in spite of the temporary sufferings of man.)

When the children of Israel were released from the 2520 years tyranny of earthly kings, they entered into a period of what they perceived as self-government. Now for over 200 years throughout Christendom the children of Israel have supposedly ruled themselves, and the end of them is far worse than the beginning. The founders of the modern parliamentary democracies and constitutional republics sought blessings, and all that they have received is curses.

In 1 Corinthians 15:24 Paul of Tarsus attests that at the Consummation of the Age of Christ that “He should hand over the kingdom to Yahweh who is also the Father; when He shall abolish all rule and all license and power.” In Matthew chapter 11 Christ appeals to His disciples and says “27 All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him. 28 Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. 29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. 30 For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”

Men have a choice, a choice which Christ Himself has offered them, and they have that choice now. They can continue to volunteer themselves into the governments of man, or they can seek the government of Yahweh their God. Seeking the government of God, Christians should not judge one another according to the precepts of men, but rather they should judge one another according to the Law of Yahweh. Paul of Tarsus had long ago encouraged Christians to do that same thing in 1 Corinthians chapter 6. Christians must not seek to uphold unrighteous governments. The period of punishment and ordained tyranny is over, and Christ calls us to repentance now. Christians must seek to adjust their world-views to conform to Christ now, and not wait for a miracle or for their own death and resurrection. When Christians conform their minds to Christ, the Kingdom of Heaven is made manifest in the world. As Paul of Tarsus also says, when Christians fulfill their obedience, only then will they have the God-given opportunity to avenge all disobedience. The same Paul also said “Do we then nullify the law by faith? Certainly not! Rather we establish the law.” His reference was to the Law of God.

Until Christians do choose Christ, repent for their national sins, and seek the government of Yahweh God and a return to His Law, they will continue to be oppressed by the vilest of men

Psalm 1:1 Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. 2 But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. 3 And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper. 4 The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away. 5 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous. 6 For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

Until Christians do choose Christ, repent for their national sins, and seek the government of Yahweh God and a return to His Law, they will continue to be oppressed by the vilest of men. This is inevitable, and it is best explained in an obscure parable which is found not in the New Testament, but in the Old: in Judges chapter 9. This parable is best called the parable of the trees of the forest, from Judges 9:8-15:

“8 The trees went forth on a time to anoint a king over them; and they said unto the olive tree, Reign thou over us. 9 But the olive tree said unto them, Should I leave my fatness, wherewith by me they honour God and man, and go to be promoted over the trees? 10 And the trees said to the fig tree, Come thou, and reign over us. 11 But the fig tree said unto them, Should I forsake my sweetness, and my good fruit, and go to be promoted over the trees? 12 Then said the trees unto the vine, Come thou, and reign over us. 13 And the vine said unto them, Should I leave my wine, which cheereth God and man, and go to be promoted over the trees? 14 Then said all the trees unto the bramble, Come thou, and reign over us. 15 And the bramble said unto the trees, If in truth ye anoint me king over you, then come and put your trust in my shadow: and if not, let fire come out of the bramble, and devour the cedars of Lebanon.”

The olive tree, the fig tree and the vine would not abandon the good and productive things which they were accustomed to do in exchange for any desire to rule over their fellow trees. But the bramble, when asked as a last resort, said “if in truth ye anoint me king”, because being the lowest of the trees it did not even believe that it was asked to reign over the other trees. The lesson here is that when men seek earthly kings to reign over them, they shall naturally end up with the lowest and most useless sorts as their rulers. Once they do, they must subject themselves to the scum of the earth or be devoured by them. So in that manner the lowest of men gain the advantage over the most noble. The useless brambles acquire the power to destroy the magnificent cedars.

When the United States was founded it rejected nobility. The founding fathers understood the problems with the noble classes of Europe. So they set up a government which they envisioned would be operated by men who left their farms or professions and their worldly cares at home, to go to Washington to serve at their own expense for two years, or six years, as a public service for little recompense. But it was not long before the brambles crept in and took over. The olive trees did not want to leave their called vocation of making olives for the benefit of men so that they could rule over their fellow trees. The fig trees knew that their jobs were to produce figs that men needed for food. Neither did they want to abandon those things which they were naturally fit to do in order to rule over the other trees. The same was true of the vine, which did not want to leave its production of grapes for wine in order to rule over the other trees. These all represent the doctor, the carpenter, the mason, the plumber, the farmer or the rancher. They did not want to leave those things which they were naturally suited to doing, abandoning those things which suit their interests and abilities to rule over other men. But the bramble is good for nothing, it never produces anything of use, so it naturally fills that void which good and productive men do not desire to fill.

The American government was designed to be a government of the common people in contrast with the traditional systems of Europe, especially that of England with its nobles and lifelong lords. But now when one examines the American political class, in spite of the plans of the founders the brambles quickly rose to power everywhere.

Regardless of where one looks, the entire political class is filled with men and women who never did anything productive, who never worked with their hands to build or create anything, and who never created any real opportunity for others to actually create anything. They are all parasites and the vast majority of them have always been parasites. The brambles are still in power, and they are in control of the lives of all men.

Once men seek earthly kings to rule over them, they shall naturally end up with the lowest and most useless sorts as their rulers. Allowing the brambles to be their rulers, men must subject themselves to the scum of the earth or be devoured by them, and the lowest of men gain advantage over the most noble. When the brambles are fully entrenched, not even the cedars of Lebanon can escape their destruction. Eventually men must turn to Christ, because no one else can save them ■

There is No Political Solution

William R Finck

There are many apparently well-intentioned Christians today who are promoting certain forms of political activism, wishing to reform the government of this once-great republic, and to turn it back to the interests of its natural-born citizens. For this reason we see and hear of demonstrations, “tea parties”, appeals to the original Constitution of the nation, and even state secessions, civil war and armed insurrection. Yet none of this is Scriptural, and indeed, the parasite-infested carcass that was once our body of government certainly cannot ever be reformed. While surely it is possible that the schemers on Wall Street may be able to breathe some new life into the beast, and keep its heart beating awhile longer, the final outcome is nevertheless inevitable, and Babylon shall fall.

Yes, Babylon. The root of the word means confusion, and while surely that is all that we get from our government today, the correlation is much deeper than that. Here are the telltale signs that our Western governments are indeed under the spell and control of the enigma which the Bible calls “Mystery Babylon”:

The democratic form of government can be traced back beyond Athens to ancient Sumer, a district of which Babylon was the chief city. This is established in several ancient Mesopotamian inscriptions.

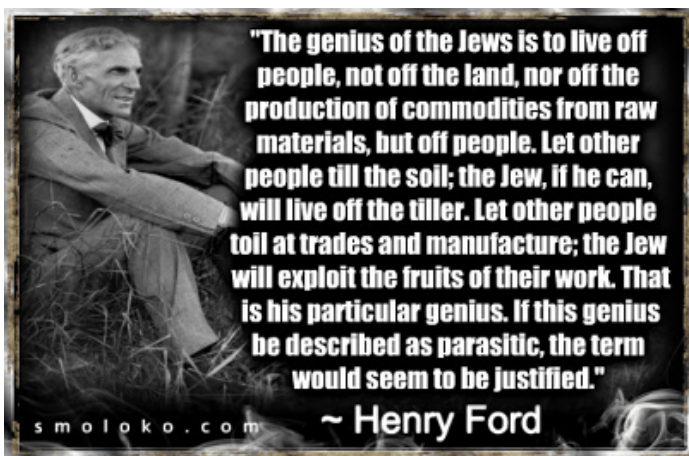

Therefore it is not a new idea, and it has always failed, leading to war and eventual tyranny. The federation of these United States of America was not founded as a democracy.

The commercial laws of the West, and of Britain and the United States in particular, have their origin in the Shetar, a book of the jews found in the Babylonian Talmud. Scholarly sources have demonstrated this. Usury was a practice forbidden by Christians, and alien to our Saxon and Keltic ancestors, until the jew was admitted into the lands of our fathers. The capitalist system as practiced in the west is truly jewish in nature, and self-destructive to those who fall victim to it. America was originally a free-enterprise, and not a usury-based capitalist nation. There is a difference.

The romish catholic church, its rituals, many of its beliefs, and its practice of universalism in spite of the specificity of the covenants of Yahweh the God of Israel (none of whom are jews) also may be traced back to the ancient pagan cults of Babylonia and Mesopotamia. The romish church is in actuality a pagan church, Christian only to the extent of its own spurious claims. It has never been the “true church” of Christ, which is actually the Keltic and Saxon and related Christian people as a body, and not an organization. Neither have any of the protestant sects truly lived up to the Bible. They have rather merely replaced many romish church teachings with equally insidious dogmas, and systematically ignore, or even reject, sound Christian doctrine.

It is surely evident that Mystery Babylon has political, religious and economic aspects. Yet all of this is driven by one thing: the desire for open-border free trade and the flow of monies by those international merchants and bankers who have no allegiance to any particular race or country, but rather have historically been parasites feeding off of all the other races – but especially the White race.

Henry Ford called them “the international jew”. The 16th, 17th and 18th chapters of the Book of Revelation relate Mystery Babylon directly to international trade. The government of this nation, and of all of the other so-called “democracies”, has fallen into the control of these merchants through the central banking system which they own and are in full control of. That is a part of the confusion which the term Babylon describes: the Bank of England is owned not by the English, but by certain jewish families. The Federal Reserve is not federal, nor is it a reserve, but rather it is merely another instrument of those same jewish families. Yes, it is owned by banks which are “public” companies, however those companies are closely controlled by an elite minority through the use of devices such as special share classes and “voting” shares.

Yahweh God created nations and borders (i.e. Deut. 32:8, Acts 17:26). It is the goal of Satan to eradicate them, confusing the nations in a Babylonish hodge-podge of multiculturalism and diversity. It is not a mistake that this program of confusion is only being carried out in White Christian nations: an assault by the enemies of God upon His people. Globalism, multiculturalism, and diversity are all programs of the international jewish merchant: the dragon which gives its power to the beast. This dragon uses both international capitalism and socialist marxism to achieve its goals.

So, what is a Christian to do? The most sensible thing to do is simply to stop feeding the dragon! Scripture commands that a Christian be separated from the cares of the world. As the apostle James informs us, “Adulterers! Do you not know that the love of Society is hatred for Yahweh? He therefore who would desire to be a friend of Society establishes himself as an enemy of Yahweh!” (James 4:4, CNT). This is also evident in the parable of the sower, found in Matthew chapter 13 and Mark chapter 4, among other places in Scripture.

Rather than trying to somehow take back the corrupted system of government, Christians are explicitly told to separate themselves from the corrupt society. Here that is evident from both the writings of Paul, and the Revelation of Yahshua Christ:

“And what agreement has a temple of Yahweh with idols? For you are a temple of the living Yahweh; just as Yahweh has said, ‘I will dwell among them, and I will walk about; and I will be their God, and they will be my people.’ On which account ‘Come out from the midst of them and be separated,’ says the Prince, and ‘do not be joined to the impure, and I will admit you’.” (2 Corinthians 6:16-17, CNT)

“And I heard another voice from out of heaven, saying: “You come out from her, My people, that you should not partake in her errors, and that you would not receive from of her wounds, because her errors have built up as far as heaven and Yahweh has called to mind her injustices!” (Rev. 18:4-5, CNT)

Rather than attempting to take back Babylon, the Scripture instead commands first an obedience to the laws of Yahweh, and He will heal our nation, as we read in Deuteronomy chapter 28:1-7: “And it shall come to pass, if thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe and to do all his commandments which I command thee this day, that the LORD thy God will set thee on high above all nations of the earth: And all these blessings shall come on thee, and overtake thee, if thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God.

Blessed shalt thou be in the city, and blessed shalt thou be in the field. Blessed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy ground, and the fruit of thy cattle, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep. Blessed shall be thy basket and thy store. Blessed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and blessed shalt thou be when thou goest out. The LORD shall cause thine enemies that rise up against thee to be smitten before thy face: they shall come out against thee one way, and flee before thee seven ways.”

Only the children of Israel can be obedient. This is because only the children of Israel were given the law, circumcised hearts, redeemed, cleansed, and purchased by the blood of Yahshua Christ. This applies only to the Keltic, Saxon and related White Christian nations, all of whom descended from the Israelites of the Old Testament. Being obedient, we cannot have communion with the unclean – the alien races. It is those same internationalists who have caused the flood of aliens to come over the White nations in the first place. Peter told our predecessors – those Aryan Christians of Anatolia who had also descended from the Biblical Israelites - that we were “an elect race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people” (CNT, 1 Pet. 2:9), a precept given to our fathers as far back as Exodus chapter 19. The only way to stay elect, holy, and peculiar is to be separate.

Therefore it should be wholly evident that the Christian should separate himself from the beast, from the unclean, and from the programs of international jewry. While one must get by in society, work, pay taxes, in order to keep a home and raise a family, one doesn't have to keep feeding the dragon in order to manage. Yahshua Christ told us to “render to Caesar the things of Caesar, and to Yahweh the things of Yahweh!” Those movies and television programs that the jews make in Hollywood? Stop buying them, or at least stop paying to see them. The same for all of that pop music produced by the jewish-controlled record companies, most of which is laced with globalist or egalitarian propaganda.

Organized sports is idol-worship and elevates the children of strange gods: the Christian should have no part in their promotion or support. The jewish owned and operated mainstream press? It is wholly evil and should be absolutely avoided by Christians. Say goodbye to the New York Times, CNN, The Wall Street Journal, Time, Newsweek, USA Today, the major television networks and all other such trash, for it is all complete internationalist zionist propaganda. All of these outlets promote nothing but evil. The pulp-novel industry is also evil. Expose these as such in public and inform your brethren daily. Stop partaking in usury. Save up money to buy the things that you need. If you can, pay off all debts early and stop borrowing money! Interest payments are the oil of the internationalist jew machinery.

Love thy brother. Charity begins at home. All of the internationalist charities magnify the non-Christian heathens at the expense of the White Christian, and at the same time they create comfortable and well-paid positions for the zionists and their flunkies. We Christians have hungry and needy White children here in our own nation! Do you have money to spare? Find a worthy White family – especially one trying to raise children – and give it to them! And if not, then perhaps there are elderly White men and women who could use the help. Do not let your local pastors or so-called churches burden your consciences with pleas for your help or demands for tithes. Often they have set all of the precepts of Yahweh's laws aside except for their demand for the tithe! A hundred years ago, when the local church was the primary provider for widows and orphans, it was much more worthy than it is today. Now, the organized religions have ceded their responsibility to the community to the marxist government, which also fails White widows and orphans. Tithe Yahweh your God by providing for your brethren.

Love thy brother. This command is economic as much as it is anything else. Hire White men. Do business with White men. Buy as much locally-produced food and goods as possible, even if it costs more. White men are the only race who would cut off each others' subsistence to save a few dollars! Is that a display of love for one's brother? How does your brother feed his family, if you love the aliens? In my 2007 paper Translating Luke 16:8&9, I wrote the following: "If White men were truly concerned with their brethren, we could never be in the trouble which we are in today! One cannot love his brother, yet hire a Mexican to do labor, saving a few dollars an hour while putting his brother out of work. One cannot love his brother, yet shop at a Korean-owned grocery store rather than a White-owned store, to save ten or twenty cents on grocery items. One cannot love his brother, and buy an appliance made in China, rather than one made in Minnesota, because it is a few dollars cheaper. One's desire to save a few dollars would put all of his brethren out of work! Our care for riches has, therefore, precluded our ability to serve Yahweh by loving our brethren (John 13:34-35; 1 John 2:7-11; 3:11-17). And this is precisely what has been happening in the White nations for the past hundred years! Our care for riches and the desire to save a few dollars – or to buy more material goods for the money we have – has enriched the Mexicans, the Japanese, the Chinese, the Arabs, the Turks, all of those who truly hate us, and especially the jews! The jews, of course, have orchestrated and have taken full advantage of this situation, and thus is our predicament. Notice that the global trade system is described as 'Mystery Babylon' in the Revelation, fully evident as it is described at Revelation chapter 18.

This system is doomed to fail, as it is written. Shall White men recognize it, and those behind it, when it does fail? Pray that they shall! Shall the jews seek and gain refuge with our enemies, as the unrighteous steward hoped to find a place to dwell with his master's debtors? They may try, but I think not (Rev. 20:9-15)! 1 John 2:9 says: 'He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.' To support the alien is equivalent to hating one's brother!"

There is an old saying that all politics is local. This is true. If one feels a need to get involved in the community, to do so at a local level is good, always being ready to rebuke evil and setting a good Christian example for one's brethren. However all party politics at the State and national levels – and often at even lower levels – is corrupted by internationalist corporate dollars and will not serve the people regardless of the claims being made. The Christian must always be aware of this, and speak out against it, but to participate in reform of this system is futile. All of these things are only a start, but the more a Christian does them, the closer he comes to departing from Babylon. For the internationalist jewish system of debt and slavery certainly is going to fall. And only Yahweh knows the time ■

Make America Hate Again

Sermon notes of Pastor Mark Downey

Scripture Reading: Proverbs 8:13 -

“The fear of the Lord is to hate evil: pride, and arrogance, and the evil way, and the fraudulent mouth, do I hate.”

You might agree with today's message and that would be alright. It's about time. Coming to the truth is sometimes on borrowed time after a lifetime of lies and that's called grace. It's coming to an understanding of unmerited favor. But, better late than never. God created time and there is “A time to love, and a time to hate” Eccl. 3:8. You either believe that as a Christian or you might as well be an atheist. Love without hate or vice versa is a nullification of the Gospels of Jesus Christ. America used to hate what most people today love. This is somewhat of an election sermon leading up to my open letter to Donald Trump (if he doesn't get killed). I must give credit where credit is due for today's sermon title. Thank you Hillary Clinton for your hatred of us Americans who you consider “deplorable.” It's not just Trump supporters, but anyone who does not genuflect to the libertard agenda of anti-White and pro-global elitists is a stunning witness to mind control run amuck. For so much noose-worthy current events of a Jezebel anti-type (a New Testament parallel to the Old) having so much enigmatic health concerns, her mouth seems to be functioning like a high performance Denny Crane (that's a Jewish lawyer with a messianic complex). Not only are those not voting for Hillary a basket of deplorables, which had to be a premeditated jingoism, but the same comedy writers side-swiped us with the jingo 'make America hate again.' The deplorable basket remark was so damning that she apologized. She didn't mean to say 50%; she meant 100%, and all sorts of yellow journalists (media whores) are jumping on her narcotic bandwagon to deplore half of America. They must be high as a kike on the gods of their choice. What are “they” trying to make America do again and again and again? They are trying to crucify Christ every day with an ever increasing malignity. If you don't hate this slide into demonic government, then you need the mental floss to remove the junk from your brain. God's plan for the ages is that the nations of Israel come to a complete agreement with God. It's about time... 6000 years for the Adamic race to be in accord with God. There will no longer be two opinions about anything; there will be no more agreeing to disagree. “And everything has become new from God; He who reconciled us to Himself in The Messiah, and He has given us the ministry of the reconciliation” II Cor. 5:18. The context is racial and the “us” is us, not them.

In case you haven't noticed, race is the main ingredient that is arbitrarily being stirred into the national pot. But, there's much more to racism than racists or White Supremacists. The witches' brew is full of ethnic supremacists, race baiters, affirmative action actors and reverse racists. The White man has been singled out as the ultimate culprit for all the world's woes. Once again, a sound bite is a salvo of condemnation and shame, when in fact it is a truism and we should make America hate again. We should be proud to be White and superior in every way to every non-White sub-human. They are a sub-level because God made us above them. Their problem is with what they think is an ancient sky god, not us. We believe God does not change (Mal. 3:6). “Thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto Himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth” Deut. 7:6. But, Pastor Downey, that's so racist! Yes it is and you should hate those who have convinced you otherwise. They have conditioned and programmed you to have a mentality contrary to the “mind of Christ.” And it is increasingly inculcated in this era of Obama Youth to hate 'hate groups' without sensing their own hypocrisy. They have made America hate itself for being right with their God. Racial realities are simply taboo subjects of racial reconciliation, being that there is really only one race of man with all other categories, the bastardized taxonomy of mutant mongrels. The interpolative “one blood” of Acts 17:26 is a hoax. Therefore, one can snivel about “racists, sexists, homophobic, xenophobic, Islamophobic... you name it,” but it just doesn't work anymore. The aforementioned isms and phobias are all biblically advocated. Their old and worn out diatribes against hate have run its course and the white waters of a raging river are now nothing more than a puddle of mud. The misguided sheep have been led to the slaughterhouse of ruin and all the millions of dollars that have poured down the drain of racial equality, religious universalism and edjewcation can be translated into inner city rot, riots and refugee madness. Surely one can see in this election year of 2016, that there is no one defending the White race from a Christian standpoint other than Christian Identity.

I went to school in Minnesota in the 1960's and it was a great state for White people. But cultural Marxism entered the state and along with it, the jewish conspiracy to change the Scandinavian demographics. Who would have thought that one of the largest Somalian enclaves in the country would be St. Cloud, MN? And yet there it is smack dab in the heart of Swedish, Norwegian and Germanic culture. Got culture war? Who in their right mind would think that these primitive Africans would ever acclimate to White Christian American values? It would be those bleeding hearts who think they know more than God Almighty who warned our ancestors “They shall not dwell in your land” Ex. 23:33. In 2014 these Islamic mongrels had grown to such numbers that they applied for city permits to start construction on a bigger and better mosque. At the same time, nine Somalis were convicted of plotting to join ISIS. These were not impressionable youth, but determined terrorists who hated our nation, a nation who lavished them with charity and luxuries not found in their native lands. They are the perfect pawns in the hands of their jew handlers.

Last Saturday, once again, one of these sub-human ingrates went on a stabbing spree at a local mall severely injuring nine people while blurting “Allah.” An employee at a JC Penney store said, “There was blood everywhere, it was just honestly a really scary experience.” Well, of course it was... we let them dwell in our land and when we do that, the White man's Bible says it's gonna get scary: “That they may not teach you to do according to all their detestable [deplorable] things which they have done for their gods, so that you would sin against the Lord your God” Deut.20:18. Do you think the Baal priests of the local churches or the city fathers in St. Cloud who issued a building permit feared the God of Israel? Stop for a moment and think about being attacked by a knife wielding maniac, your body being violently pierced and punctured multiple times with a kitchen knife and all you can see is red before you go into shock. And it's all because America coddles the gods of those who hate us. I choose not to be ventilated by an enemy of our God and that is why I can tell Hillary Clinton I will do everything I can to make America hate again. And wouldn't you know, the shopping mall was a “gun free zone.” Don't you just hate the insanity?

Poor old and decrepit Hillary sees a racist under every bed. She and her co-conspirator-in-chief did, in fact, create ISIS by making it US foreign policy to support the opposition of the legitimate government of Syria in a civil war. It was a secret until Judicial Watch secured documents from an August 2012 defense intelligence report stating that the Syrian opposition was dominated by All Qaeda in Iraq and the Islamic State of Iraq (groups that merged and morphed into what today we call ISIS), which openly claims that the policy of the United States and its allies was to support the opposition to Syrian president Bashar al-Assad. On 9-17-16 Obama directed the US Air Force to bomb Syrian Army positions, killing 63 soldiers, putting an end to the recent ceasefire. In a lame excuse, the State Dept. said they thought they were hitting ISIS targets... uh huh. Whose side is the US oligarchy really on? Subsequently, the bombings continued. One rescue worker described the incendiary bombs as rain falling from the sky as an aid convoy that would have brought food and medicine to 78,000 civilians was pelted, killing 21. The American military blamed the Syrian and Russian forces for the attack. However, Russia released drone footage from the incident which they say shows a militant (ISIS) pick-up truck traveling next to the convoy carrying a heavy mortar, which they say caused the tragedy. In retaliation for American duplicity, the Russians called an airstrike on 9-22-16, killing over two dozen IsraelIE and Western intel officers at a foreign military operations room, who are there for the sole purpose of giving support to ISIS.

Besides the alien invasion of Minnesota, there were other terrorist attacks last weekend in New Jersey and New York, both having ISIS affiliations. Hillary has retorted that these associations with her capacity as Secretary of State and terrorism is nonsense. Likewise the secret that can no longer be kept hidden about her health is referred to as a “paranoid fever dream.” She said, “This is what happens when you treat the National Enquirer like Gospel.” There are libel laws and she's a lawyer. What's she waiting for if she's been libeled? Her problem with wanting to be the queen of America is that she treats the Gospels like a cheap tabloid rag. Her righteousness is indeed as filthy rags and yet she exudes the spirit of filth. She hates the Gospels and therefore has no desire to repent of anything. She is the change agent for the adversaries of God. She mocks those who deny the absurdity of Sandy Hook, to keep alive the lies of those who create false flags and then come up with draconian measures to disarm America. This Jezebel wants to be President of the UNITED STATES (INC.) and has no love for its founders and their posterity. She will be America's first female dictator. We already have America's first black dictator, who now wants to increase the number of Syrian et al refugees to 110,000. The real threat to our election process is that the Obama regime has ordered these aliens be put on the fast track for citizenship; federal workers have been ordered to work overtime and that they be located in key election states in order to vote. And who do you think is paying for this massive logistical overnight miracle? When the IRS sends out a letter, it's addressed "Dear Taxpayer," because it's a legal term designating the modern slave; you have no identity. Dear Mr. ISIS, welcome to America.

We need to make America hate again. We hate the literal changing complexion from light to dark. We hate parasites on a host country. We hate them that hate Jesus Christ. Since the inside job of 9/11, the wished-for dialectic of fighting the jew's war in the Middle East, the shadow government in Washington DC has destroyed 7 countries, killed millions of people and displaced millions. Where are they going? They've gone to the continent of fear, Europe. Before their massive arrivals, there were no epidemics of chaos. In the last 2 years there have been 443 murders and 18 terror attacks. It is now open season on the White women of Europe to be raped, tortured, beaten, brutalized... on the street, by roving gangs of swarthy Muslims, showing their appreciation for the liberal standards taken by the authorities to do nothing. These mongrel rapists are not a fringe minority of the poor huddled masses yearning to breathe free. On the contrary, they are the norm, the mainstream of sand niggers. In Europe, rape was against the law; it is against God's Law! But in Islamic and jewish jurisdictions it is celebrated as the law of the land. If you get raped, too bad. Don't you just love helping the ungodly? I know I'm preaching to the choir, but some stray that wandered into this article might want to read II Chronicle 19:2. It's not Germany anymore. It's not Sweden anymore. It's not France anymore. The French Prime Minister/Puppet said "The times have changed and France is going to have to live with terrorism." They're going to have to live with a reversal of Romans 13:3, because they don't have the hate to be a terror unto the evil. Will we be asking if this is America anymore in the next few years? Hey, wake up and smell the coffee! It hasn't been America since hate was outlawed by political correctness. The question really is: will you be laying in a puddle of blood after being stabbed and raped and have the shallow countenance to say "thank you"? Just live with the knife penetrating your back please.

I'm not finished with Jezebel Clinton. Her jew script writers sanctimoniously intoned in her Aug. 8 diatribe against the phantom alt-right: "You know I've stood by President Obama's side as he made the toughest decisions a commander-in-chief has to make. In times of crisis, our country depends on steady leadership, clear thinking, calm judgment, because one wrong move can mean the difference between life and death. The last thing we need in the Situation Room is a loose cannon who can't tell the difference between fact and fiction, and who buys so easily into racially tinged rumors. Someone so detached from reality should never be in charge of making decisions that are as real as they come."

The only crises we've had in this country for the last 100 years have all been engineered by a rogue government that has no moral compass or Christian rudder.

Alexis de Tocqueville, French diplomat and historian (circa 1805-59), said in his well known analysis of the American phenomenon, "America is great because she is good. If America ceases to be good, America will cease to be great." At one time America was good at knowing when it was time to hate. When we lost that ability to hate what God hates, we ceased being good. In fact, we've become good for nothing.

He also made another brilliant observation that rings so true, that: "The American Republic will endure until the day Congress discovers that it can bribe the public with the public's money.” The good name of de Tocqueville has been hijacked like so many other stalwart men of Christian character by the satanic disinformation of Masons. He spent 9 months here studying what made America tick and after writing the aforementioned quote above about why we were a great nation, and he concluded that it was the Christian church. The Masonic spin doctors came to quite another conclusion for their own nefarious reasons with the assertion that there was no record of de Tocqueville ever saying this and what he really meant was the good works of moral people through the fraternal organizations, like the lodge. Actually there is a record of proof and the Masons are shown to have no compunction at bearing false witness. The French statesman wrote in the same paper he gave to Parliament about our greatness, the following, “I went at your bidding and passed through their thorough-fares of trade; I ascended their mountains and went down their valleys; I visited their manufactories, their commercial markets and emporiums of trade; I entered their judicial courts and legislative halls; but I sought everywhere in vain until I entered the Church. It was there as I listened to the soul-elevating principles of the Gospel of Christ, as they fell from Sabbath to Sabbath upon the masses of the people, that I learned why America was great and free and why France was a slave.”

How can anyone not hate the Masonic revisionism of rewriting history; of taking away our heritage as Marx advocated in order to easily persuade or dumb-down the masses? De Tocqueville visited America when the pulpits were fresh from a revolution and on fire with the Gospel of repentance and salvation.

America at that time was experiencing a revival, what's been called The Second Great Awakening from 1824-1835, commensurate with the formation of the Anti-Masonic Party. Why? Because White Christian Americans had the smarts to hate the evil that was worming its way into the body politic. It's those who cry anti-defamation the loudest who are in league with the satanic Game of defamation. Today, Christian Identity is the only body of true believers that has a perfect hatred of the counterfeit church, a church that whores itself to the unfruitful branches of government. We count them as our enemies.

Ask our poor dumb friends in churchianity, “Do you love God?” And they most likely will say, “Yes, we love God with all our heart and soul.” And then ask them, “Did you know that in order to love God, you have to hate something?” And their dumbness will bubble up to the surface and they'll say something like “we don't hate anybody; we hate the sin, but love the sinner.” Ahh, they admit they hate something, but disconnect the cause and effect. And then tell them, Psalm 97:10 says, “Ye that love the Lord, hate evil; the Lord preserves the souls of his saints; he shall deliver them from the hand of sinners” LXX.

Therefore, it can only be the person, the perpetrator of evil and/or sin, and in this case a plurality of sinners. America cannot be great again unless she can hate again. The Greek word for hate is miseo (#G3404) and simply means “to detest.” According to Webster's 1828, 'detest' means to “throw or thrust away.”

America was good in 1776, because our founders threw away the shackles of evil, which was the persecution of Christian liberties, as enumerated in many documents confirming the principles of biblical law. America is no longer a reflection of good, but evil and as such loves those who hate the Lord. But, we can still have a greater calling and divine purpose if we love God and hate those who hate the Lord. “Sin is the transgression of the Law” I John 3:4. And “The wages of sin is death” Romans 6:23.

If you love death more than life, you deserve to be in a Jim Jones cult. However, you may not think you're in a death cult, when in reality the cult of political correctness rejects and removes hate from your mind. They have removed a mechanism for life. If you don't mind putting your hand in a rattlesnake pit, then be my guest. Personally, I detest it. And did not Jesus refer to His enemies as a "generation of vipers"? Don't you just love the insanity? Let's embrace the flood of serpent refugees into our communities and they can become Cobra-Christians.

Someone so detached from reality who doesn't think the Bible is "racially tinged" is a loose cannon jeopardizing the life or death situation America faces today. When we are inundated with poisonous snakes in our national living room, what makes you think you're not going to get bit? The reality is that there is "a time to hate" and the time to hate is now if you are White and clueless as to which direction you must go. The choice is not between the thesis and antithesis, it's between good and evil. Dialectics can only give you a prefabricated synthesis and a rigged election. The election of God, on the other hand, is the predestination of racially tinged Scripture. The Truth is not littered with junk and it can make you free if you take out the garbage. Lord knows it's about time for true Israel to once again throw off the shackles of antichrist propaganda. We face the same decision Adam and Eve had to make, only this time the warped and perverted world of serpentine government(s) will be so hated by a Remnant of overcomers, that the Adamic people will make the right choice and decide to go with the tree of life. There are many propositions as to what the tree of life encompasses, but racially it is maintaining the pure genetic integrity of your family tree. Let's face it, Hillary and her Wall Street gang bangers have done everything in their power to destroy the traditional nuclear family, which has prospered throughout all of history; it takes a village of jungle bunnies to raise your White child. Oppose the surrender of your children with the hate of King David. Do we hate the kidnapping, but love the kidnapper? There's way too many of our people buying into the fantasy world of a Marxist utopia, in which families no longer exist.

The evil design is to destroy the Abrahamic Covenant whereby "In thee shall all the families of the earth be blessed" Gen. 12:3. By "In thee" they mean to tell you that all 'people groups' or mongrel cultures will be blessed by none other than the antichrist jews, the Christ killers. That can't be true, because it's never happened; just the opposite, because jews have been what the Bible calls them, "a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them" Jer. 24:9. Is it insane not to hate a curse or what? If jews are a curse, then it's impossible for them to bless anyone, including themselves. The context of Gen. 12:3 is the spiritually enlightened Israelites i.e. White Christians, being a blessing to the rest of mankind/Adamkind. That is why Christ came for the lost sheep of the house of Israel and we should too: to bless them with the Good News of their identity and tell that they are the true heirs of the promise. The only promise wolves in sheep's clothing can give you is a rapture float into outer space and a pair of socks under the Christmas tree. You are not a member of the floating flock if you hate what God hates. Which begs the question: what does God hate? Well, I'm glad you asked the question. God hates what Hillary loves: jews, faggots, zuwr immigrants, feminists, jihadists... you name it.

Wait a minute! jews??? Aren't they God's chosen people and won't accept Christ until He returns to earth again? No! They perpetuate the lie that they are of the tribe of Judah, and hence Ju's or jews (an invented slang word which does not belong in the Bible). That's why Jesus was a Judahite, not a jew. But that fraud was predicted: "I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews [Judahites], and are not, but are the synagogue of satan [mongrel jews]" Rev. 2:9. John knew they would claim to be Judah, but they weren't. They were Edomites, the descendants of Esau, who mixed his seed; a breed of mongrels would pretend to be something they were not. Should we not hate them who are congenital liars? We can't serve two masters. "Either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money" Mt. 6:24. Esau is on top of the mountain through the pernicious treadmill of usury banking. You can't love God and the jew at the same time; you must hate one or the other... if you're a hate-filled Christian.

And boy, did my cup runneth over with hate when I discovered the Truth. Nobody likes being fooled. Nobody wants to remain a fool once they understand the Truth. The reality is that God loves the true Israel and hates the fake one.

"The oracle of the word of the Lord to Israel [the White race] through Malachi. I have loved you, says the Lord. But you say, How have you loved us? Was not Esau Jacob's brother? declares the Lord. Yet I have loved Jacob, but I have hated Esau [the jews], and

I have made his mountains a desolation and appointed his inheritance for the jackals of the wilderness... Whereas Edom saith, We are impoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places [Jerusalem]; thus saith the Lord of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, the border of wickedness, and, the people against whom the Lord hath indignation for ever" Malachi 1:1-4. So let us be indignant as well and hate them in perpetuity.

I don't see how anyone is unable to agree with me after a clear presentation of facts and logic, unless their minds have been so mongrelized with the "deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved" II Thes. 2:10. To turn America around, we need to make America hate those who hate the Truth; not just the sin of lawlessness will be hated, but the sinner/lawbreaker as well. But, just because we hate does not mean that we should be "shaken in mind, or be troubled" (II Thes. 2:2. "Let no man deceive you by any means; for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition" II Thes. 2:3. The apostasy or "falling away" is here now as evidenced in 35,000 denominations of never-ending splinters, the abundance of self-righteous know-it-alls. Don't hold your breath waiting for an individual "son of perdition" as the expression is collective. Judas was the 'son of perdition' and is represented today by those who have fallen away from the Gospel message. The 'sign of perdition' is found in Phil. 1:28 where it's talking about our Christian unity, "And in nothing terrified by your [our] adversaries; which is to them an evident token [sign] of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God." I think Christian Identity signifies this mindset of being God fearing men, rather than fearing the terror of tyrants. How many shake in their boots "for fear of the jews" for daring to deny these sons of Judas their de facto "chosen" status? Do not fear the cowardly, spineless parasite jew for they can only fight through money grubbing mercenaries, like the CEO of Wells Fargo Bank.

I told my wife about a Senate hearing on C-Span I watching the other day over the Wells Fargo scandal. It was so outrageous; the corruption of the banking industry bilking millions of customers while the CEO makes hundreds of millions of dollars. It's like the bigger the crime, the less likely it is that top executives will go to jail; they're just too rich to go to jail! One would think that crime pays. It's like the more evil they are, the less chance for justice. But, I'm telling you there's not enough hate to put the evil behind bars or to string 'em up on the nearest lamp post. What good is a jury that has a soft spot in their heart for even the wicked? That jury is not only good for nothing, it is an accomplice to evil. We hear the common refrain "well, in the end we win." That is true, but I ask you, why not end it now? All it takes is a little hate. "For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way" II Thes. 2:7. In the KJV, "letteth" means to restrain or hinder. In plain English it means anyone who is hindering the Holy Spirit is going to be eliminated. Christ is not coming back as a mild mannered lamb; He's returning as the Lion of Judah, to consume the wicked with the spirit of His mouth and shall destroy with the brightness of His coming (II Thes. 2:8). Where have we heard something similar to "taken out of the way"? It's the underlying significance of miseo i.e. to hate, to detest; to "throw or thrust away." When your indoor trash receptacle begins to stink, you take it outside and put it in a garbage can, because it smells bad. You hate the foul stench. The same is true with the New World Odor.

In Orwell's 1984, there was a fusion of opposites; for example: war is peace, freedom is slavery, ignorance is strength and stink is perfume. This is the action of simultaneously accepting two mutually contradictory beliefs as correct. And that is how the enemy brainwashes us. Society believes that love is good and hate is evil; two truisms of political correctness that accepts the coexistence of opposites. The problem with this is that both love and hate are contextually good and therefore are not mutually exclusive. We have to define our terms. As I quoted Eccl. 3:8 earlier, there is a time for both and have the seal of approval from God. In fact, if we love God, we hate evil and that's the time to hate, to detest, to throw away. This is scarcely stated more eloquently than The Declaration of Independence to wit: "Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security." 'To throw off' is to throw away, to detest, to hate. The absolute despotism in America today understands quite well how much people hate their evil. That is why they must demonize the peasants of the middle class who must gather their own straw to make bricks for the state. Should they dare to blow a whistle on wrong-doers or apply a redress of grievances, they shall be labeled. Wow, I'm so scared of being labeled (said sarcastically).

There are three elements being entertained in today's message and they are reality, mentality and Christianity. Any two without the other is illusion. That's what magicians create. You can't hate if you can't discern reality, if your mind is manipulated and if you're an apostate, hyphenated, denominational judeo-Christian. Your nation-race is a fiction when your identity has been robbed and spoiled. The nation of free enterprise that I grew up in is disappearing. It is being replaced by the United States of Apathy

Mystery Babylon is a criminal cabal running the global economy and they choose the winners and losers. But, to maintain the Game, they have to fudge reality and lobotomize the brain.

The godless technocrats realize that they must inculcate a hive mentality as soon as a toddler can walk. Recently some kids were packin' some gums into school and they chewed it into the shape of a gun, for which they were summarily suspended. Jon Rappoport made some interesting observations about this growing menace (<https://jonrappoport.wordpress.com/2016/09/13/min-d-control-vs-freedom>). For many years, schools in America have practiced zero tolerance for anything smacking of a pistol, with swift repercussions. The idea is that society can be conditioned to forsake guns to eliminate crime. The premise, however, is that we are no different than Pavlov's dogs salivating at the ringing of a bell. If the principle of 'the greatest good for the greatest number' is the accepted standard, then the model can expand and presume to be good. But, what if they voted for a program that would eradicate racism, that as a biological impulse, it could be surgically or chemically removed from the brain? Of course it's preposterous to think that hate could entirely be wiped out of man's consciousness. Nevertheless, there are mad scientists who are very serious about altering our minds and our perception of reality. Although dangerous and absurd, it is now science. They intend to program our brains to accommodate their New World agenda. Whoever opposes that agenda i.e. hates it, will be classified as having a mental disorder, which will either be corrected or deleted like a computer. In their totalitarian state, there will be no independent thought necessary or even possible. So far, we are nearing this reality with peer pressure, legislation, coercion, political correctness, surveillance and dumbed-down education. It's not that we're really dumb, but numbed. And there's a number of ways to anesthetize society.

The enemy of all this hogwash is freedom, which our ancestors paid for with their lives. Did you know that not one university has a course on the inalienable right to life? Not even Harvard's school of law, medicine or theology will teach the ethics or lack thereof of abortion. That's how far we have descended into the demented malaise of altruism without Christian morality. The reason global elitists want to reduce the world's population to a manageable 500 million is because we are too dangerous to live free, hating evil, hating what they do.

And God's people obeying the Divine Law is the antithesis of wickedness. The wicked are safe if we do not hate them, but we have to be free to do so. We are free when we obey our Lord and Savior. "For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is Christ's servant" I Cor. 7:22. The enemy of our race can only employ behavior modification in us in such a way that invites the temptation to disobey the commands of God. We then become the slaves of the world. If we cannot hate our own self-imposed bondage, the programmers have won. We cannot free our race if we're not free.

For the last 30 years or so, we have become quite familiar with the occult technology of mind control from MKULTRA to subliminals to electronic transmissions (TV). Even the old prophecy teachers' warnings of the mark of the beast being microchip implants (the size of a grain of rice) have become outdated science. Devils in white smocks in secret laboratories are now talking about frequency entrainment technologies and emotion-mind manipulation techniques. The idea of implants is not new. Early primitive attempts to cure mental illness was shock therapy and crude surgeries. In 1964, a truly audacious stunt or scientific experiment was conducted by Dr. Jose Delgado, not with a lab rat or a monkey, but with a bull, the kind that charge matadors. Joseph P. Farrell writes of the incident "To drive his point home, he performed an experiment in Spain in a bullfighting ring by implanting a clunky electrode in a bull's brain. Delgado then "bravely" entered the ring, flashing not a matador's cape, but carrying only a remote control with a few buttons. The bull, of course, charged Delgado, who remained calm, simply standing there as the animal charged, coming within a few feet, and then Delgado pressed a button, and the charged bull stopped in its tracks." gizadeathstar.com/2016/09/mind-control-transhumanist-scrapbook-musk-wants-brain-hacking-technology/

Dr. Peter R. Breggin wrote of Delgado in this twisted treatise saying, "We need a programme of psychosurgery for political control of our society. The purpose is physical control of the mind. Everyone who deviates from the given norm can be surgically mutilated. The individual may think that the most important reality is his own existence, but this is only his personal point of view. This lacks historical perspective. Man does not have the right to develop his own mind. This kind of liberal orientation has great appeal. We must electrically control the brain. Some day armies and generals will be controlled by electric stimulation of the brain." (February 24, 1974 edition of the Congressional Record, No. 262E, Vol. 118) This must have impressed another mad man, Zbigniew Brzezinski, David Rockefeller's right hand man and foreign policy adviser to Jimmy Carter and Barry Soetoro (to this day), who genuflected in his book Between Two Ages, all about the technocratic control of society, and one of the technology areas specifically implicated in his book were precisely brain manipulation technologies. If you haven't heard of the Transhumanist movement, not to be confused with the transgender movement (both of which are abominations), we once again see man playing God with the assumption that science can extend life and even create it.

The brain is often compared to a computer and this new "technology" is using the cyber language of hacking into the brain and interfacing with a neural lace, a mesh-like device that would be implanted in a person directly through the bloodstream, controlling the release of certain neurons using the power of thought.

Nanotechnology experts have already developed an ultra-fine mesh of electronics that can seamlessly merge with the brain. This mesh has been tested on mice. Nano is a unit of measure; one nanometer is about the length that a fingernail grows in one second. Now let's think vaccinations and eliminate the idea of implants the size of a grain of rice. Imagine a technology that exists in the dream world of jewish communism to inject nanobots through forced vaccinations for a new alleged strain of flu that can only be cured with their magic serum.

The “serum” is really just a placebo, the construction of AI (artificial intelligence), a neural mesh, then begins to work symbiotically on your brain, without your informed or implied consent. In essence, a wireless digital brain upgrade. Would the power hungry turn their backs on their own people in such a diabolical scheme? Yes, if they want to keep their power forever. They gave us a clue with the “basket of deplorables.” “Stronger Together” anyone? Wouldn't it be cool to send texts and emails just by thinking about it?

To not only send thoughts, but to receive them? Think again and carefully. This would open the door for system managers to remotely read your mind, to map brain functions and to manipulate how you feel about... anything. They could even kill you with the flick of a switch. There could be a historic schism between spiritual people and electronic humans, but the latter will fall victim to the increasing loss of independent thought. Their feelings of love towards God and their hatred of evil could be programmed out of their mind. Far fetched? Perhaps, but like I said, the inertia of such things are already in motion.

“Men and brethren, what shall we do?” Acts 2:37. I believe God anticipated this juncture in history and gave us "The whole armor of God so that you can stand against the strategies of the false accuser... in the evil day" Ephesians 6:11, 13. We are indeed between two ages in which "Now the kingdom of heaven suffers violence [like never before], and violent men take it by force" Mt. 11:12. Will you detest this godless future of megalomaniacs and a mindless life? Here's the Catch-22: the false accusers may promise you an extended life span of a thousand years, but you have to surrender your brain to the hive. You may never have another hate speech in your vocabulary, or racist tendencies, or religious bigotry to false gods, or revulsion of perverts, but you will not be free. What does the Truth do for us? It makes us free! By the grace of God, we have an alternative choice to an evil world and can access the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is the pure unadulterated motivation from God, a mentality to separate ourselves from the corruptions of our faith. In John's vision, he "Saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for the testimony of Jesus and for the word of God, and those who had not worshiped the beast or its image and had not received its mark on their foreheads or their hands. They came to life and reigned with Christ for a thousand years." Rev. 20:4. This prophecy has already come and gone with the persecution of the early Christians and Christianity prevailed in Europe for about a thousand years without the devils of jewry. Thank God we have that history as our model to again stand our ground and hate the beast. There is a time to hate those who come in the name or authority of Christ, when in reality they come in the name of Judas. "For many shall come in My name saying, I am the Christ, and shall deceive many" Mt. 24:5. Do not be deceived by Judas-Christianity, for you will love the jew and hate Jesus Christ. If you are White, don't let anybody tell you hate is evil. Hate is the righteous weapon to destroy evil. May you find it in your heart now ■

THE WRATH OF THE AWAKENED SAXON

by Rudyard Kipling

It was not part of their blood,
It came to them very late,
With long arrears to make good,
When the Saxon began to hate.

They were not easily moved,
They were icy -- willing to wait
Till every count should be proved,
Ere the Saxon began to hate.

Their voices were even and low.
Their eyes were level and straight.
There was neither sign nor show
When the Saxon began to hate.

It was not preached to the crowd.
It was not taught by the state.
No man spoke it aloud
When the Saxon began to hate.

It was not suddenly bred.
It will not swiftly abate.
Through the chilled years ahead,
When Time shall count from the date
That the Saxon began to hate.

Rudyard Kipling 1865 – 1936

What is Christian Identity?

William Finck

Christian Identity, also sometimes called Israel Identity, is the only true conservative Christianity. It is true because it seeks to maintain the understanding - in accordance with Scripture - that the New Covenant was made only with those same people with whom the Old Covenant was made: the House (family) of Israel and the House (family) of Judah. These Israelite people are traceable through time to the Keltic and Germanic tribes of today. None of these people are Jews. The Jews are descended from a mere remnant of the old Kingdom of Judah along with assorted Edomite and other Arab who were mixed into the Roman province of Judaea during the Hellenic period. There are - at last count - at least sixteen detailed essays on this website which demonstrate this, and which are replete with Biblical, archaeological and historical citations.

Christian Identity is the belief that the Covenants of God are real and consistent. It professes that the people of the Old Testament were every bit as much Christian as the people of the New Testament. They were simply looking forward to the first advent of the Christ, while we today await His Second Advent. As the famous Christian bishop Ignatius said nineteen hundred years ago, Christianity did not come from Judaism: rather, Judaism is a perversion of Christianity.

Christian Identity is the belief that there is no disparity between the Word of God, His Creation, His prophecy, and world history. It is also the understanding that while Scripture was inspired by God when it was transmitted, men have certainly mistreated it since that time, and so every passage and every doctrine must be fully investigated from all of the most ancient sources possible. As it reads in the King James Version: Study to show thyself approved.

The audio file attached to this page is perhaps one of the best we have to offer for introducing Christian Identity to the uninitiated. [It can be downloaded at http://christogenea.org/content/william-finck-patriot-dames] Please listen to it objectively, rather than regarding the slanders of the ADL and similar Jewish organizations - forever the enemies of Christ.

This paper is under development, and so are our websites - always. We pray that you consider the things written here, and also in all of our other papers. And if you are one of His called, May God favor your journey. You may also want to note What Christian Identity is Not at
